CLEVER PERFORMANCE GIVEN AT ST. BASIL'S CHURCH CLUB

There was a crowded house at the concert given last evening in St. Basil's Young Men's Hall under the auspices of the members of that association.

It was also a very delighted audience as evinced by the many recalls. Mr. Walter McRaye and Miss Lucy Webling were the stars of the evening.

Both have most acceptably appeared here before, but never to so great an advantage as on this occasion.

Their charming little plays and sketches were most daintily and artistically presented, and Mr. McRaye, in addition, rendered some of the late Dr. Drummond's unrivalled Habitant poems. It is not too much to say that he is without any question the most accomplished interpreter of the spirit and the intent of those always delightful verses. Both performers placed themselves in cordial touch with their listeners from the very first.

The assisting artists were Miss G. Brohman who displayed a very fine soprano voice in her rendition of "Sweetheart." She richly deserved the encore accorded.

Misses E. Schuler and G. Hargadon rendered a piano duet "Il Trovatore" with such success as to also warrant a recall, and Miss M. O'Grady gave Blumenthal's "Sunshine and Rain" with excellent method. Another encore was quite properly bestowed in this instance.

The musical programme was under the personal direction of Miss M. E. Nolan, whose vocal vogue has become so thoroughly well established.

Altogether the entertainment can be classed as one of the most pleasurable ever heard in this city.

Social Evening By Bible Class

The combined Bible classes of St. Jude's church gathered for an annual social evening, the object being to make the members better acquainted and invite new members to the classes. The Ladies Class provided the supper which was typical of their usual excellent efforts, while the men were responsible for the musical programme. After the repast, an address by the Rev. H. A. Wright was enjoyed. Mr. Wright outlined briefly the benefits of class study of the Bible, citing passages from scripture to emphasize his remarks. This address was followed by a number of toasts and then by musical selections. The toast to The King and the Empire, was proposed in a loyal speech by Mr. H. Harrington and the response tersely and to the point by Mr. W. Taylor. In the toast to the Church and Bible Class, Mr. P. Unsworth spoke in eulogistic terms of active members, drawing attention to the advance made in the last year since the organized classes were formed and to the fact that it was at the Rev. H. A. Wright's instigation organization took place. This toast was answered by the men's class leader. The toast, to The Ladies, was given in a humorous vein by Mr. Chas. House and response by Mrs. Morrison, leader of the Ladies' Class, who is whole-hearted in her work and who invites her class to regular attendance to spiritual feasts Sunday by Sunday. The Misses Dawson gave two pianoforte selections, Mr. J. Unsworth, a comical song interpreting opera singing; Mr. W. Unsworth, Miss E. Burr and Mr. P. Unsworth gave solos. All these numbers were enjoyed, and a pleasant evening closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Pretty Event At The Y.W.C.A.

Last evening the Y. W. C. A. was the scene of much merriment when the girls in residence turned back the calendar of the years and became "children" once again. Had a magician waved a wand and said, "Backward, turn backward O Time in your flight," the transformation could not have been more complete. The costumes were varied and unique, and the merry "little" damsels went back to the days of skipping ropes and "kiddy" games.

About 10.30 the house social committee catered to childish apetites, and after a bright program consisting of appropriate songs and readings after which the tired-out happy maidens joined hands and sang a goodnight song, they trooped away, voting it the best party ever.

Kitchen Shower

On Thursday night Mrs. Harry Lee, formerly Miss Nina Butterworth, was called from her home over to the home of her mother, 207 Chatham street, where a number of her friends from the Calvary Baptist Church surprised her with a shower of very handsome aluminum kitchen utensils. Mrs. Lee responded with a gracious and sincere little speech, showing her appreciation of the cordiality of her friends, and inviting them at some future time to her own home to see what good use she would make of their gifts. The party greatly enjoyed themselves with games and refreshments, and dispersed at midnight to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne."

WERE GIVEN WELCOME

PIERÆUS, Greece, Nov. 28.—The British and French fleets, which have been paying a round of visits to Mediterranean ports to show the flags of the two nations, arrived here today and were given a hearty welcome. The vessels are to remain for some days, so as to enable the officers and men to fraternize with the Greek sailors.

Toronto is facing an egg famine in common with the rest of the country.

James Pears of Toronto, was shot by a fellow hunter, in Minto Township, his white cap being mistaken for a rabbit.

