TEN THOUSAND SUICIDES IN THE LAST YEAR

Japan Paying The Price of Its War With Russia — Prisons Hold 70,000 People Behind Bars

Tokio, Dec. 31—Japan is in the throes of a conflict even more fierce and trying than her struggle with Russia, and largely the outcome of her ambitions against the northern power. That great campaign was planned, directed and fought by comparatively few of her citizens. The cabinet decided the matter, the naval and military authorities disposed the land and sea forces, the officers and soldiers waged the warfare and won the victories, while fifty millions of subjects who had little or nothing to do with it looked on in amazement and at last applause.

Now that the bills are coming in these fifty millions of lookers-on are beginning for the first time to wake up to the fact that they too must take a share in the sacrifice. For the last five years the poverty-stricken multitudes of the Japanese empire have been wrapped up in this tremendous struggle with finance and consequent taxation, so that they have been able to think night and day of little else. So keen has the struggle been that 10,000 suicides have occurred in the last year.

The Japanese pauper does not beg. He refuses to throw himself on a community that is unaccustomed to paupers, and would show him little mercy. In Japan the family relations must look after the unfortunates and if these fail he kills himself. The other day a man was taken out of the river with his two little girls tied to his body. Food and income failed, and they drowned themselves. The father, whose wife had died a little before, thought it better to thus end the family misery. Such cases are frequent.

There are now more than 70,000 persons in prison, the largest criminal record in the history of Japan. The price of rice, the common food of the people, is higher than ever before. Many have to give up rice and take to barley, which they regard as a sign of disgrace.

SHE HAD TO TAKE HER PART

Woman's Husband Objected to Her Appearance in Theatricals, But Higher Power Acted

Bangkok, Jan. [illegible]—Siam is undoubtedly progressing, there are ways in which it hardly comes up to the idea of a land of light and leading. A case has just occurred which has called forth a good deal of comment among the foreign residents in the Land of the White Elephant. The present King of Siam is very enthusiastic on theatrical matters, and had arranged a gala performance to be given in connection with the coronation fetes.

A Siamese nobleman, Luang Rahsanurt, who possesses a well-favored wife, objected to her taking part in this performance and on one occasion made her leave the royal theatre during a rehearsal. This was reported to the king, who forthwith deprived the unfortunate man of his title, sentenced him to one year's imprisonment, and ordered him to receive thirty blows with a rattan. After this had been carried into effect the woman was compelled to go on attending the rehearsals.

JOHN ROSS.

We Will Pay $50.00 in Cash for the Best Answer to Three Questions

You can help us determine just which part of our plan is the part on which we should concentrate. You can do it and at the same time earn one of our cash prizes.

Which point of superiority do the purchasing public seek above all others when they buy the goods we are offering?

To the person who most clearly expresses the leading reason why everybody in St. John should make their purchases at the Asepto Store we will pay

$15.00 IN CASH

For the next best reply $10.00; for the next best reply $5.00, and for the next twenty, each a bright new dollar bill.

Meantime, an examination of our store, a small purchase, a talk with our clerks, a look over our lines and a general sizing up of our whole business will be of service to you in earning one of the prizes.

THE FACTS IN BRIEF

For Years we have been offering Premiums on goods of our own manufacture.

For the past few years we have given the premium plan our special attention; the outcome of which is the Asepto Store, Corner Mill and Union Streets.

It has been our constant aim to give a better Premium than offered by any other concern.

You do not have to take an article of our selection for your coupons. Every article in our store is for sale and the price is marked in plain figures.

Also every article is a premium and is given you at the same price for coupons as if you paid cash.

The plan we follow is the only one of its kind in Canada, and even competitors are compelled to remark that we have the finest line of premiums ever brought together under one roof.

These Are the Three Questions That You Are Requested to Answer

FIRST—What in your judgment is the feature in the Asepto plan that has made our store do a volume of business in less than six months that other stores have not been able to get in years.

SECOND—What was the most important feature that first induced you to buy at the Asepto store

THIRD—Which of these four vital points—Asepto Quality, Asepto Service, Asepto Store Location or Asepto Premiums — would you advertise with the conviction that when people knew that fact they would go to our store and take advantage of our whole plan

Answers to this advertisement must not exceed five hundred words.

The best replies will be used for advertising purposes, but the name of writers will not be published unless requested.

A box will be placed in our store Wednesday morning, Jan. 3, 1912, at eight o'clock, where replies may be deposited at any time until the close of the competition. If you live outside of the City limits you will be allowed to send your reply by mail. No employee or person in any way connected with our business will be allowed to compete.

By Jan. 15 the contest will close at eight o'clock. Any replies received after that date and hour will not be entered for competition. Cash will be sent to the winners just as soon as possible after that prizes have been awarded. By April 1st every person who answers will receive a complete list of all to whom awards have been made, together with the replies that are entitled to the larger amounts. Five reliable persons outside the business will be selected as judges. In the event of a tie the award will be equally divided.

The Asepto Plan of Doing Business is the only plan of its kind in Canada.

It works itself out in this way: If you spend five cents you get a check worth one cent. If you spend twenty-five cents you get one worth five cents. If you spend $1.00 you get one worth twenty-cents. If your purchase amounts to $5.00 you get one worth $1.00 and so on. These goods we sell to you at the same price that you would pay for them at any other store in the city. Instead of giving you a small cash discount we give you a check worth 20 cents for every $1.00 you spend. We make a profit on the goods you purchase and pay for, while the goods you purchase afterwards with our checks are given you at the wholesale price. To get you to make the first purchase costs us something, while the second purchase, with our checks, you are bound to make from us. There is no selling expense attached to the latter.
