The Give Service Girls' Play.

The enterprising Give Service Girls added another to their many successful undertakings when they presented the play, 'Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch,' at the Opera House on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon. The theatre was well filled at both performances and the play was thoroughly enjoyed by all. All the parts were well taken. Special mention should be made of Mrs Elliott who took the difficult part of Mrs. Wiggs. The cast of characters was as follows:

Australia ..... Gladys Redden
Asia ..... Helen Archibald
Europena ..... Elizabeth Ritchie
Chris Hezy ..... Doane Hatfield
Miss Lucy ..... Lorna Putt
Mrs Wiggs ..... Jean Elliott
Billy Wiggs ..... Bert Schurman
Mr Stubbins ..... Paul Tingley
Miss Hezy ..... Alice Stairs
Mrs Schultz ..... Carrie Baker
Mrs Echorn .. Blanche Fullerton
Lovey Mary .... Marjorie Chute
Little Tommy .... Bruce Hatfield
Mr Bob ..... Arthur Brown
Mr Schultz ..... William Stairs
Mr Wiggs .... George Waterbury

A Japanese Missionary.

Last Sunday Rev. J. Cooper Robinson, Anglican missionary in Japan, visited St John's church to the great pleasure and profit of the congregation He addressed the Sunday school in the afternoon and held the close attention of the children for nearly an hour. In the evening he spoke for considerable over an hour to a congregation who literally hung upon his words. Mr Robinson, who has the honor of being the first foreign Canadian Anglican missionary, has spent over thirty years in Japan He is a native of the province of Ontario, and may be called the founder of the church's missionary work in that interesting country.

A large portion of the address was occupied with very useful information about present conditions in the Island Empire. The Yellow Peril' he scouted as a clumsy German lie. The Japanese have no intention whatever of attacking America or Europe. Since the close of the war the prestige of the British has been greatly raised and the Japanese have acquired a strong respect for their valor and patriotism.

The Japanese have made admirable settlers in British Columbia. Nearly all of them volunteered to go to the front and the first V C. was won by one of them They invariably become good, useful citizens.

Mr. Robinson speaks the language fluently He speaks and preaches next Sunday at Yarmouth His address will be long remembered by those who have the great pleasure and privilege of listening to him.

It is expected that teams from Kentville, Canning and Berwick will take part Cups have been offered for baseball between senior groups and between junior groups and a cup will also be offered for the team making the best showing in all round athletic events under the Y M C A standard.

It is hoped also that the Wolfville boys may be able to put on a band concert and camp fire entertainment on the evening of July 1st.

A large number of boys have announced their intention of going to camp this year and a big time is expected
