TO THE TRADE:

Friday, Sept. 13th. REVIEW DAY Toronto Fair.

We are glad to state that business with us during this "Exhibition Season" is greatly in excess of former years.

Notwithstanding this fact our stocks are still well assorted. This is owing to our anticipating a rising market and buying largely before any advance took place.

To-day we will have for your inspection

BARGAINS.

A CHEERFUL OUTLOOK.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report a Considerable Increase in Trade in Toronto.

An active trade is reported in nearly all departments of wholesale merchandise at Toronto. The city is crowded with visitors, many of whom are country merchants who are leaving good-sized orders. The business sentiment is better at present than for some years past, and indications favor a good autumn trade all round. The attendance at the Industrial Exhibition on Wednesday was the largest of any single day since the establishment of that institution, and that is saying a great deal. It was Farmers' Day, and judging from the appearance of the people and their exhibits, it is safe to say that no agricultural community in America can boast of more substantial progress or prosperity than the province of Ontario. Travelers are all in, their presence being needed in the warehouses to wait upon customers. The retail trade of the city is also active; money is being spent freely and the feeling pervading commercial circles is that of cheerfulness and hope.

Now that pretty full returns are available with regard to poyments on the 4th inst., we learn from several representative Montreal drygoods houses that the proportion of customers' paper provided for was 55 per cent.; some boot and shoe houses report rather a better per centage, but general collections on open account are called slow. Business with the country is moderate, the fall fairs, now so general, are absorbing a good deal of attention, and are credited with interfering with the regular course of business to some extent. Drygoods travelers are about getting out for the setting trip, and are calculating on a fair share of orders, though it is a question if stocks of fall goods have been much broken into yet. In the city drygoods retailers still complain of slow business; it was expected the opening of the schools, etc., would give some impetus to trade, but the almost sultry weather prevailing is, no doubt, a drawback. Further advances in cotton goods are reported. In groceries the movement is moderate but healthy.—The Daily Bulletin.

Canon DuMoulin Commended.

Editor World: I had not the privilege of hearing that able and learned divine, Canon Dumoulin, preach last Sunday, but I am glad to find from your remarks on his sermon that he is one of those brave and enlightened Christians who use the great gift of eloquence to advocate fresh country air and a little pastoral enjoyment for the poor on that God-blessed day, Sunday. Ministers of the gospel like Canon Dumoulin will have their churches none the less crowded because the electric cars carry toil-worn men and women and pale-faced children away from stifling city heat, to green fields and fresh, pure air. During the extreme heat of July and August there is scarcely a clergyman who does not have holidays for needed rest and refreshment. Churches at that season are, comparatively speaking, empty, and the services in some of them very wisely curtailed. Wealthy people also "go out of town"; each Sunday they enjoy the cool, refreshing breezes of sea, lake and river, and their children play to their heart's content, unrestricted and untrammelled by laws that oppress the poor alonc. I say, advisedly, the poor alone, for they cannot leave the city; they must toil six days in the week for daily bread and on the seventh, the only day it is possible for them to have a little recreation, they are debarred from a ride in a trolley car, while the rich, unhindered, can drive about in their carriages. On what authority are we to have the Jewish Sabbath forced upon us, with restrictions our Redeemer himself repudiated? Research into the early history of Christianity proves most clearly that nothing like a Sabbatarian view of the manner in which the Lord's Day should be kept was ever thought of. It was a day of rejoicing, in commemoration of the "Glorious Resurrection," a day for the assembling of Christians for prayer and praise, as well as a day for the recreation of mind and body. I must not trespass further on your columns, but I do hope that all who take an interest in the poor of our city will think and judge for themselves in this important Sunday question. A little careful reading, beginning with the sublimely beautiful narration of the Resurrection in the Bible, would convince many who now conscientiously and religiously hold Sabbatarian views, that "they do greatly err, not knowing the Scriptures."

JUSTICE.

They Never Fail.—Mr. S. M. Boughner, Langton, writes: "For about two years I was troubled with Inward Piles, but by using Parmelee's Pills I was completely cured, and although four years have elapsed since then, they have not returned." Parmelee's Pills are anti-bilious and a specific for the cure of Liver and Kidney Complaints, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Headache, Piles, etc., and will regulate the secretions and remove all bilious matter.

Henry A. King & Co. received the following despatch from Chicago: Wheat opened about the same as it closed yesterday. Liverpool and London public cables dull and lower. The Cincinnati Price Current reported no special change. Primary receipts again large; shorts bought considerable. Dec. wheat closed at 58c and May at 62c, a gain of half a cent from the opening. Everything considered, we think the market stood up well. We would rather wait a decline to buy than sell at present prices. Corn and oats steady, fluctuations narrow. Provisions slightly firmer, the principal business confined to Jan. pork and ribs. On any further advance in Oct. ribs they look to us as a good sale.
