LIVE HOGS DROP TO $8.80 CWT.

Fall in the Price of Dressed Pork Is To Be Expected Now.

HAY WAS SCARCE TODAY

Only Ten Loads Offered at From $10 to $12 a Ton—No Deliveries of Grain This Morning.

As was expected, live hogs took a considerable slump this morning. Mr. D. A. McIntyre shipped a carload and paid in the neighborhood of $8 80 per cwt. This is quite a drop from last Monday's prices.

As a result of the slump in live hogs, tomorrow will probably see a falling off in the price of dressed pork. Today the top price was $12 per cwt, but it is expected it will be quoted from $11 50 to $12 per cwt during the remained of the week.

Hay is Scarce.

Only ten loads of hay were brought in this morning, and as a result of the scarcity the price went up. The farmers got from $11 to $12 per ton, according to quality.

Three loads of straw were in. Straw is not very much in demand, and the ruling price continues at $7 per ton.

There were no deliveries of grain this morning.

Things were quiet in the dairy produce line, and butter and egg prices remained unchanged.

$6,000 FROM THE SHOW IN ARMORIES

The "Made-in-London exhibition will turn over to the London Health Association about $6,000. The returns are better than anticipated. One booth alone will have a surplus of $2,000, while another will have $1,300. The rental of the booths will pay all expenses in connection with the affair, and it is expected that the other booths will bring the surplus quite close to $6,000.

A WHISKEY SEIZURE.

Toronto, April 18.—Word was received at the office of the provincial superintendent of police this morning to the effect that 1,100 bottles of whiskey were seized on the Chariton-Elk Lake road Sunday by Chief of Police Caldbeck and others of the northern force. The chief and his men did not like the appearance of two wagon loads of men driving along the road. They stopped the wagons and were informed by the occupants that all were on their way to church, but a search of the wagons disclosed the number of bottles of whiskey stated. All the whiskey was confiscated.

$10,000 SHORT WHEN ALL WORK IS COMPLETED

Statement Made Regarding the Sanatorium at a Meeting of London Health Assn.

The annual meeting of the London Health Association was held at noon today in the Board of Trade rooms, and Hon. Adam Beck was re-elected president for the coming year.

The financial statement was read by Mr. H. E. Gates, the treasurer, and the condition of the association was found to be most encouraging.

The officers elected were as follows:
President—Hon. Adam Beck.
Vice-President—Mr. J. B. Smallman.
Secretary—Sheriff Cameron.
Treasurer—Mr. H. E. Gates.
Directors—Philip Pocock, W. M. Spencer, J. C. Judd, K. C., Mayor Beattie, W. Wright, Dr. Eccles, Dr. F. P. Drake, Dr. Tillmann, Mrs. Beck, Mr. George Robinson, A. T. McMahen, and the executive officers.

Financial Statement.

The financial statement showed that the association had received in subscriptions and donations the sum of $11,295; Government grants, $8,000; city of London, $5,000; total, $24,295.

The disbursements had been $11,418 to date, with $5,681 still owing on the buildings. It was purposed to erect three more buildings, and a laundry, and this, with the lighting and water service, would run the total cost up to between $39,000 and $40,000.

"We will be about $10,000 short, perhaps, when we have all the work complete," said Hon. Adam Beck. "This, of course, does not allow anything from the 'Made-in-London' exhibition, nor for any grants for furnishing. I think we have done remarkably well, and we are greatly encouraged."

Thanks Extended.

He made a short speech to the directors, in which he thanked them for their hearty co-operation and kindness in giving him the office of president. He thanked the members of the hospital trust for their co-operation in providing for the chronic cases and opening the dispensary to the physicians of the association. It would then be easy to deal with all cases in the city, and at all stages. He made a high compliment to the energy displayed by Mrs. Geo. Robinson and her interest in the sanatorium.

Mr. W. M. Spencer spoke briefly, and congratulated Mr. Beck and Mrs. Beck for their great energy in this undertaking, and expressed his great encouragement in this matter.

Finest in Canada.

Dr. McCullough also made a brief address, in which he declared that, when completed, the sanatorium would be the finest in Canada.

Mr. Beck announced that a deputation from the County of Elgin, composed of Warden Luton and Dr. Ling, of Dutton, would visit the sanatorium on Saturday. It is expected that the County of Elgin will enter into an agreement with the association.

POLICE COURT CLERK MOULE WAS FINED

Allowed His Dog To Run at Large, and Paid $2 to Court.

John Moule, police court clerk, knows how it feels, both how to take fines for allowing your dog to run unmuzzled and also how it feels to pay over the cold cash.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock he appeared before Squire Chittick on the above charge and paid a fine of $2 and costs.

For the past three months he has been raking in the fines for this breach of the law. Now he gets some of his own medicine. He would not state his feelings to the reporters.

EAST LONDON

HYATT AVENUE CHURCH ORGAN WAS DEDICATED

Large Congregation Listened to Splendid Address of Rev. D. E. Martin.

The largest congregation since the opening of the Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church was that which gathered last night to hear the Rev. D. E. Martin, of Trinity Methodist Church, Stratford, a former pastor.

The occasion was the dedicatory services of the new pipe organ. So large was the [illegible] that it was found necessary [illegible] chairs in the aisle, and large [illegible] were turned away.

The evening subject was "The Transforming Power of a Vision." The Rev. Mr. Martin said: "The reality of God is borne in upon us by the testimony of all created things. The testimony of the Scriptures and of Christian experience further bear this out. The world's greatest men and women have had a consciousness of the reality of God. The reason God does not stretch forth his omnipotent hand and destroy all sin is because he cannot without destroying man. We cannot fail if we link ourselves with grace divine. There are four things which should go in the make-up of the Christian man: I am, I can, I ought and I will."

The following special musical programme was rendered by the choir: Anthem, "Seek Ye the Lord," choir; trio, "Praise Ye," Miss Gidley, Messrs. C. Pink and A. Riddle; anthem, with duet, "I waited for the Lord," Miss Phoenix and Mrs. Baird; solo, "Garden of Prayer," Mr. Riddle; solo, "Ninety and Nine," Mr. C. Pink; duet, "Love Divine," Miss Gidley, and Mr. C. Pink; anthem, "The Lord Is My Shepherd."

DEATH OF MRS. J. DOBBYN

Pioneer of London Passed Away on Sunday.

There passed away on Sunday evening at her residence, 700 Dundas street, one of the old pioneers of East London in the person of Mrs. James Dobbyn, after an illness of over two weeks in the 86th year of her age. Her husband predeceased her just three weeks, and in February her eldest daughter passed away. A woman of loving and sympathetic character, she will be remembered by all for her many deeds of self-denying kindness.

In religion she was a Presbyterian, having been for over 70 years a member of that body.

The services on Tuesday will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church.

RAILWAYMEN ARE LOOKING FOR COMET

So Far They Have Been Unable to Locate the Haliey Wonder.

Halley's Comet is beginning to worry the railroaders.

Each morning before sunrise, the men on the night shifts scramble for the semaphore stands and other points of vantage, and according to one who was on the lookout during the past week, the celestial wanderer has yet to make its appearance.

He watched for it every morning for a week, he said, and lost some sleep that he would otherwise have been able to work in in slack time.

The signal stands in the East End yards of the Grand Trunk provide excellent positions for the amateur astronomers, it is claimed, and the railroaders believe that they can sell the position on the mornings when the comet heaves around at prices that would make the cost of living look
