STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER
THE ALL-
IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham

you are considing your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia

E. Pinkham and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising

sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs.

Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say without trying it

"I do not believe it will help me."

LOSS OF LIFE NOW

SAID TO BE 5000.

Hong Kong's Awful Typhoon Grows in Horror Daily—Full Extent of Catastrophe not yet Known —Damage to Property is Estimated at Twenty Millions.

Hong Kong, Sept. 26.—Another storm, less violent, however, than the typhoon, broke over here at midnight, and blew for six hours.
The damage apparently was not great.

The full extent of the catastrophe is not yet known, but conservative estimates place the number of Chinese who lost their lives at 5,000 and the total of the material damage to the colony at $20,000,000.

Reports of disasters at sea are constantly being received here. The steamer Albatross, with 150 passengers on board, foundered near Futaumen Pass. Only six passengers two of the crew were saved.

The steamer Hong Kong also lost and her entire crew is missing.
The steamer Ying Fat, from Sam Chun, foundered and 130 passengers and ten of her crew are missing.
Only two of the crew are known to have been rescued.

Mrs. Moore and her searching party have returned. They found no trace of her husband, Joseph Charles Moore, Anglican bishop of Victoria, whose yacht was lost during the typhoon.

Captain Thomas, commander of the river steamer Falshon, whose Chinese crew clambered on board the French mail steamer Polynesian, when the Falshon collided with her, saved his vessel and 150 Chinese passengers by splendid seamanship.

Fortunately the engine room staff stuck heroically to their posts single-handed on deck. He took the wheel and navigated the Falshon for one hour and forty minutes through a tempestuous sea, and finally beached the vessel safely. It is believed that she can be refloated without much trouble.

The staff of the Jardine Matheson sugar refinery rescued two hundred Chinamen from sinking sampans. The losses of the Kowloon Godown "Warehouse" company are estimated at $750,000, forty thousand bales of yarn, which were in storage at Kowloon, probably are irretrievably damaged. The beach is littered with valuable silks, and many loot-ers have been arrested here and at Kowloon.

There are ample supplies of rice to relieve distress.

There were seven hundred Chinese passengers on board the steamer Heung Shan, from Macao, which stranded off Lantau Island. All the European passengers were saved.

last named position he resigned on his appointment as Chancellor of Wedding Bells.

Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16th the home of Mr. Allan Matchett was the scene of a very pretty wedding when his two daughters, Miss Katie and Miss Ethel, were united in marriage. Miss Katie to Mr.
Thos. H. H. of the Northcote, and Miss Ethel to Mr. Thos. Russell, of Lower Berlin.

Miss Katie Matchett was becomingly attired in gray silk voile and lace trimmings, while Miss Ethel wore white tulle with white lace and ribbon trimmings.

Both brides were given away by their father, and after the ceremony was performed by the Rev.
Geo. Mitchell, and Rev. I. N.
Thorne, the marriage supper was served to a few friends
