General Notes.

According to Richard K. Fox, George Cooper of this city has sent the following to "Richard K. Fox, Esq.:

Being so well satisfied with Hanlan-Gilmore's victory over Jack Dempsey, state that I will match the former against any 158-pound man in the United States or the Dominion, Queensberry or London prize ring rules, for $500 or $1000 a side. The match to be decided eight weeks from signing articles, Richard K. Fox to be final stakeholder and appoint referee. Contest to be decided within fifty miles of Detroit.

A meeting of the senior amateur baseball league of Toronto was held over Milligan's cigar store last evening. Only three clubs, the Metropolitans, the Atlantics and the Athletics, were represented, but it was resolved to go on with the league, those present being satisfied that it would be a success. In fact, a resolution was passed to the effect that only four clubs should be admitted to membership. Mr. T. R. Williams, of the Metropolitans, was elected president, Mr. Kirkpatrick, of the Athletics, secretary, and Mr. G. S. Galloway, of the Athletics, treasurer. Messrs. Galloway, J. Gillultey and Williams were appointed a committee on constitution and bylaws.

Andrus has discovered a phenomenal player named Livingston in the woods near Port Hope. He and Frank Harris, of Kempttville, will be given trials early in the season with the Hamilton team in the hope that one or other may turn out like big Thompson, of the Detroits, who was found whitewashing a barn and who turned out one of the strongest batters in the National league.

A Springfield, Ohio, newspaper asking to be appointed manager of the Hamilton team, and saying he would rather be an Anson or a Brouthers than president of the United States.—Hamilton Times.

How near lacrosse, in some people's views, is allied to pugilism, is well exemplified by the following from the Montreal Gazette: "T. Charles Kelly, of Ottawa, do hereby back William McKay, formerly of the Shamrock lacrosse club of Montreal, to fight any heavyweight pugilist in Canada, Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern, for the sum of $250 to $500. Man and money can be found at the Queen's hotel, Elgin street, Ottawa."

At the meeting of the executive committee of the New York State Intercollegiate Athletic ball association, held at Syracuse yesterday, the disputed Hobart-Union game was given Hobart, that club thus gaining third place. The schedule of games was made out. At a meeting of the Intercollegiate Athletic association also held there, the date of the intercollegiate field day with Hamilton college at Utica was changed to May 26.

Harry Gilmore's lightest fighting weight is 124 lbs., but sooner than be disappointed in a scrap he has consented to tackle Harry Warren, who at 120 lbs. is a dazzler. Harry will consequently have to come down to the weight or quit. The affair is to take place four weeks after he meets Jack Lawrence.

Charley Rowell, the six-day pedestrian, has sent word to Peter Duryea, his backer, that he could not agree to Patrick Fitzgerald's conditions for a six-days' go-as-you-please contest, and does not intend coming to America for the present.

An English baronet is said to have presented Jem Smith, the heavy-weight champion of England, with a diamond pin valued at £100, and has offered to back him in his fight with Sullivan to the amount of £1000.

Entries for the bench show of dogs at Pittsburg, Pa., which begins March 16, closed last evening. There will be dogs from England, Canada, and all parts of the east and west.

Edwin Bibby beat Matsada Sorakichi in a wrestling match at St. Louis on Monday three falls out of five. Lewis didn't kill the Jap after all.

At Sheffield yesterday an American named H. M. Johnson won the Shrovetide handicap, defeating several noted English runners.

Detective Murray's Good Work.

John Stone, the would-be murderer and suicide who escaped from the authorities at Beamsville February 13 last, has been tracked by Government Detective Murray to Baltimore, Md. He was found living in great style with friends on Lanvale street last Saturday. He professed to be sick, and got a doctor to prevent his removal. Deputy U. S. Marshal Galt put a guard on the house, and Detective Murray got out preliminary examining papers for extradition. The charge is assault with intent to kill and murder. Mr. Murray will go back to Baltimore to-day. It will be remembered that Stone shot his niece, Maud Hodge, Jan. 5 last and then shot himself. Being unable to be removed he was guarded in his house. On Feb. 13, by the alleged connivance of his guard, he left the house and passed over Suspension bridge into the land of safety. Detective Murray took up the case and traced Stone to Baltimore. Since the arrest Miss Hodge has disappeared from Beamsville, the supposed reason being reluctance to testify against Stone.

The Pythian Demonstration.

The demonstration to be held in this city next July by the Knights of Pythias promises to be one of the best ever held in Toronto. It is expected that from five to eight thousand drilled and equipped knights will take part, and as these come from all over the country, the influx of visitors is likely to be large. A committee is now making arrangements for their entertainment.

THE "BLUE EAGLE."

