A firmer feeling prevailed in the market for really choice steers owing to the continued scarcity of such, but the offerings of all other grades were ample to fill the requirements and prices ruled steady. A few picked choice steers sold as high as $7 to $7 25, while full loads of good cattle brought from $6 to $6 50 per 100 pounds. An active trade continues to be done in lambs, but as supplies are coming forward freely, the tone of the market was easier than a week ago, and prices ruled 25c per 100 pounds lower, with sales of Quebec stock at $5 25 to $5 75, and Ontario at $6 to $6 25 per 100 pounds. There was also a weaker feeling in the market for sheep, and prices declined 25c to 50c per 100 pounds. The demand for calves was good at firm prices. The strong feeling which has characterized the hog market for some time now still continues to be the main feature of the trade, and prices since this day week have advanced 30c to 35c owing to the small supplies coming forward, and the good demand from packers, and the indications are that unless receipts increase in the near future values will go still higher. The trade was active today, with sales of selected lots at $9 to $9 10 per 100 pounds, weighed off cars. # ENGLAND WILL HAVE BIG NEW AIR FLEET

Recent Manoeuvres Shows the Value of Planes in Time of War.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 23.—A London cable says:

Great Britain is to have an air fleet as a result of the recent grand manoeuvres in East Anglia, which will put this new arm of service on a par with that of the other great powers.

The war office authorities are so impressed with the necessity that a great fleet of fighting war planes will be organized immediately. It will comprise two types of machines, one armed with quick-firing guns for engaging and destroying the enemy's aeroplanes, while the other will be designed for scouting.

Exhaustive tests of the gun-carrying aeroplane will be made by the Royal Flying Corps. The craft is to carry the pilot in front and the propeller at the rear. The machine will be the most powerfully built, capable of travelling 80 miles an hour in calm weather.

The passengers, in addition to the pilot, will be a gunner and an officer.

Just as artillery clears the way for infantry, these giant aeroplanes will be sent to sweep from the air all opposing air craft and to prepare a clear passage for the scouts, which will be sent into the sky in squadrons.

RUSH OF BUSINESS CAUSES EARLY OPENING AT OTTAWA

Redistribution, Bank Acts, Tariff Revision, Navy Policy and Many Other Important Items Are To Come Up for Consideration.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—The summoning of Parliament in November is regarded at Ottawa as evidence of a sudden awakening of the Government to a realization that there is a good deal of work to do, and that it will take much time to put it through.

Up to the middle of last week, the ministers were all of the opinion that January would be plenty soon enough for the opening. They figured that this would give them ample time to formulate their policy on the navy and to prepare the sessional program.

With this idea in their minds, the ministers have been following a most leisurely course since their return from Europe. There has been a succession of banquets and official visits to various parts of Canada, but few cabinet counsels and very little business.

Decided To Get Busy.

Last week the ministers got together and after considering the situation decided that they had better get busy for every indication pointed to a more strenuous and more lengthy session than the last, which was too energetic for the comfort of the Government.

Railroads, banks, insurance companies and other companies have a large amount of private legislation to present, and they have been urging an early start with lawmaking, so their bills may get through. It was also thought that to delay opening beyond the regular November date would strengthen the opinion in the country that the Government could not make up its mind on the naval question, and was lacking in capacity for decision.

Among the questions which will likely come before Parliament during the session are the navy, the bank act, redistribution, tariff revision, the transfer of crown lands to the western provinces, a bill putting the outside civil service under commission, a highways aid bill, a copyright bill, legislation of naturalization, better terms for British Columbia, and confirmation of the West Indies agreement.

The Naval Policy.

It is not expected that the naval policy will be ready for announcement at the opening of the session. The speech from the throne, foreshadowing Government legislation, will be limited as far as the navy is concerned to the announcement that a bill will be laid before you representing the navy. It will give the Government an opportunity to consult with members from all parts of Canada and formulate the naval policy on their advice.

Unless the Government changes its mind before November, there will be no redistribution bill. The Government does not want the Opposition to be in a position to force an appeal to the country on the naval bill. If redistribution is put off for a year the election can hardly be forced. There will be a good deal of trouble over delay in redistribution, but the Government is inclined to regard it as choosing the lesser of two evils, as a sop to the West, the representation of senators from Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia will likely be increased.

The big debates of the session will be on the navy and the tariff. The opening date will be either Nov. 14 or 21.

COTTON MAGNATES DENOUNCES TARIFF

President of the British Master Spinners' Association Criticizes Unionist Policy.

London, Sept. 24.—A. Bonar Law, leader of the Opposition in the House of Commons, in replying to a correspondent, emphasized the fact that the Unionists' tariff reform proposals do not include a tax on raw cotton.

