AN ANCIENT TOAST

It was a grand day in the chivalric times, the wine circled around the board in a noble hall and the sculptured walls rang with sentiment and song. The lady of each knightly heart was pledged by name, and many a syllable significant of love and had been uttered, until it came to St. Leon's turn, when he took the sparkling cup on high and said:

"I drink to one," he said,
"Whose image never may depart
Deep graven on a grateful heart
Till memory is dead.

"To one whose love for me still
When lighter passions long passed,
So holy 'tis, and true;
To one whose love has longer
More deeply fixed, more keenly
Than any pledged by you!"

Each guest upstarted at the word
And laid a hand upon his sword
With fiery flashing eye;
And Stanley said, "We crave the name,
Proud knight, of this most dame
Whose love you count so high

St. Leon paused, as if he would Not breathe her name in careless
Thus lightly to another,
Then bent his noble head as
To give that name the reverence
And gently said, "My Mother

A TERRIBLE POWDER EXPLOSION—MANY LIVES LOST.

Details have just been received in the City of Mexico of a terrific powder explosion at Mazatlan. The explosion occurred in the Government magazines, in which were stored several tons of powder, and was caused by the carelessness of the guards detailed at the magazine. The building was situated in the center of the town. The explosion completely destroyed the magazine, and destroyed many houses in the immediate vicinity, besides doing considerable damage to others and killing a large number of people. Immediately after the explosion soldiers and citizens went to work to recover the bodies of those known to have been killed in the ruins. Seventy have been recovered, among them Francisco Pena, the judge. The number of killed and wounded is not yet known, many bodies are said to be buired under the ruins.

THE UNKINDEST CUT.

The elder Lord Lytton was peculiarly happy in returning a compliment. When he met a certain occasion the novelist Thackeray, the latter said, "I will pardon me for the unpleasant things I have written about you in Frazer." "I will pardon me," replied Lord Lytton, "for never having read them."
