Rossley's New Troupe Opening Sept. 8.

The Marcus Minstrel Maids, twelve in number, are making good and playing to record business. The company are all picked performers, and will suit all tastes. Zita, the real Gypsy violinist, is a wonder, and at every theatre she is greeted with storms of applause. Marie Girad, seven years with Barnum and Bailey's Circus, is an acrobatic dancer of high order; Al. Fox, a Western Cowboy, rope spinner and the best buck and wing dancer before the public to-day; Alice Melvin, late of Geo. M. Cohan production, "the talk of New York"; Dare Harris, of Harris & Nelson Minstrels, black face comedian; Mike Sacks, Hebrew comedian one of the best known New York Comedians. The well known Beatrice Miller is the Musical Director for the show. Then there is the big scenery, special electrical effects, gorgeous costumes. They will produce "The Maid and the Moon," "The Girl," "Prince Humbug," "Merry Widow," "Blue Bird" and many others. Clean refined and artistic musical productions throughout.

The Hot Summer.

It was the blandest summer that ever brought a blight; July, it was a hummer, and August was a fright. For weary weeks together we wished that death would come, and all men cussed the weather who were not deaf and dumb. And people left their couches when broke the morning gray, with large three-cornered grouches that stuck to them all day; men's hides broke out in blisters, they ran amuck with knives, and brothers pinched their sisters, and husbands beat their wives. The temper of the people was ruined, and they roared; and higher than a steeple the mercury still soared. We drank no end of water, and swiped electric fans, and each man plied his swatter till flies were also rans. With calomel and senna each doped, to cool his frame; and hotter than Gehenna the sun kept up its game. But now, farewell to sorrow, and tears and sweaty grief! September, with her breezes which have in frost been rolled, inducing coughs and sneezes, and symptoms of a cold! September, sweet and cooling, with solace in her wings! So let us quit our drooling of heat and kindred things.

Minimise The Loss.

Practically farmers may easily minimise the loss, due to a backward and cold season, by the judicious use of Sulphate of Ammonia as a fertilizer.

Sulphate of Ammonia contains over 20 per cent of nitrogen, as against 15 per cent in Nitrate of Soda, and is therefore more than 25 per cent better than nitrate of soda as a means of quickening and increasing the growth of crops.

The use of Sulphate of Ammonia has increased enormously of late years and it is recognized to be the most valuable fertilizer obtainable. By its judicious use the production of root crops per acre may be doubled, and the growth of late crops stimulated.

We invite the attention of Farmers to our special pamphlet on the best methods of using Sulphate, copies of which will be forwarded free to any address on application.

The price of Sulphate is moderate and our terms are accommodating.

S.S. Picnic at Thorburn

For four years no Sunday School Picnic has been held in the "Thorburn Mission," a small settlement about three miles this side of Broad Cove. This year, thanks to the energy of the lay-reader, Mr. Richard Hiscock, of St. John's, a most successful and enjoyable picnic was held last Wednesday, August 27th. At noon the children, parents and friends, numbering about eighty, assembled in the little school chapel, where a short service was held with an address. Then with flags waving and voices cheering, the march was made to the picnic grounds and a lunch served before the races, games and sports began. There were prizes in plenty for all, and the youngsters, never weary, put in such an afternoon of enjoyment as seldom falls to their lot. Rev. A. C. Stamp came on the scene during the afternoon and was charmed with the surroundings and all the arrangements. That important item "tea" was commenced about half past four, and the lay-reader, and his assistants, were kept busy for the next hour, responding to the shouts of tea! tea! that everyone was satisfied from the beautiful supply of cake, etc. that had been provided. Rev. Mr. Stamp then addressed the gathering, paying a due need of praise to Mr. Hiscock for his energy in bringing the event to such a successful issue.

Games were resumed till, tired but happy, the children dispersed at eight o'clock, after giving three cheers for Mr. Stamp and Mr. Hiscock. Mr. Si Tucker's gramophone enlivened the day with many selections, while Mrs. Hookey, the Misses Hookey, and the Misses Tucker and Mr. Snowdon Pike assisted materially in making the day one to be remember in Thorburn. It was such a fine day that many friends from Broad Cove walked in to join the festive throng and enjoy the outing.

The lay-reader, is grateful to all those who supplied cakes and those who by cash and other donations made the event possible.

We have no doubt that the people of Thorburn feel greatly indebted to Mr. Hiscock for arranging and giving the children such a day of enjoyment and hope that in the future no gear will without a similar gathering.

C.C.C. BOAT CLUB.—A meeting to finalize the past season's work and to discuss matters in connection with next year's programme, will be held in the Mechanics' Hall on Monday evening at 8.30 o'clock.

Tickets for the Odd Fellows Outing may be procured from members of the Committee. Only $1.30 for train fare, supper and dance. Enjoy the last half holiday at the Octagon.—aug28,4i

House Burnt Down Yesterday Afternoon.

Fire broke out in a house occupied by a family named Aspell, at the North Battery, at 3.45 yesterday afternoon and in less than five minutes not a stick was left standing. The exact origin of the fire is unknown, though it is said, was caused by an inmate, who was lying in bed smoking his pipe, letting a spark fall. The bed clothes ignited and soon the dwelling was in a blaze. Mrs. Aspell and daughter ran to the street and acquainted a young man named Tilley, who sent in an alarm from box 12, bringing the Central and East End Fire Companies to the scene. When they arrived the fire, which was aided by a strong wind, was raging furiously and the house was burned down with all its contents. In case the fire would spread, however, the chemical was used and prevented a house nearby, occupied by a family named Halley, from catching. The fire has left the Aspell people homeless and destitute. In fact before the fire they were living in abject poverty. Mrs. Aspell's daughter is a consumptive and yesterday, through the efforts of Supt. Grimes, was removed to the General Hospital. The kind-hearted Superintendent also interested himself in the girl's mother, who was given lodgings at the police station last night and likely admitted to the Poor Asylum to-day.

