WE acknowledge the receipt of the "Christmas Bow Bells" from Mr. Day.

The New York Amateur Rifle Club proposes to accept the challenge of the Irish Riflemen for an international match.

XMAS.—Xmas cards, Xmas stationary. The largest and finest stock at Anderson's.

A carrier-pigeon flown from France wandered one thousand miles from home, and was captured recently on a vessel in the Mediterranean.

JOHN ANDERSON has sent us a Canadian Almanac for 1874. This excellent almanac is one of those things which everyone is sure to need at some time or other during the year.

Two men lived on basswood sprouts for a week, while lately lost in the Michigan wilderness.

THE "Christmas Bow Bells" is a capital number, of double size, and the supplement contains a number of brightly-colored patterns and fashion plates that are quite dazzling to our masculine eyes. Mr. John Anderson sends us a copy.

GUELPH MARKETS.

MERCURY OFFICE, Dec. 18, 1873.

There has been a lively market during the last few days, with a promise of brisker business if the sleighing improves. Barley maintains its upward movement. It dropped three cents in the top price on Thursday, but on Monday went up again seven cents in the top figure. There has also been some little improvement in other prices.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND DAILY.

THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommendation; but the reasons which have already given it fifty thousand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thousands more, are briefly as follows:

It is a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner.

It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste.

It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages.

It is a first-rate agricultural paper. The most fresh and instructive articles on agricultural topics regularly appear in this department.

It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party and wearing no collar. Fights for principle, and for the election the best men to office. It especially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of knaves, and asks no favors from their supporters

It reports the fashions for the ladies and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention.

Finally, it is the cheapest paper published. One dollar a year will secure it for any subscriber. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.

We have no travelling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1 a year. No discounts from this rate.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN — Same size as the Daily Sun. $2 a year. A discount of 20 per cent. to clubs of 10 or over.

THE DAILY SUN — A large four page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 130,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription price 60 cents a month, or $6 a year. To clubs of ten or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

CONSTITUTION BROKEN DOWN with fatty degeneration of the heart, liver and kidneys, from the use of alcohol: exhaustion of the vital forces, from the use of tobacco; irritability and restlessness of the nervous system, from the effects of strychnine; impaired nutrition and loss of energy, from the use of opium; and nervous and physical prostration, from intemperance of any kind—can be restored by the use of DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALISAYA, a purely physiological remedy—perfectly harmless to adult or infant—that builds up all the organs and tissues of the body in a radical and permanent manner.

SUBSCRIBE FOR
The Christian at Work.
EVANGELICAL ALWAYS, SECTARIAN NEVER!

The Christian at Work is an independent, unsectarian journal, devoted to Religion, Morals, Reform, News, Literature, Music, Science, Art, etc.; and is replete with every variety of matter suitable for the household, including Stories, Poems, Tales for children, and other contributions by eminent writers. It is edited by T. De Witt Talmage, who is editor in fact, and not simply in name, and throws into the paper all of his wonderful talent and energy. In his own language, he says: "We take this chair not as a pastime, nor because we have nothing else to do, but because we feel that the Lord God calls us to the work." It is the only paper to which he is in any way contributes. It contains each week an accurate stenographic report of his sermons, whose eloquence and earnest Christian character have given Dr Talmage a world wide reputation. He will also furnish regularly a series of SPARKLING ARTICLES ON CURRENT TOPICS, in addition to his usual editorial contributions. C. H. Spurgeon, the most famous preacher in the old world, will write for the Christian at Work, and for no other paper in America. Besides these, the paper has the assistance of an ABLE EDITORIAL STAFF, and the fullest assurance is given that no pains or money will be spared to make a paper profitable to all classes; one in which the educated will find inspiration, and the ignorant be able to spell out hope and consolation for all their troubles; one that children will gladly pick up as they come in from play, and one that shall encourage the old Christian just before he goes into the Shining Gate. The form of the paper is a large quarto, sixteen pages, pasted and trimmed, and is convenient for reading, binding and preservation. There are no leaves to be cut, and the paper is read AS CONVENIENTLY AS A BOOK.

Three Superb Oil Chromos are offered with the paper to subscribers; the original paintings of which were worth in the aggregate $35 000. They are offered singly or together, so that subscribers have a rare chance of adorning their parlours with some of the choicest works of art, in connection with the best reading matter for the household.

The first and most noted is "THE TWINS," by Sir Edwin Landseer, measuring nearly two by two and a half feet in size, and would be worth about twenty dollars in the art stores. Two manificent Scotch shepherd dogs are reclining upon the top of a shelving rock. At its base is one of those fine sheep for which England and Scotland are noted, and lying at her feet are the twin lambs, which give to the picture its name. A rich land cape completes the picture. "A WEE BIT FRACTIOUS," our next picture, is a recent production of the famous Scotch painter, Thomas Faed, of the Royal Academy of Art. A beautiful matron, with dark hair and eyes, holds in loving embrace her little daughter. Its troubled face, the tear on its cheek, the broken playthings on the floor, and the demure look of the terrier, show very plainly that an April shower has clouded for a moment the day's sunshine. Our third picture, by the same eminent painter, is entitled "SABBATH AFTERNOON." A young and happy mother, with brown hair, blue eyes, and rosy cheeks, sits outside of her cottage door. She has been reading the good book, but it has fallen upon her lap, and she seems to be peacefully meditating upon what she has read. The little boy standing by her side has forgotten all about his "April showers" and troubles. In the background is a lake, without a ripple. Further on, this side of a distant mountain, the smoke from a peasant's cottage lazily curls upward from behind the trees.

These two pictures make a most appropriate pair. They each measure fifteen and a quarter by nineteen and a quarter inches. The appropriate place for "The Twins" is that of a centre-piece between the others.

Price of the paper with either of the chromos, "Sabbath Afternoon" or "A Wee Bit Fractious"—Weekly, $3.15; Monthly, $1.65. Paper and "The Twins"—Weekly, $4 25; Monthly, $2.75. Paper and all three chromos—Weekly, $6.35; Monthly, $4.85. Subscriptions taken at the Guelph Bookbindery. Subscribers pay no money till the chromos and first copy of the paper are received.