Social and Personal

The Courier is always pleased to use items of personal interest. Phone 1781.

Mr. Leslie Green arrived from Vancouver last evening and while here will be the guest of friends.

Mr. Dave Vanfleet left yesterday for Toronto, to assume his new position with the Massey-Harris Co.

Mrs. Gee, deaconess of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, has been called away on account of the illness of her father.

M. Osborne Shepherd, noted grand opera singer, residing at Grimsby, was in the city yesterday looking over Brantford as a field for a class.

A splendid time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sheppard, 99 Pearl street, when friends of Miss A. Holmes gathered in her honor. The evening was spent with euchre and music.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. Victoria White, daughter of the late Robert White, of Dunnville, to Mr. William Thomas Henderson, K.C., of Brantford.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

On the occasion of the silver anniversary of their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney, 4 McMurray St., entertained about 50 guests last evening most pleasantly. They were recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Last evening friends to the number of about forty gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foulds, 39 Rose avenue in honor of their son, Harold. Euchre and other games were played and a splendid time generally spent.

Pansy Club Holding Splendid Bazaar

This afternoon and evening the Pansy Club are holding their 9th annual bazaar in the S. M. Thomson Home on Chatham street. During the past year the young ladies have been busy making articles to sell at the bazaar.

In the two large front rooms of the Shelter are arranged the different booths, all prettily decorated and looking very attractive. Over the arch between the rooms is a large banner with the club name upon it.

The fancy work booth is in charge of Misses Ruby Harrison and Pearl Simons, and contains many beautiful articles to attract the eye and extract the coin from many who will attend.

Misses Ruby Matthews and Marjorie Middlemiss have charge of the candy booth. The candies sold here have never seen the inside of a store, all being made by the girls and their friends. The young ladies have shown themselves at their past bazaars to be able to make confections of no small merit, and this year will prove no exception.

The home-made cooking is in charge of Misses Floss Tooze, and Grace Randall, and finds many ready buyers, as it is a genuine home-made like "the kind that mother used to make."

The fish pond in charge of Miss Eva Fish, proves a great attraction. There is no so-called fisherman's luck here, as every time you cast you get a bite right away, and when the beauty is landed after a short struggle, you are well repaid for your effort.

All members of the club have worked hard to make the bazaar a success. Besides those mentioned above the following are members: E. Middlemiss, L. Corey, J. Cowie, N. Rodgers, E. Wilmott, Gladys Tucker, J. Graham, P. Pinkham, M. Potts, C. Storey, H. Simons, E. Burrell and A. Patterson, Mrs. Paterson, Mrs. Simons, Misses Dora Ginn and J. Aikens, are assisting to-day.

Last year $110 was realized, which was used to furnish a ward, and it is expected that more will be made this year, which will be given to the general fund.

Laid at Rest

The Late Samuel Shapley.

The funeral of the late Samuel Shapley took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 100 Alfred street to Greenwood cemtery, which as attended by a large number of friends. Rev. Mr. Kelly conducted impressive services. The pallbearers were six grand nephews. Mr. Harold Shapley of Toronto, and Messrs John, Charles, Jack, Harry and Reginald Bowden of this city. The floral tributes received were many and beautiful and testified to the great esteem in which the deceased was held.

A STORMY VOYAGE

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—G. T Collins, a Queenstown pilot, was an unexpected and involuntary passenger on the Cunard Liner Lusitania which arrived to-day from Liverpool. The pilot boarded the ship at Liverpool. When Queenstown was reached the sea was so rough that instead of going ashore, according to custom, Mr Collins had to stay aboard and make the trip to America. Storms followed the Lusitania almost all the way across.

The bodies of nine sailors drowned in the recent lakes storm, were buried at Kincardine, Goderich and Sarnia. Two more bodies from the Hydru have been identified.

FIFTY-TWO BUSHELS OF WHEAT PER ACRE.

Various reports of large crops of wheat in Western Canada are frequently reported but the last and best that have been made is that reported by Mr. Arthur Bronsdon, a farmer at Rutan, Saskatchewan, a point on the Prince Albert branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. Thirty-six acres of Red Fife Wheat yielded 49 bushels per acre, and forty-eight acres of Marquis yielded fifty-two busheis per acre. The success is all the more remarkable from the fact that Mr. Brondson when he came to Canada from England eight years ago was quite inexperienced in farming, and had lived all his life in the heart of London.
