MANY MEN OF MANY KINDS
'Tis as true in buying Gent's Furnishings as it is in all other things. Could we depict the different people we find shopping in this department, 'would fill a page. All, or nearly all, are aiming to make their money go farthest, and in this (as in all other departments) they find the right goods at right prices with us. Some are induced to visit the "something for nothing" shops with the promise of a sewing machine, bedroom suite or some other article with every purchase, but the sensible, practical kind who reason thus: "When they dance someone must pay the fiddler," are buying where they get best value for their money. Our aim has been to give the best possible value and the best goods. Don't you think we're on the right track?

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip.—Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Everything well Mixed up.

WASHBURN'S CORNERS.

MONDAY, March 7.—On Friday night last a number of young people assembled to a party at the residence of Clark Wiltse. This party was among the gayest of the season and a very enjoyable evening was spent by all. About midnight a most abundant supper was served and the whole evening was spent in popular games and plays. Early in the morning the young people took leave of their kind host and hostess, each hoping that Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse would not forget them next season.

CHANTRY.

THURSDAY, March 3.—Most of the scarlet fever patients are convalescent, although Mr. D. Derbyshire's child is still very low.

Henry Smith, formerly of Harlem, moved here last week. He intends to devote his time to cheese business. The right man in the right place.

Miss Ida Knowlton is still confined to her bed.

Mr. Ed. Bishop is holding revival meetings at Harlem.

Miss Lucy Chamberlain is ill with congestion of the lungs.

Messrs. Chant and McFadden have purchased Mr. B. Derbyshire's saw mill. They have it running in full blast. Lots of Logs.

Our popular post master, Joseph Chapman, is getting up material to build a store as soon as spring opens.

Miss Jessie Copeland returned last Friday from an extended visit at her uncle's in Syracuse. She is engaged to teach a school near Merrickville.

G. J. Alford returned from Merrickville yesterday with a fine lot of patent sap spails.

Addison Honor Roll.

Following is the honor roll for Addison public school for month of February, the names appearing in order of merit:—

FRANKVILLE.

FRIDAY, March 4.—Robins have put in an appearance.

Another wedding is expected in the near future.

A number of our boys intend going to the North-west shortly.

Mr. Raney Loucks intends moving back on his farm about the middle of March.

Farmers are preparing for sugar making.

Mr. Chas. Steen of Rat Portage is home on a visit.

A most enjoyable evening was spent on Friday evening at the residence of Mr. Richard Crummy by a good many of our young folks.

A wedding took place on Tuesday evening, Mar. 1st, in St. Thomas church, the contracting parties were Miss Fanny Cochlin of Toledo, to Mr. Moses Beckett of Kemptville. The ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. T. J. Stiles.

Mr. R. N. Parker intends moving to Brockville the middle of March.

Mrs. Robt. Parker, Sr., is visiting friends in Brockville.

George Percival is making preparations to build a silo next summer.

A sugar party was held in the hall in aid of the Women's Auxilary.

Miss Lucy Lynch, of Jasper, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Parker.

From another Correspondent.

TUESDAY, March 8.—Miss Bertha Brown, of Addison, has been visiting friends here.

Quite a number around here are down with the grip.

Rev. A. A. Radley is carrying on revival services at Toledo.

A young man of this vicinity while attending a party not long ago, fell in love with a young lady present, and wanted her to be his wife and have the knot tied right there, but she refused, saying that he was most too young. Try again, and you may succeed.

Auction Sales.

☞We have arrangements made with D. Dowsley, auctioneer, Frankville, whereby we can fix dates for parties wishing to secure his services, without their going to see him.☜

Miss Mary J. Reid of Lombardy will sell all the personal property of the late Jas. Reid, near Lombardy on Thursday, March 10th. D. Dowsley wields the hammer as usual.

ATHENS HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

A Movement to Narrow its Limits—Petitions Pro and Con—Address by S. A. Taplin.

