Mr. John Clarke Taylor has gone to Arizona to spend the winter. Mrs. Taylor will remain in Boston.

Mrs. W. F. Todd and Miss Winifred Todd are spending a few days in Boston.

Quite suddenly, at "Hawthorne Hall," on Monday evening, Miss Alice Stevens, the aged sister of Hon. Judge Stevens, passed away. She had reached the advanced age of eighty-eight years. She was a woman of great worth and sterling character, and even at her great age was always bright and cheerful. The funeral took place this afternoon from Hawthorne Hall, and the services were conducted by Rev. Gordon Dickie, of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie expect soon to visit their daughter, Mrs. Edgar M. Robinson, New York.

Mrs. George J. Clarke has returned from a visit in St. John.

Mrs. George Wilson, held her receptions at the home of her parents, Mayor and Mrs. Teed, on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Wilson received her guests in a handsome reception gown of white embroidered chiffon over white silk and wore a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses, and not only looked but was most charming. She was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister, Miss Ethel Teed, Miss Frances Todd, and Miss Roberta Murchie. The Misses Grace Deinstadt, Helen Grant, Edith Deinstadt and Gretchen Vroom, served cake and fruit punch. The receptions were very gay and merry and were much enjoyed by all the guests who were present.

Mr. W. C. H. Grimmer, M. P. P., received a telegram on Friday from Winnipeg containing the disturbing news that their son, Mr. Don T. Grimmer, who is employed in a bank in Winnipeg, is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Ross, who went to Skowhegan last week on the sad errand to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Ross' mother, have arrived home again.

A very pleasant event last Saturday evening was the class re-union given by the class '03 of the St. Stephen High school, in honor of their classmate, Miss Emma McCrum, who left on Tuesday evening for Eureka (Cal.), where with her mother she will make her home. The re-union was given at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. Douglas Lawson, and their daughter, Miss Elsie Lawson, was the hostess for the occasion. The house was artistically decorated with red and green, the class colors. One very happy incident was the presentation to Miss McCrum, of a handsome set of brushes and toilette articles, set in silver from her classmates. The presentation was made by Mr. Edward DeWolfe, who regretted the first break in their class circle." Class '03 has always been noted for friendship and devotion to each other, and it is a sorrow to them that there is now a vacant chair. The members of the class are Misses Elsie Lawson, Lila Laflin, Jean Haley, Alice Ryder, Emma McCrum, Bessie Wry, Celia Clarke, Hazen Moulton, Watson Gregory and Edward DeWolfe.

Mrs. Almon I. Teed, is going to Woodstock this week to visit. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Teed.

Mr. J. W. V. Lawlor, of St. John, was in town this week.

A carnival was the attraction on Tuesday evening. A large number of skaters and a great many on-lookers were on the ice. The costumes were all good, and both girls and boys deserve very much credit for the careful manner in which they prepared for the affair. Considerable originality was shown in the selection of characters. It would require more space than perhaps is "Jack's" share to give a complete list. However, it seems but fair that special mention should be made of Miss Bessie Bishop, who as a doll, was very good; Miss Elaine Johnson a Red Cross nurse, a splendid representation, also Miss Stacy, who was very good as Mother Goose. The boys, whose costumes were most remarked, were: George Carter as a Highland Laddie; Arthur White, a Coon, and J. Pitre as a Chinaman.

In justice to the gentleman who so kindly supplied electric lights for the benefit of the young people on the ice, the name which inadvertently appeared J. P. Logue last week, should read J. P. Legere.

Miss Mollie Harrington, who has been confined to the house for some days on account of a very badly frost-bitten ear, is able to be out again.

Miss Windsor, of St. John's (Nfld.), is visiting relatives here.

FREDERICTON.

Fredericton, Jan. 20 — (Special) — The West End saw mill, off Queen street, was destroyed by fire tonight.

The fire was discovered about 10.30 o'clock by Edward Hunt, the watchman. The flames seemed to have originated in the centre of the building, and when the firemen reached the scene the whole plant was a mass of flames.

The loss in machinery amounts to four shingle machines, one edger, one planer, gang saw and rotary saw, also the engine and boiler. The lumber was saved.

The mill belonged to the estate of R. A. Estey & Co., and was being run by the assignee.

The total loss is $12,000. The property was partly insured by Tilley & Fairweather. The mill was built about thirty years ago.

The fire was one of the worst here in years.

Mrs. Michael McNally, aged fifty-six years, died last night. A husband and two daughters survive.

President Randolph, in his annual report to the People's Bank, stated that the bank's taxes were unduly excessive. The People's Bank last year paid $2,438.67, while the taxes of the four other banks doing business in this city amounted to only $1,323.27. They want the total amount contributed by all banks to be more evenly divided or their taxes reduced more nearly to those paid by other banks.

Moncton, Jan. 20—The Moncton police have been asked to keep a lookout for a young man named James Cullens, who is wanted at Port Elgin for defalcation.

Cullens had lived for the past five years at George Noills' home and came to be regarded as one of the family.

About a week ago Mr. Mills alleges that he gave Cullens $120 to deposit in the bank and also an order on a merchant for a suit of cloths.

The amount of money entrusted to Cullens' care appears to have proved too great a temptation for him, as he has not been seen by Mr. Mills since. The young man executed the order for the suit of clothes all right, but the $120 has not yet reached the bank where Mr. Mills had his account.

Another serious charge is preferred against Cullens
