Reputation Established.—S. Randall, Esq. Sullivansville, N. Y., says, in a letter recently of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Zylobalsamum: "It is the best dressing for the hair we can get, and the most called for. Her Hair Restorer is a valuable remedy for baldness and grayness. I could procure many testimonials, but their fame is already too well established to require them."

Sold by druggists everywhere. Depot, 198 Greenwich st., New York.

A letter from Nice says that a frightful crime has just been committed at Vinlars, in the arrondissement of Puget-Theniers. M. Perretti, receiver of the direct taxes, plunged a dagger into the heart of M. Arduin, his assistant, and then delivered himself up to the authorities. The cause of the crime is not yet known.

Removal of the Troops.—We believe the statement we published a short time since, to the effect that the Rifle Brigade would be removed to Kingston, is now fully confirmed. It is not known what regiment will replace the rifles, some say the 63rd.—Hamilton Spectator.

Died.

At Goderich, on Friday night, 8th April at 9 o'clock, Andrew Shade, the infant son of Mr. D. S. Gooding, aged 1 year and two months.

Drowned.—On the 26th of February last, in Lake Wapatipatago, New Zealand, by the swamping of a boat, John, second son of the late Mr. Robert Shearer, formerly of London, Canada West; aged 26 years, deeply regretted.

DAYS' HOTEL,

ON THE GRAVEL ROAD,

NEAR WROXETER,

THE subscriber, in returning thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon him—especially while his house was in an unfinished state—takes this opportunity of apprising his many friends and the public generally, of the fact, that his house now affords accommodation inferior to none in the County, and therefore trusts that by a proper attention to business he will still merit the share of patronage hitherto bestowed upon him. Let no stage-man or other interested individual persuade you into the belief that it is all the same whether you go to Wroxeter or not, because not only is his house not in that place, but is 2 miles unsaw by any road that is travelable, and therefore travellers going to Belmore Teswater, Walkerton, &c., will find "Days Hotel" on the main gravel road, about a mile beyond the finger board pointing to Wroxeter, and can expect superior accommodation and a hearty welcome at any hour of day or night. Our stabling is the most commodious in the county (city hotels, perhaps, excepted.) For a view of the horses see R. W. Hermon, R. Martin and L. Bolton's New Map of the County.