Last Saturday afternoon the council chamber in the town hall, Athens, was filled with an eager and expectant crowd, all on the qui vive to see the outcome of the petition signed by 287 of the ratepayers of the Township of Rear Yonge & Escott, asking that a by-law be passed by the municipal council withdrawing all that part of the township outside of S. S. No. 6 from the high school district of Athens. The passing of a few bills and other matters being disposed of, Mr. S. A. Taplin, a ratepayer of the township, stepped up to the council table and presented the petition of Erastus Livingston and 56 others, asking that the proposed by-law do not pass and also that their names be withdrawn from the former petition which they had signed. Mr. Taplin asked the indulgence of the council for a few minutes, during which time he deprecated the feeling of hostility to the high school and its management evinced by some persons living in the township. He could not see why there should be any feeling of antagonism between the people of the township and village as he was clearly of the opinion that it was as much to the interest of the people living outside as those within the village that the efficiency of the school should be maintained, as the prosperity of the one increased the prosperity of the other. He felt certain that a large number of those signing the petition for withdrawal had done so under a misconception of the facts, and from a carefully prepared table he proceeded to give the following facts in relation to the cost of maintaining the Athens High School in comparison with that of the other High Schools in the united counties:—

Received from Counties year 1890:

Regular grant	$ 766 21
Special grant	300 00
Total for 1890	$1066 21

Received from Counties year 1891:

Regular grant 1st half-year	$ 393 76
As per agreement for last half	734 25
Special grant	200 00
Total for 1891	$1328 01
Making a gain over 1890 of	$ 261 80

Am't due from Counties for 1892:

As per agreement	$1468 50
Special grant	200 00
Total for 1892	$1668 50
Making a gain over 1890 of	$ 602 29

Average cost of maintenance per year of 211 days for the past three years of pupils attending

Prescott High School	$33 43
Gananoque " "	30 10
Brobkville " "	29 75
Kemptville " "	22 80
Athens " "	22 07

Under the new law the counties are obliged to pay the different High Schools therein in the following proportions:

Gananoque	$ 294 00
Prescott	460 00
Kemptville	616 00
Brockville	1000 00
Athens	1468 50

As is plainly shown by the above figures, the amount of money towards the support of our high school coming from counties is largely increased under the new school law, and consequently the amount to be raised by local assessment will correspondingly decrease. And as the equipment of the school is now fairly complete and no permanent improvements likely to be necessary during 1892, the amount necessary to be raised by local assessment will likely be from four to five hundred dollars less than was raised in '91. He also showed that while the cost had been smaller per pupil than that of any other high school or collegiate institute, the results, as shown by the number who had graduated from this school was largely in excess of that of any other in the counties. After nearly an hour spent in a friendly interchange of ideas by the council and those interested, a motion was passed to the effect that as they were working under legal advice in the matter of withdrawal that the council should obtain further advice before finally disposing of the matter. Therefore, the council adjourned till March 18th.

Rear Yonge & Escott Council.

The council met at the town hall, Athens, on Saturday March 5th, at 2 o'clock p.m. Members all present. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. R. D. Judson was given an order on the treasurer for $13, for coffin for Mrs. Palmer. A petition signed by Erastus Livingston and 56 others asking that the by-law for withdrawing a portion of the township from High School District No. 2, Co. of Leeds, be not passed and that their names be erased from the petition, was presented to the council by S. A. Taplin. John Morris was appointed road overseer in Div. 5 in place of John Fortune, who does not wish to act. The petition of E. Livingston, and the petition for withdrawing a portion of the township from the High School District, were laid over until next meeting of the council, and it was decided to get legal advice concerning said petitions. The clerk was instructed to notify Mrs. Mary Greene to move the fence in the rear of lot 23 in the 8th con. so that the road will be at least 40 feet wide. Mrs. David Mott was granted $4 for to assist in supporting Wm. Williams. John Crawford was appointed overseer in road Div. No. 14 in place of Geo. H. Cornell.

Council adjourned until Friday, March 18th inst.

R. E. CORNELL, Clerk.

Oh, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourself if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails.

