DROWNED IN EAGLE LAKE

Sad Fatality Wednesday in Which Westfield Man Lost His Life.

Word reached the city last evening to the effect that Wm. B. Duplissea, of Westfield, was drowned Wednesday afternoon in Eagle lake. The body was recovered. The young man, with his dog, had evidently attempted to cross the lake on the ice, and had fallen through. When found, his arm was clasped around the dog's neck. Eagle lake is about ten miles back of Westfield and lies in the direction of Musquash.

The story is a very sad one. Duplissea, who is Mr. Prime's storekeeper in the woods, had started on his round of the camps. He left the store to go to Tebo's camp and on the way called at Mullin's camp. Mr. Mullin advised him not to cross the lake but he thought it safe and made the attempt. He should have reached Tebo's about noon on Wednesday but when some time had passed and there was no sign of him a searching party went out.

The first dread sign encountered was Mr. Duplissea's cap lying on he ice where it is thought he threw it as a guide to his friends when he found he was doomed to die. Nearby was an open space where the ice for some fourteen feet had been broken in the battle for life. In ten feet of water the body was found and the man's arm was around the big collie which had gone to death with him, no doubt giving his life in effort to save his master. Mr. Duplissea's watch had stopped at 2.15.

Word of the finding of the body was sent to Westfield, reaching there Thursday morning. Mr. Prime went to console the bereaved parents and sent men to join the searching party and have the body brought to Westfield. This was done last night and the sight was most pathetic. Fuly 200 men had gathered and joined in the sorrowful escort, there being hardly a dry eye in the company, for Mr. Duplissea was a general favorite.

Mr. Prime, speaking to a reporter, said the case is the saddest in his experience. He spoke highly of the deceased, all liked him and he was his parent's ideal.

Mr. Duplissea is survived by his wife and one baby girl. He was married only about two yedrs, his wife being Florence Whelpley, daughter of Alfred Whelpley, of Carter's Point. The first news of the fatality to reach St. John came from Mrs. Duplissea to her brother-in-law, Thomas Brown, of High street, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Duplissea being sisters.

The young man is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duplissea, of Westfield, two brothers and several sisters. One brother resides in Westfield and another is living in Carleton. Mrs. Robert Humphreys, of Westfield; Mrs. Lingley, of Nerepis, and Mrs. Steeves, who resides in the States, are sisters of deceased.

The funeral will be held Saturday or Sunday.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION

Executive Met Yesterday and Decided to Advertise in Maine Central Magazine.

The executive of the Tourist Association met in special session yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of conferring with C. E. Beane, of Portland (Me.), who controls the Maine Central Magazine, a journal largely devoted to advertising the fish and game resources of the state and neighboring districts.

Before next spring, there will be three important exhibitions of interest to sportsmen, held in Boston and New York, and in these Mr. Beane is interested. The first will be in Boston during the latter part of this month and early part of January; the second will be an automobile exhibit to be held in the same city a month or so later, and in March there will be a sportsman's show held in New York.

Mr. Beane pointed out that the publication he represents will be distributed at each of these exhibitions, and urged upon the executive the desirability of placing before the United States public the splendid attractions this province can offer to tourist, hunter or angler.

The executive decided, after brief consideration, to place with Mr. Beane an order for advertising in the magazine. The full order will consist of three half-page advertisements, and will be made up principally of illustrations. There will be one half page appearing in the magazine issued during the month of the first show in Boston, another half-page the next month, and another the following.

Mr. Beane has also been interviewing the local government and I. C. R. concerning their sending an exhibit to the Sportsman's Show, which will open in Boston on Christmas day. Speaking on the subject he said that the provincial government and I. C. R. had finally decided not to send an exhibit to the show and that he was of the opinion that they were making a mistake in so deciding. He said that although the government were not going to send an exhibit that the St. John Tourist Association were giving their support to the fair and would do all in their power to assist. Mr. Beane left last night for Boston and said that he was returning there to be at the showing tomorrow of the New Brunswick pictures there.

W. F. MITCHELL IS IN TROUBLE

Well-Known Bicycle Traveller Arrested in Hamilton---He was a "High Roller" Here.

Hamilton, Ont. Dec. 7—Word has been received here of the arrest in New York of Wm. F. Mitchell, whose disappearance from here in '99 caused a sensation. There was an old warrant for Mitchell's arrest issued at the instance of L. C. Laishley, Toronto, at that time manager of the Gould Bicycle Company, and an attempt will likely be made to bring Mitchell back. The man came here from New Brunswick, leaving his wife at St. John, and was made local manager of the Gould Bicycle Company. One morning the safe was found rifled and nearly a thousand dollars missing, while Mitchell had disappeared. Before leaving, Mitchell, it is said, gave Dr. Rosebung a bogus check for $200 for a diamond ring, and is also alleged to have trimmed several jewellers and merchants. He was heavily in debt when he left New Brunswick and was a thousand dollars behind while manager at Guelph. Mitchell was a "high roller" while here, and when he left took with him a telephone girl, who was infatuated with him, although she knew he had a wife in New Brunswick. Mitchell formerly came from London.

The passenger engines are of the same type as the big Pacific locomotive now in use on some of the through trains, while the freight engines are of the compound type, similar to those now in use on freight trains.