Sir Charles W. Macara, president of the Master Cotton Spinners' Federation, in an interview on the subject, said:

"Everybody knows that there was never any intention of taxing cotton. Our case for free trade never rested on opposition to a proposed import duty on American cotton. It rests on the fact that Mr. Bonar Law's fiscal policy must add to the cost of building mills, the cost of mill machinery, the cost of spinning, weaving, bleaching, dyeing, printing, and finishing cotton fabrics. Add a little bit to the cost of each of these processes and our export trade, which provides 80 per cent of the industry, is gone.

"It is idle for the tariff reformers to contend that their policy will not have that effect. How is it that the United States, which grows two-thirds of the world's cotton crop, can only export 5 per cent. of the world's consumption of cotton cloth, while England, which does not grow a pound of cotton, can export four-fifths?

"To that question there is only one answer. It is the difference in the cost of the processes of manufacture in the two countries, a difference caused largely by their respective commercial policies."

FEAR GRAIN BLOCKADE RAILWAYS CONGESTED

Growers in West Will Likely Suffer Heavy Loss This Season.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Winnipeg, Sept. 24. — The grain situation is causing some alarm owing to the general congestion which prevails.

The Grain Growers' Guide, the official organ of the Grain Growers' Association, says editorially that "all signs point to a congestion in the movement of grain this fall far worse than that of last fall and winter, bad as it was."

It declares that the railways will not be able to handle the grain offered them, and that there is not enough elevator capacity to accommodate the immense amount of grain that cannot reach the lake-front before the close of navigation.

Under the circumstances it calls upon the Dominion Government and the three transcontinental railways to make arrangements at once with the inter-state commerce commission at Washington, by which the southern route may be thrown open early.

Meantime, weather conditions are rather better throughout the west, although the bulk of reports show that continued rains have left the ground so soft that separators and engines cannot be moved, even if the grain in stack and stook were dry enough for threshing. There were light rains in Manitoba last night, but today has been dry and fairly bright, but cold.

The C. P. R. announces today that five hundred responses to telegrams asking as to conditions of labor for harvesting show that three thousand men are still needed, half of whom are needed in Manitoba.

ESTRANGED FROM SON.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Sept. 24.—Cable to the Tribune from London says:

Advices from Berlin are to the effect that the estrangement between the Kaiser and the crown prince is so complete that his majesty declined to attend the festivities in honor of the crown prince's 26th birthday at Potsdam on Friday last.

PLAYED SUNDAY POKER.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Guelph, Sept. 23.—On Sunday afternoon the police found about fifteen well-known young men engaged in a game of poker in the hayloft of a livery stable. They managed to hold four of them, and secured the names of seven others, and warrants have been issued for 11, who will appear at the police court this week.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY BEING HELD TODAY

Results Will Show Governor Wilson's Hold On Party in New Jersey.

[Canadian Press.]

Newark, N. J., Sept. 24. Governor Woodrow Wilson's hold upon his party in New Jersey will be tested in today's primary contest for the Democratic nomination for United States senator to succeed Frank O. Briggs, Republican, whose term expires next March.

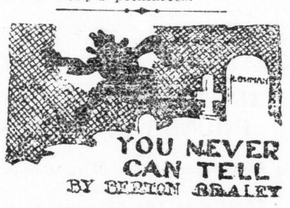
The governor's choice, Representative Wm. Hughes, of Paterson, is opposed by former Senator Jas. Smith, jun., of Newark, whose candidacy for the office met defeat less than two years ago because of Governor Wilson's opposition.

Governor Wilson has taken a personal hand in today's fight by opposing Mr. Smith from the stump and in statements addressed to the voters of the Democratic party.

Nominations will be made also today by Democrats and Republicans for the Lower House, sixty in all.

The polls opened at 7 o'clock this morning and will close at 9 o'cock tonight.

No ticket has been placed in the field by the National Progressive party and voters affiliated with that organization have been requested to take no part in today's primaries.



Everyone thought that old Bill Jones
Was a coward through to his marrow bones.
He didn't have any nerve at all;
Hit or kick him—away he'd crawl.
He wouldn't fight or even swear,
And he got mistreated everywhere.

Till once, one night by the cemetery,
When the moon was up and the hour was scary,
And old Bill Jones was riding by,
Somebody gave an awful cry,
And old Bill Jones, with an answering yell,
Went hiking down the road, pell-mell.
He ran like a rabbit, scared and sick,
And his fears kept following fast and quick.