The American Prison in Which William Lyon Mackenzie was Confined.

Among the old landmarks which are fast being "improved" out of existence in America is the historic old jail off Court street, Rochester, N.Y., in which William Lyon Mackenzie was confined, and which is known as the "Blue Eagle." It bears this name by favor of Dan Bloe, the showman, who christened it. The Rochester Union gives an interesting account of Mackenzie's life in the old building. He was tried and sentenced in 1839 by Judge Alfred Conkling, father of Roscoe Conkling, at Canandaigua, "for setting on foot and providing means in the United States for carrying on a warlike expedition against Canada." His sentence was that he should be confined in the county jail of Monroe for eighteen months and pay a fine of $10. He was conducted to the "Blue Eagle" and placed under close confinement. Sheriff Darius Perrin, in whose custody Mackenzie was placed, is still living, and is in his 82nd year. The jail is standing, or rather stood, in the southern part of the city, so close to the river that the waters wash its eastern foundation wall.

County Court Business.

At the county court yesterday Judge Morgan heard Morden v. Sale, a case brought by Mrs. Margaret Morden of this city to recover $200 from Julian Sale, a clerk in the crown lands department. Mrs. Morden alleged that he had in 1882 entered into a verbal agreement with Mr. Sale, whereby she was to have a home in his house, 490 Ontario street, for her life, on condition that she would make certain repairs and allow him the use of her furniture. She claimed that two and a half years afterwards she was given notice to leave. A verdict was brought in awarding her the full amount claimed.

Before Judge McDougall, who is trying non-jury cases, Nees v. Monteith was made a remanet, and McDonald v. Evans was dismissed with costs.

Presbyterian Home Missions.

The Home Mission committee (Western section) of the Presbyterian church will meet in St. Andrew's church on Tuesday, March 30. Claims for mission stations and augmented congregations for the past six months, with the names of all missionaries and catechists recommended by presbyteries for mission work during the summer months, should be sent to the convener or secretary not later than March 23.

Caught at Chicago.

A despatch from Chicago says: "Fred. C. Anderson, cashier of the Dominion Transport company of Toronto, Ont., was arrested here to-day, charged with embezzling several thousand dollars of his employers' money. To-morrow he will accompany an officer to Toronto."

Anderson skipped from here Tuesday, March 2. He was a confidential employe of the concern, and regarded as trustworthy. His defalcation amounts to about $2000.

Parks and Boulevards.

There was a meeting of the Citizens' committee yesterday afternoon at Mr. W. B. McMurrich's office, regarding the scheme of enlarging and improving the city parks. Signatures to the petition to the extent of 500 have already been obtained. After some discussion it was agreed to send a circular letter to the various papers, setting forth the nature of the Parks act and the particulars of the proposed park and boulevard scheme. Mr. McMurrich was chairman and Thos. McCracken secretary. Among those present were Arthur Harvey, Gordon Brown, J. Jackes, Edgar Jarvis, D. W. Alexander, Peter McIntyre, Geo. Beales.

Police Court Business.

Maurice Leonard, also got a month for the same offence. Elijah Middleton, assault, $10 and costs. Parkdale Affairs.

The municipal legislators of Parkdale met in the town hall Monday night, with Mayor Lynd presiding. Mr. McMillan, the newly appointed clerk and treasurer, was at his post. A communication was read from the Masonic Hall company, threatening to enforce their lease. The mayor, Reeve MacMath, and Councillors Stewart and Stevens were appointed a committee to look after the passage of the railway act. Chief Quinn and Constable Wright each received $50 increase in salary.

On Saturday afternoon a large number of the public school children visited the zoo at Exhibition park. They were accompanied by Councillor Burns, S. C. Hall, John Wanless, jr., Headmaster J. Wimer and teachers R. W. Hicks, Miss Noble and F. W. Ralston. C. A. Hirschfelder lectured to the young hopefuls in the lion house on zoology.

Consolidation of City Bylaws.

Chairman Hastings, Ald. Defoe, Turner, Baxter and Carlyle (St. Thomas), of the special committee on the consolidation of city bylaws, met yesterday. The city clerk said that the proposed work would cost $1500. On the suggestion of the chairman, the committee adjourned until the fire and gas committee shall have reported on the needed new fire bylaw.

He Didn't Read the Papers.

By Bob Burdette.

"No," said the passenger with the fringe whiskers around his neck, "no, I don't read newspapers. They're full of lies. There isn't a line of truth in a hundred of 'em." And the next time the train boy came through he paid 50 cents for the "Life and Adventures of Jessie James," stuck his ticket in his hatband, and before the conductor came along his hat blew out of the window. You can always tell a man who doesn't read the papers.
