"A MEMBER OF PRESBYTERY" of Peterboro sends us the following: "The cause of Temperance is progressing. Among other signs of the times is the prominence given to this subject in Presbyterian Church Courts. The following is a resolution unanimously adopted at a late meeting of the Presbytery of Peterboro. Moved by Mr. W. A. Mackay, seconded by Mr James Cameron, that the Presbytery, regarding intemperance as the cause of an enormous amount of crime, poverty, wretchedness, and one of the great hindrances to the spread of the gospel; and believing the enforcement of the Temperance Act of 1864, upon which the electors of the County of Northumberland and Durham will soon have the opportunity of voting, would in a great measure repress these evils; therefore resolved that we commend the said Act to the earnest and prayerful consideration of our congregations, and do recommend that ministers bring the subject prominently before the people.
