WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13TH, 1900.

—China, always a fertile field for trouble, is now the scene of a civil warfare, which is affecting foreign interests to such an extent that practically all the great powers of the world are being forced to interfere. The "Boxers" are styled outlaws, and as such have been, to some extent, opposed by the government forces in their outrages against foreigners, but late news indicates that the government, recognizing its inability to cope with the rebellion, has followed the lead of the insurrection and is making a common cause with the outlaws against foreign interference. Affairs have assumed a phase of extreme gravity, and the outcome of the intervention is a much more serious question than the immediate protection of the rights of foreigners. The celestial empire may be very near its partition, and if that long postponed event is to result from the present crisis, the peace of the world is in great danger. With such a confliction of interests, it will be difficult for any amicable disposition of the property to be made among the self-appointed heirs of the estate, and if they quarrel over their spoils, the world will witness a terrible conflict of arms. It would seem that nothing short of a miracle can prevent some rupture between the confessed enemies who are now called upon to act as peacemakers. If Russia, Great Britain, France, Germany and Japan can act in in harmony on this occasion, then there is indeed some ground for the belief that a lasting universal peace may be consummated.

Obituary.

MARY E. SLOCUMB.

On the morning of April 26th, Mary E., relict of Capt. J. E. Slocumb, of Port George passed into rest, from the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. F. Marshall, of Middleton. She was the second daughter of the late Peter Middlemas, who came to this country from Scotland and settled in Brooklyn, Annapolis county.

She was a member of the Pine Grove Baptist Church, having been baptized by the Rev. W. H. Porter during his residence there.

Mrs. Slocumb had been a sufferer for a long time, and had been confined to her bed the greater part of the last three years, but her intense sufferings were borne with the calm fortitude of one who was resting with Christ. Her life was a living testimony of the power of the gospel to support its believers.

When able to be about, she was always doing for others, ever thoughtful of the sick and needy, and when stricken down with disease, the same unselfish disposition was shown. Even until the last she wished the watchers to rest, and only until a few hours before she passed away, although greatly distressed, she made anxious inquires about other sick ones. She was carefully tended by her daughters, all of whom were with her at the end.

She was conscious to the last, and to her, death had no terrors, and she said that all was bright beyond.

Two brothers and one sister survive her. Her children are Capt. D. H. and J. E. Slocum, of Port George, Mrs. N. F. Marshall and Miss Emma A. Slocumb, of Middleton, and Mrs. G. R. Marshall, of Halifax, all of whom cherish loving and tender memories of a sainted mother. Their loss is her gain.

Her husband preceded her to the better land six years ago, and her daughter, Julia L., two years before that.

One less at home!
The charmed circle broken—a dear face
Missed day by day from its usual place,
But cleansed, saved, perfected by grace,
One more in Heaven.

She returns, not only with some novel and beautiful effects in her well known specialty—Indian stories given in native costume—but her new program contains stirring patriotic recitations, sparkling stories, and irresistible humorous sketches, which latter have placed her in the foremost rank of Canadian comedienses. Canada at the Paris Exhibition.

Paris, June 8.—President Loubet yesterday visited the foreign and colonial sections of the Exhibition." At the British colonial section there was slight friction concerning precedence. The Hon. J. I. Tarte, Canadian Minister of Public Works, refused to accept British Commissioner Jekyll's programme for the reception on the ground that it did not give Canada the importance to which the Dominion was entitled. He insisted that President Loubet visit the Canadian section as that of a country distinct from the British possessions otherwise he would close all the doors of that section. The point was conceded, whereupon the Canadian displayed evident gratification. The Canadian band played the 'Marseillaise' with such enthusiasm that according to the 'Temps,' they forgot to keep time, while cries of 'Long live Loubet' and 'Long live the republic' burst from all sides, filling the gardens with echoes. When Mr. Tarte bade farewell to the President he shouted 'Long live France."

It is the intention of the syndicate to purchase, consolidate, and extend these railroads over the entire island.

The Ashanti Uprising.

London, June 6.—The Daily Mail has a despatch from Accra dated Tuesday, saying it is rumored there that Sir Frederick Mitchell Hodgson, governor of the Gold Coast Colony, has left Kumassi, where he had been besieged, and that he is believed to be in great straits. It is practically certain that Kumassi is still invested. No runners can get through. The advancing relief columns are meeting with determined opposition.