Neglect, Utter Neglect!

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—It is about time that we of this section of Hr. Main should make a strenuous effort to secure something in the nature of decent bridges. We fear to drive over them but how much more do the number of strangers who visit the beautiful shores of Conception Bay in the summer time? Not alone are people from St. John's being attracted to this part of the country in ever increasing numbers, but tourists the past two years are flocking round. They come in autos mostly but they fear to pass the bridges most of which are in a state of collapse. Worse still, our own hardy toil-worn fishermen and farmers fear to go over those bridges with any kind of heavy load on their horses. It certainly seems to me that neglect after neglect has been our portion on this shore since the Tories came into power. But their power is now gone and a new condition of affairs will soon be inaugurated. Better treatment by far was accorded us under the Good Old Liberal Government, and it will not be the fault of the people of this shore if it is not soon restored to the position which is its by right.

Yours truly,
LONG POND.

Want Sir Robert.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—We are anxious to hear of Sir Robert Bond coming out as a leader of the Liberal Party, and trust he will send us a good truthful man. We do not want liars. If false promises and underhanded work are any good we should have enough of it now on the West Coast.

Here are a few falsehoods made by slippery Downey to the electors of St. George's which appeared on cards with Mr. Downey's face on one side about the size of the full moon, and carrying these promises on his back:

1. Encouragement of the winter herring fishery.
2. Construction of a main line from Lark Harbor to Middle Arm, via Benoit's Cove, Bay of Islands; ferry on the Humber and Summerside.
3. Gasolene Ferries, etc.
4. Up-to-date Bay steamers.
5. Cable to Wood's Island.
6. Up-to-date Agricultural Policy and Land Bonus.
7. Cold Storage.
8. Construction of main line and bridges.
9. Re-building Breakwater at Sandy Point.
10. New road from St. George's to Stephenville Crossing with Bridge across main cut.
11. Branch line of railway to Port au Port.
12. Breakwater at Port au Port.
13. Lighthouses.
14.—Telegraph and Telephone extensions.

And after all this pledging himself to work shoulder to shoulder with the representatives of St. Barbe and Burgeo Districts.

I don't think those gentlemen would have much to do with such a man. We don't hear of so many letters of abuse going through the district just now as has been the first part of the summer with (O.H.M.S.) across them. He may be busy just now preparing for to get another car load of scrub rams from Sydney. I think the best thing E. P. Morris can do with him is send him for another dredge. Eleven hundred dollars pays well for a trip to England, and he should be reminded to load her up with bulls when she is coming out to Newfoundland, as there are a few more opponents who have no bulls yet.

Yours truly,
WEST COAST.

MERCANTILE FOOTBALL.—An interesting football match was played last night on St. George's Field between teams representing Knowling's and the Royal Stores. After a hard struggle the later proved victorious. The score being: Royal Stores, 2; Knowling's, 1. Referee, Mr. James Donnelly.

Is This Law, Justice or Tyranny?

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir, — Policemen and sergeants have been known to do queer things in this town since the Prohibition Act was put in force here, but one of the funniest is the experience of Mrs. Thomas Tobin, of Bannerman Street, who keeps a small shop and sells spruce and hop beer directly opposite the police barracks, Bannerman Street. Mrs. Tobin has been selling the beer there for several years. She has never been charged with selling strong drink, and never sold any. Her husband is working on the railway, and on Sunday night last she with her three children, retired to bed about 9.20. At 11 o'clock she was aroused by loud knocking at her door, and on going to the window she recognized a police officer. She was told to open the door. Fearing her husband had met possibly his death through some accident, she hastened to don sufficient clothes to come down stairs to the door, but before she could do so, and within three minutes of the first knock, another loud rapping hurried her. She now felt sure there was bad news awaiting her, and she became almost too unnerved to be able to open the door. When she did so she was surprised to see Head Constable Joseph Sheppard and two policemen enter her house and Sheppard asked to be shown the cellar. On being informed that she had no cellar or hiding place he asked for a bottle of beer, and he was given a bottle of spruce beer, which he took with him, to send it to St. John's to have it analyzed. They then left Mrs. Tobin in a very weak state from the fright she received. Half an hour after, or about 11.30 Mrs. Tobin was compelled to send her little boy for the doctor, and he came at once and prescribed for her. He called again on Monday morning.

Now the question arises, is this law, and is Sheppard, who is paid to protect the weak amongst us, allowed to knock at a house this way after all lights are out, and perhaps frighten the very life out of a lone female.

What has Inspector General Sullivan to say of such action?

If this thing is permitted the sooner Harbor Grace is locked up and Sheppard given the key, the better for all concerned.

No person would object to him asking for a bottle of beer for analyzing purposes, but he should go at a proper hour to get it, as if it was good at that hour it certainly would be better by morning.

Had there been a crime committed and there were fears of the perpetrator making good his escape, there might be some justification for this act, but under the circumstances I can see none whatever.

I would ask Inspector General Sullivan to investigate this matter, and if possible avoid a recurrence of what appears to our citizens as tyranny rather than law.

I am, dear sir,
Yours sincerely,
FAIR PLAY.

Harbor Grace, Aug. 28, 1913.

Attacked and Beaten.

Jim Smart, a noted wrestler, was attacked by two young men and badly served, although if the stranger let out he might have killed both with the one blow. Constable Tobin summoned Smart's aggressors. The case was postponed and meanwhile the plaintiff left town. To-day the defendants, who have been in court before for similar offences, appeared before Judge Knight, who in summing up the evidence commented strongly on the rowdyism of the defendants and severely reprimanded them for their conduct.