THE TUNNEL ACCIDENT.

Robert D. Addison Seriously Injured—Skilful Surgical Operation.

A Buffalo despatch of the 3rd inst., conveyed the sad intelligence to Dr. Addison and family that his eldest son Robert D. had been injured by a fall of timber in a tunnel at Niagara Falls. His right arm was broken and his back hurt so that he was paralyzed below the hips. Later dispatches state that he is improving, and we are sure his many friends here will join us in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Particulars of the sad affair as given in the Buffalo News are as follows:—

"The falling timbers had struck Addison squarely in the back, fracturing the spinal column and crowding the vertebra against the spinal cord. The man was brought to this city to the General Hospital, and very early yesterday morning, just a little after midnight, an operation was performed by Dr. Roswell Park for the purpose of removing the pressure from the cord. Dr. Park was assisted by Dr. Meyer, the house surgeon, and his staff. The operation is as rare as it is delicate, and a number of the local physicians looked on while Dr. Park operated. The operation was completed in thirty-two minutes and so far may be pronounced a success. It is only in desperate cases, however, that surgeons undertake to trephine the spine, as the operation is always attended by considerable danger and is looked upon with disfavor by many authorities. Previous to the operation, by reason of the fine development of the muscles of the back, indicating extra good protection against the force of the blow, Addison's case presented more than usually good signs for expecting reasonable chances for success, notwithstanding the surgeons well knew that fracture to a serious degree existed; but the operation disclosed the fact that the spinal column was much more seriously fractured than external examination indicated. After the large amount of fractured bone had been carefully and skillfully removed it was found that the hemorrhage into the cavity of the spinal column had been very profuse, and then the really hopeless feature of his case became apparent when the spinal cord came into view. The sheath or membrane covering the cord had been extensively torn, and a large amount of the spinal cord proper had been disintegrated, had oozed from its sheath and was found scattered in the deeper portions of the wound. The unfortunate man's brother was in the room adjoining the operating amphitheatre waiting in terrible suspense to hear the result of the operation and the opinion of the doctors as to the outcome. Addison is an unusually intelligent man and was calm and collected when placed upon the operating table and all his answers to the doctors were given in a firm, clear voice, and a perfectly composed manner as though the operation was to be one of but slight importance, yet he was fully aware how terribly the odds were against them. The house surgeon could not say definitely whether he would live or not."

The above account and the telegraphic bulletins daily received give little hope of a favorable result; but to that little his family and friends here and with him are clinging tenaciously, hoping against what almost amounts to conviction. His sisters, Kate and Leah of New York and Jess of Athens, and his brother who was with him at the time of the accident, are in Buffalo now anxiously watching the symptoms of the patient. A. A. Fisher, barrister, of Brockville, an old friend of the injured man, has also gone to Buffalo.

Eaton's Desperate Deed.

John H. Eaton, the young man from Lake Eloida, whose arrest and conviction for the theft of clothing from Geo. Bulford, of Athens, is still fresh in the minds of our readers received a sentence of six months' in the Central Prison on Saturday morning. On Sunday morning between six and seven, he made a bold break for freedom and in the act nearly killed Turnkey Downey. He had prepared himself for his desperate undertaking by making a rope of strips of his blanket, with which he hoped to scale the wall after the manner of the prisoner Moore, and had further provided himself with a weapon by breaking off the iron post of his bedstead. As the turnkey entered his cell he struck him a terrible blow over the head and followed it up with several other blows, inflicting seven ugly gashes in the Turnkey's scalp. The noise of the scuffle attracted the attention of the Turnkey's wife and she called in John Stewart, caretaker. On entering the corridor he covered Eaton with a cocked revolver and by threats succeeded in securing him in his cell. The Turnkey's wounds were stitched and dressed, and his medical attendant anticipates no serious results. On Monday Eaton was examined and formally committed for trial.

A petition for the clemency of the court in respect to the charge of theft proved against Eaton was sent to Brockville from Athens and vicinity on Monday.

MARRIAGE.
