29 70; 8 a. m., weather thick, barometer 29 50, made Seal Island, N. S., bearing E. N. E., concluded to make for a port of refuge, and bore away for Pubnico. At 9 a. m., finding it impossible to fetch Pubnico, owing to the strong flood tide at the time, abandoned the idea, tacked the ship and stood to sea. 10 a. m., wind blowing strong, and a large sea on, barometer 29.30, close reefed sails fore and aft. Seal Island bearing by calculation E. by S., 9 miles. Whilst the crew were employed reefing carried away jibs stays. Immediately took in jibs and main sails, and hove ship to under close reefed foresail, heading from S. S. W. to S. W. Noon, ship laboring with deck full of water continually, barometer 29 00. 1 p. m, blowing terrific, barometer 28.50, and falling. 7 p. m., wind veered Westerly in wild squalls, barometer 27 90 (what I never saw before) breaking the ship off in the trough of the sea, causing her to roll very heavily. To wear the ship then would, in the position she was in, have been the means of losing her and all on board before daylight. At 12 midnight, made Yarmouth Light, bearing N E about 4 miles, wind West, ship heading N by W. Deemed it prudent to bear up for Yarmouth, though the seas were breaking the entire breadth of the Sound. At 12.30, the 8th, bore away N E under close reefed foresail. At 1.30 a. m. passed Cape Forchu in safety. At 3 a. m., for safety of ship and cargo, ran her on the mud flats above Fish Point, where she laid until the evening of the 11th when I got her afloat and anchored in 3 fathoms of water. 12th, held survey, and finding the ship was making no water proceeded to Halifax, where I arrived at 6 p. m. on the 16th.

A Dummy on his Muscle.

As the well-known Dummy handcartman was endeavoring to cart a large porker to its place of destination, on King's Square, at noon to-day, his too frequent libations of whiskey juice proved too much for him, and he rolled over on the sidewalk helpless. His pitiful plight attracted the attention of a crowd of loafers who haunt the stable yards in that vicinity, and their taunts and jokes soon caused him to rally, and, getting his mad up, he struck a lad on the head with an iron rench, inflicting a very severe wound. The lad was taken to Dr. Andrews' office to have his wounds dressed. We scarcely know who to blame most—the unfortunate assailant or the heathless loafers who excited his anger.

City Police Court.

Andrew Crawford, Ireland, assault on John Haley, fined $8.

Victoria Albert, 28, N. B., drunk on Sheffield street, fined $6.

Geo. Mulherrin, 26, N. B., assault on Ruth Smith, fined $20.

Richard Davis, 40, N. B., drunk on King Square, fined C4.

James Mollison, 35, Scotland, charged by Capt. McIntosh with refusing to do duty on board the barque "Normandy," was sent to gaol for two weeks or until the ship went to sea.

Arthur Campbell was sent to the Penitentiary for two months for assault on F. W. Williams and abusive language to F. W. Hancock.

A Western journal has just issued a map of the Chicago burned district.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20, p. m.

Gold 113 1-8; exchange 110; money 7 per cent.

A special from Paris states that the city is greatly excited. The political troubles have reached a climax. Thiers has resigned the Presidency and Marshal McMahon has been appointed President, ad interim.

Cable dispatches to the Associated Press make no allusion to this report and it is probably unfounded.

Horace Greeley's health is very much impaired.

LONDON, Nov. 20.

The trouble in the London police force is not yet settled. The situation is about the same as yesterday. The movement for an increase of pay has extended to the postmen, who, with the police, intend to hold a mass meeting in Hyde Park on Sunday night next to discuss what course shall be pursued.

Consols 92 1-4; wheat 11s. 6d. a 11s. 10d.

LONDON, Nov. 21, a. m.

The trouble with the metropolitan police continues, Seventy Bow street constables and thirty-nine Kensington officers have been dismissed.

It is said that a second ecclesiastical province of the Roman Catholic Church is to be established in England, with Liverpool as the Metropolitan See.

The Italian Government has forbidden the assemblage of the Universal Suffrage Convention at Rome.

King Amadeus of Spain is very ill, and his condition is critical.

Armed bands, supposed to be Republicans, have appeared in various provinces of Spain.

There is a crisis in the Hungarian Cabinet.

The Lower House of the Prussian Diet will proceed immediately to second reading of the Country Reform Bill.

PARIS, Nov. 20, midnight.

Marshal McMahon refuses the Presidency in case Theirs should resign.

The National Assembly has given its approval to the discussion at an early day of the project for the restitution to the Orleans Princes of their confiscated property.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

Stanley has arrived in New York and will have a reception at the Lotus Club tomorrow evening.

In Jersey City last evening, a tobacco warehouse, lumber yard, and various dwellings were consumed. Losses $125,000. The flames endangered the Erie Railway depots and shipping, but were controlled after great efforts.

The mammoth printing house of Rand & Avery, Cornhill, Boston, was burned last evening, involving a loss of a quarter of a million, and throwing 250 persons out of employment.

Several weekly and monthly publications were burned out. Patrick Donahoe, Lee & Shepard, and Charles H. Taylor, who suffered by the great fire, also lost heavily last night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.

A Roumanian emigration society was formed here last evening to welcome and care for immigrants now en route for America from Roumania, some five hundred in number.

The Tribune says the health of Mr. Greeley is very much impaired by the death of his wife, but it is believed that his strong constitution will soon enable him to overcome his illness.

Messrs. Lamb and Eastman yesterday obtained a verdict against the Camden and Amboy R. R. for $114,235 with interest for loss of 137 bales of cotton, burned on the dock of said Co., in 1864.

C. T. Christen, senior Consul of Denmark, issues a circular making an appeal for help for the sufferers by the recent storms. All donations will be remitted by cable, and distributed by the Danish Government.

A Havana letter states that the slave holders of Cuba are adopting all measures to retain slavery, and have spent $600,000 in Madrid, their labors then resulting in obtaining from Minister Zorilla, the assertion that while a single insurgent remains in arms, there shall be no reform in Cuba.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company announce that a despatch is received by them, stating the steamship Arizona was spoken on the 14th inst., off Manzanilla, coast of Mexico, with her piston broken. The Arizona was in tow of the steamer Constitution, bound for San Francisco. The passengers have been transferred to the Constitution.

A special to the Daily Evening Mail, from Paris, states that the city is greatly excited. The political troubles have reached a climax. Thiers has resigned the Presidency, and Marshal McMahon has been appointed President ad interim. There is a proposition in the Assembly for a military triumvirate consisting of Generals L, Admirault, Changarnier, and McMahon. Efforts are making to induce Thiers to withdraw his resignation.

No news of trouble in Paris has been received at the general agency of Associated Press in this city. Considerable doubt is attached to the special despatch alleged to have been received from Paris relative to Thiers final resignation and consequent excitement. The financial despatches from London to-day shows no marked change which would be likely to result from any serious political changes or complications in France.