Panting and frightened, old Bill ran
Right in the arms of a highwayman
Who was trying to earn an honest wage
By holding up the local stage.
Screaming with mad and fearful fright,
Bill clung to the thug and held on tight,
And the force of the impact quickly told,
For down in the dust the robber rolled,
And the driver got him—and saved the gold.

Bill is a hero now, and say—
He honestly sort of acts that way;
Nobody knows about that yell
Excepting me, and I'll never tell.
It gave Bill nerve—and he's doing well.

WEST WOULD HELP IMPERIAL DEFENCE

Premier Fleming Found Great Interest Taken in Navy Policy.

[Canadian Press.]

Ottawa, Sept. 23.—Premier Fleming, of New Brunswick, who is here today en route home from the Canadian forestry convention in Victoria, stated in an interview that he had found in the West a very strong feeling that Canada should do something in a practical way toward the general defence of the Empire.

"The West is taking a very keen interest in the navy problem," he said. "Most of this talk of divergence of sentiment between east and west is merely talk. Those responsible for it forget the steady influx from Eastern Canada. We have deplored losing our best, but in the end it is going to be a good thing in that it will promote a unity of sentiment that could not be obtained in any other way."

Premier Fleming stated that on Oct. 1 a law would come into force prohibiting the export of pulpwood cut from New Brunswick crown lands.

SAMUEL SUTHERLAND LEADING LUMBERMAN

Head of the Sutherland-Innes Company Was Buried at Chatham.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

CHINESE LOAN IS OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC

Independent Group of Bankers Cuts Out Six Power Combinations.

[Canadian Press.]

London, Sept. 23.—Half of the Chinese loan of $50,000,000 is to be offered to the public in London for subscription on Thursday or Friday of this week, according to Charles Birch Crisp, head of the Anglo-Russian Bank, who has been prominent in the negotiations.

Lloyd's bank is supposed to stand sponsor for the loan.

Capitalists here have hesitated to believe that the independent group of bankers has been able to cut the ground from under the feet of the "six power" combination representing Great Britain, the United States, France, Germany, Russia and Japan. The latest advices from Peking, however, appear to be convincing on this point.

The British Government has retreated from the position of strongly supporting the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank as a result of the newspaper atacks which accused it of backing a monopoly.

The issue of the independent loan is largely due to the efforts of Dr. George Morrison, former correspondent of the London Times, on the Peking and now political adviser to the President of the Chinese Republic. He spent a month in London conferring with financiers and politicians.

The work of A. Wendell Jackson, of New York, consisted principally in bringing together the representatives of the Chinese Government and bankers.

TORONTO SUFFRAGETTES AFTER THE PREMIER

Mr. Borden Says They Cannot Vote in the Federal Elections.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, Sept. 23.—Premier R. L. Borden, accompanied by Mrs. Borden, Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, and Hon. L. P. Pelletier, postmaster-general, arrived at North Toronto at 8:20 this morning, and will attend the banquet to be given in the Premier's honor at the new arena, Mutuel street, this evening by the Toronto Board of Trade. Immediately after their arrival, Mr. and Mrs. Borden went to Castle Frank, the home of Hon. A. E. Kemp, and outside of receiving a deputation of the Canadian Suffrage Association, the Premier spent a day devoid of public engagements.

The delegation from the Canadian Suffrage League waited on the Premier at 10 o'clock, and Mrs. Flora MacD. Denison presented an address, in which the suffrage question was fully reviewed, and attention called to the fact that Canada was largely behind Australia and New Zealand in granting the franchise to women. The fact that the league depended on a propaganda of education to advance their cause was emphasized.

After hearing the address, Mr. Borden asked if any of the deputation had anything to add and Miss Margaret Gordon asked if it would be possible for women to vote on federal elections without being enfranchised for the provinces.

The Premier replied that under the federal election act of some fifteen years ago it had been agreed to use the provincial lists in the Dominion. Until the law was repealed there would be no possibility of women being given votes in federal affairs except through the provincial lists.

As to the request of the deputation, he informed them that the question of extending the franchise to women had not been considered, and invited the members of the association to send circulars bearing on suffrage to himself and his colleagues.

Mrs. Shaw Lunn, Falmouth, N.S., writes. —"I am dropping you a line to let you know what Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has done for us. Last summer my little girl had diarrhœa so bad she passed blood. A friend told me of the Extract, so I sent and got a bottle of it, and six doses cured her. In December, 1911, my brother came home from the woods very bad with cramps and diarrhœa, and thought he would have to call the doctor. I thought of the bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" I had in the house, and gave it to him, and in three days he was as well as ever and went back to his work again. I would not be without it in the house if it cost twice as much."

See that you get Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry when you ask for it.
