

17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100

Board of Trustees

The Carleton Observer

No. 30

HARTLAND, N. B., JANUARY 3, 1918

Whole No. 443

The Everyday Bargain Store

IF YOU PATRONIZE YOU LEARN TO SAVE MONEY

Appreciating the patronage of our many customers during the past year

We Wish All A Very Happy New Year and many Prosperous Years to follow

A. W. PHILLIPS

OVERCOATS FOR MEN and BOYS

Usters and Blacks with Fur Collars. Some New, some "carried over." Special prices now on all to clear.

UNDERWEAR

for the whole family. A large quantity of Stanfield's and Hewson's "carried over." You can save a lot of money on these.

Sweaters, Mackinaws, All-wool Pants, Winter Caps, Gums, Packs and all other winter goods in abundance, with prices away below to-day's markets, as all the goods were contracted for months ago.

Butter, Eggs, Poultry

Don't forget that we PAY MORE for these than any of our competitors either cash or trade. You can easily prove this by calling us up on either phone at our expense.

S. W. SMITH

The Cash Store

N. B. Phone 1-2

EAST FLORENCEVILLE, N. B.

Farmers' Phone 18-2

"COME, OR WE WILL FETCH YOU"

A Message to Slackers from Pts. Otto Gray in the Trenches

The following letters were written to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray of Waterville, by Sergt. Otto F. Gray of the 15th Field Battery, R.E.F. in France: Nov. 28.

Dear Father:—Well, it is sure time for me to send you a letter, but it has been hard to get a letter written as we have been sitting a few lately.

I received the first mail tonight I have got for two months, which consisted of eight letters and the parcel mother sent me.

I was glad to get back to my unit. I was taken to the hospital Oct. 4. I had the mumps and was tired of warfare. I am, feel, O.K. now and think I will winter all right. I do wish I was home to help look after things, but I'm not worse off.

But to tell the truth, I feel myself lucky to be on top here when so many got it.

I hear that they are talking of an election. They say we will all have a vote. The boys here will all vote for Union Government and a lot of them will say "come, or we will fetch you." It don't make any difference what the party is.

The Canadians that are in France have won a name for themselves and all that is needed to show of them.

I saw Arthur Watson he is looking fine. Gordon Lasky, Frank Dickinson and I were in the same town two or three days.

I heard that the boys were killed but hope it isn't true.

Will close hoping this finds you all well.

O. F. GRAY.

France, Dec. 7.

Dear Mother:—I received your letter dated Nov. 4 and was very glad to hear that father was better.

Well, I suppose every one is getting ready for Christmas. It isn't much different from any other time here so don't have to do much getting ready.

You were asking my major's name, it is Beck, from Ottawa. He is a good leader. You were also asking me about my chums. I have quite a number but the old boys of the 28th are like her's teeth. One of my best chums was killed about a month ago. He was sure a good boy in any old way.

Queen, the horse you sold, is still with me. She has been wounded twice but they can't kill her. She knows more than some men and tougher than a knot. She has got a great coat of hair now.

I haven't seen Ellis McLeod lately but hope to soon.

Think I am getting quite feebly now; gained a lot when I was in the hospital. I was too poor when I was in Paris to have my picture. I should have a pass coming to me in the spring either to England or to Canada.

Maybe they will take a lot of us back after the election.

Best wishes—

Sergt. OTTO F. GRAY.

Vaugh-Kilpatrick

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Dec. 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kilpatrick, Wicklow, when their second daughter, Jean Gertrude, was united in marriage to John Fenwick Waugh of Florenceville. Rev. F. A. Whitman was the officiating clergyman. At one o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor taking their places under an arch of evergreen and pink and white roses. The bride, who was formerly a popular young lady of Florenceville, looked charming in a bridal gown of white duchesse satin and georgette crepe, wearing the conventional veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of white bridal roses and maiden hair fern.

This portrait of Frank Goulet who was killed in the battle of Passchendaele on Nov. 8, was enlarged from a group snapshot. The picture was taken in Hartland shortly before he left for the front.

The bridesmaid, Miss Stella Hunter of Florenceville, wore a demure dress of pale blue satin-de-chene carrying a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by A. D. McCain, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony the guests were ushered to the dining room where a very dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. J. D. Day of Bath poured coffee while Mrs. J. R. McCain of Florenceville served the ices, after which the happy couple left on a wedding trip to St. John and other Maritime cities. The gifts received were numerous and costly testifying to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid's sunburst brooch, to the best man a scarf pin. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Waugh will reside at East Florenceville.

Bride Well-Known Here

Recently Miss Nellie Ebbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ebbett of Aroostook, Me., was united in marriage with Irvin Gray of Fort Fairfield where the ceremony was performed. The bride is very well known in Hartland, where she was employed for some time, and her friends are wishing her a lifetime of happiness. The groom is a member of the firm of J. B. Gray & Son, machinists.

THE OBSERVER WANTS YOUR BOY'S PHOTO

Will Commence Publishing Portraits of Carleton-Victoria Soldiers

The Observer intends to commence right away the publication of the portraits and a short sketch of as many Carleton-Victoria boys as photos and necessary data can be secured. One or more of these will be printed each succeeding week, but in order to carry the proposition through the manager must have the co-operation of the boys' friends at home. Therefore we ask any who have a son, brother or any other near and dear boy at the Front to send his photograph, showing him in khaki, if possible. It makes no difference if the picture is large or small, or is a group. So long as it is clear and distinct a good plate can be made from it. If postage stamps are sent for the purpose the photo will be returned intact.

The manager will also desire certain information concerning the lad, so that a correct write-up may be printed along with the picture.

What we wish to know is the lad's name, residence, age, names of parents, if he is married and how many children, when he enlisted, what battalion, when he sailed, how long at the front, if he has brothers, one or more at the front, if he has been wounded or ill. Give full particulars briefly.

As stated the portraits will be published one or two each week, but it is very necessary that the photos and information should be sent to us at an early date, as possible as the cost of making the plate, which are very expensive, is reduced if a large number can be ordered at one time.

All interested will greatly oblige The Observer if they will attend to this matter quickly.

Mrs. Henry Day Dies of Pneumonia

On Friday evening death claimed Mrs. Henry Day after three days' illness of pneumonia. She was almost 71 years of age and at Christmas was in good health. Her husband died five years ago and she is survived by two sons, Bert, on the homestead at Upper Brighton, where the deceased lived and died, and Dudley, proprietor of Day's hotel at Bath. She was a daughter of the late James Rideout and was born and lived the whole of her life at Upper Brighton. Mrs. Day was a woman of fine characteristics and held in highest esteem by a large circle of friends.

The funeral service was held at the United Baptist church at Upper Brighton on Sunday afternoon, with sermon by Rev. P. J. Quigg and a large gathering of people met to pay last respects to a worthy friend.

Notice to Primitive Baptist

Delegates

All persons coming by rail to Primitive Baptist Quarterly meeting at Canterbury and wishing to take advantage of cheap rates, should buy a single fare ticket for Canterbury and secure from selling agent a "Standard Certificate" on which his signature is attached and receipt for the fare paid. Ask for Standard Certificate.

A. Hatfield, Clerk.

DeWitt-Dickinson

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 19, at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. P. J. Quigg, when Alice Dickinson of Windsor became the wife of Austin DeWitt of Foreston.

BOVRIL
Take it as Soup
before Meals

Who Will Win The Auto?