INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.

$2,000,000 was said to be Mr. Fleming's estimate of the cost of the project.

The course of the line would be, it appears, from the eastern end of the Grand Trunk at Riviere du Loup to Woodstock, 188 miles, passing through a most beautiful and fertile valley.

If the line is only 188 miles long, and traverses every route all the way, surely $2,000,000 would be very ample for its construction.

At Woodstock it would meet the existing line to St. Andrew's. From St. Andrew's to St. John the line is under contract.

Taking this route, which would utilize the existing lines and those making, an intercolonial railway could be completed by making only 188 miles of new line from Woodstock to Riviere du Loup.

Let it be borne in mind that the greater part of the whole line from Halifax to Riviere du Loup is made and making, and that the 188 miles to be made would be easy work.

The most direct intercolonial line would be from Riviere du Loup to Halifax via the greater part of the length of the Riviere du Loup and Woodstock line, then striking across New Brunswick via Boisville, direct to a junction with the existing line from Moncton to St. John.

Section 5 prescribes the organization of the infantry to be the same as the first ten regiments, but companies to have only 48 privates, making about 85,000, and may be increased to 95,000, if necessary.

Accounts from Fort Monro of Jan. 15, say that in consequence of an anticipated effort to rescue Jeff. Davis, orders were received from the War Department to discharge all employees in the various government departments in this district.

The Fenian quarrel appears to have been brought to an end—a fact for which we have no doubt, the public will not feel ungrateful.

LATE FROM THE STATES.

NOB-INTERCOURSE WITH GREAT BRITAIN.

In the United States Senate on Tuesday, a resolution introduced by Mr. Chandler, of Michigan, to withdraw the American Minister from London, and have no intercourse with Great Britain, was tabled by a vote of 25 to 12.

A Bill providing for the reorganization of the Regular Army of the United States, was unanimously reported from the Military Committee of the Senate.

Section 1st provides that the army shall hereafter consist of 5 regiments of artillery of 9,000 men, 12 regiments of cavalry of 12,000 men, and 55 regiments of infantry of 35,000 men, to be known as the Army of the United States.

By section 4 the 55 infantry regiments are to consist of the 10 regiments of 10 companies, each now in service. The remaining 45 regiments will be made into twenty-seven, by adding two companies to each battalion with the same provision respecting officers.

The cavalry regiments, except that they are to be taken from the infantry cavalry, there are to be 10 regiments of colored men, and 8 of disabled men, or men discharged by disability, the officers to be taken from the officers of colored troops, the Veteran Reserve Corps, and other officers of volunteers.

Section 5 prescribes the organization of the infantry to be the same as the first ten regiments, but companies to have only 48 privates, making about 85,000, and may be increased to 95,000, if necessary.

Accounts from Fort Monro of Jan. 15, say that in consequence of an anticipated effort to rescue Jeff. Davis, orders were received from the War Department to discharge all employees in the various government departments in this district.

calls for prompt military organization, and that it promises active and efficient work instead of words. He deems that he has any side issues, as his ultimate objective point is, and ever will be, Ireland.

The officers under him, he pledges, will be trustworthy soldiers, who have added to scientific and theoretical knowledge the experience which can only be acquired on the field of battle.

CATHERINE WRIGHT, Executor. Charlottetown, Sept. 28, 1864.

St. Dunstan's College.

Under the Patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of Charlottetown.

THIS INSTITUTION is situated on the Princeton Road, a quiet and healthy, and far removed from the distractions and moral dangers of the city.

The College is visited regularly once a week by a Physician, who prescribes the necessary medicine, and is also taught.

The College possesses a large and well selected Library, as well as an extensive Philosophical Apparatus.

The Professors and Teachers reside in the Institution, forming but one family with the students, and exercising a constant supervision favorable to discipline, decorum and good morals.

Catholic students are carefully and frequently instructed in their holy religion, which they are required to practice.

The most solicitous attention is paid to the morals of all; and whilst within the College enclosure, they are constantly under the watchful eye of one of the Teachers, or Professors. Perfect discipline is strictly but kindly enforced.

Students when entering must produce satisfactory testimonials of good character.

The College is visited regularly once a week by a Physician.

TERMS: Board and Tuition, $5 0 0; Use of Library, 0 1 0; Physician's Fee, 0 1 0.

Try to get to be made half-yearly advance.

The College furnishes breadstuffs and mattresses; the students must provide their own beds and bedding, brushes, towels, &c.

The Scholastic year commences on the first Wednesday in September and ends about the middle of July. Students are requested to enter the College on the first day of the opening of the classes.

For further particulars apply to A. McDONALD, St. Dunstan's College, Aug. 16, 1865.

ALL CURS MADE EASY! HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts, and Old Wounds.

No description of wound, sore or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst use a remedy assumes a healthy appearance whenever this medicine is applied; sound flesh springs up from the bottom of the wound, inflammation of the surrounding skin is arrested, and a complete and permanent cure quickly follows the use of the Ointment.

Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammation.

These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferer themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighboring parts, when all obnoxious matter must be removed. A poultice of bread and water may sometimes be applied at bed time with advantage; the most scrupulous cleanliness must be observed. If those who read this paragraph will bring under the notice of such a service that will not be far gone in, as a cure is certain.

Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia.

Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subduing pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depression from the system, subdue and remove all enlargement of the veins, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted. A cure may always be effected, even under the worst circumstances, if the use of these medicines be persevered in.

Scalds, Head, Ringworm, and other Skin Diseases.

After treatment with warm water, the utmost relief and speediest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints affecting the skin and joints, by the simultaneous use of the Ointment and Pills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depravity of the blood and derangement of the liver and stomach, consequently, in many cases, it is requisite to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Pills. The general health will readily be improved, although the eruption may be driven out more freely than before, and which should be promoted; perseverance is necessary.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsey, Mumps, and all other Derangements of the Throat.

On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed upon the throat, and a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so that it may penetrate the glands, as salt is forced into meat; this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.

Scrofula or King's Evil and Swelling of the Glands.

This class of cases may be cured by Holloway's purifying Pills and Ointment, as their double action of purifying the blood and strengthening the system renders them more effectual than any other remedy for all complaints of a scrofulous nature. As the blood is impure, liver, stomach and bowels, being much deranged, require purifying medicine to bring about a cure.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following manner:

Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts, and Old Wounds.
