

NEWS BY THE ENGLISH MAIL.

(From the European Times.)
The secret negotiations which are going on between the Courts of Vienna and Berlin and St. Petersburg...

We have official accounts that the English vessels have captured the batteries at the Salina mouth of the Danube...

A SKIRMISH IN THE BALTIC.
The following admirable letter, has been addressed by one of our seamen now serving in the Baltic fleet to his wife...

"My dear Wife.—Having just come safe out of action for the first time, I cannot better relieve my mind than by writing to you, for whilst I thank God for his mercies, I seem to want some more friends than those that are now around me...

A DEAD LOCK.
Contrary to the expectation in which we indulged a week ago, the events of most recent occurrence in the progress of the war instead of producing something in the shape of a decisive battle, appear to have brought matters to a "dead lock."

policy of the great Powers of the West. Thus, for the moment, everything appears to be at a standstill.
The withdrawal of the fleet from Cronstadt is, in the first place, accounted for by the unfortunate appearance of an enemy, whose fleet and more formidable than any that Russia could oppose to it...

My Aunt Chloe and sisters, I now leave this world to yourselves, which I hope you will enjoy. Don't think of me, only that I have gone with my companions to rest and to meet my Father. I hope here are my rings and his in my trunk...

VIENNA, July 30.—Prince Daniel of Montenegro has dispersed some rioters who took possession of a convent. The ringleaders fled, the main body of the mob, however, remained in the convent...

THE FRENCH BALTIC TROOPS.
A letter from Kiel of the 15th, in a Berlin newspaper, says—"Persons ordinarily well informed state that the French expeditionary army of the Baltic will disembark provisionally in the island of Seeland, and that Denmark will shortly abandon her neutrality."

THE SPANISH INSURRECTION.
PARIS, July 30.—According to advices from St. Sebastian of the 18th, the inhabitants of the town and all the garrisons have pronounced for the movement, and General Ignacio Gurrut has taken command of the place...

From late American Papers.
SUICIDE OF TWO PERSONS IN EAST ALBINGTON.
A suicide, attended with circumstances of a singular character, occurred this morning in East Albington, the particulars of which, as we learn, are as follows...

seen of them alive, so far as is yet known. About five o'clock this morning, Mr. John Sears, who tends Reed's mill, in East Albington discovered a human skull, which has since been found to be that of Isaac P. Nash...

Mr. Sears, upon discovering these things, went at once to the mill pond, and soon discovered the bodies of Mr. Nash and Miss Sampson in about seven or eight feet of water...

Private letters from St. John, N. B. dated on Thursday last, state that the city is undergoing an awful scourge from the cholera. All the workmen have quitted the shipyards in the neighbourhood, and business is almost completely suspended...

THE BALTIC FLEET.
DANZIG, July 30.—The Nicolai list arrived here this morning. She left Baro sound with Sir Charles Napier and the French fleet on the 18th. The fleet went to the Aland Islands.

THE SPANISH INSURRECTION.
PARIS, July 30.—According to advices from St. Sebastian of the 18th, the inhabitants of the town and all the garrisons have pronounced for the movement, and General Ignacio Gurrut has taken command of the place...

From late American Papers.
SUICIDE OF TWO PERSONS IN EAST ALBINGTON.
A suicide, attended with circumstances of a singular character, occurred this morning in East Albington, the particulars of which, as we learn, are as follows...

rendering the possession of it precarious when attained.
Admiral Napier has withdrawn his force from its position before Cronstadt. Two reasons have been advanced for this movement...

Mr. Sears, upon discovering these things, went at once to the mill pond, and soon discovered the bodies of Mr. Nash and Miss Sampson in about seven or eight feet of water...

Private letters from St. John, N. B. dated on Thursday last, state that the city is undergoing an awful scourge from the cholera. All the workmen have quitted the shipyards in the neighbourhood, and business is almost completely suspended...

THE BALTIC FLEET.
DANZIG, July 30.—The Nicolai list arrived here this morning. She left Baro sound with Sir Charles Napier and the French fleet on the 18th. The fleet went to the Aland Islands.

THE SPANISH INSURRECTION.
PARIS, July 30.—According to advices from St. Sebastian of the 18th, the inhabitants of the town and all the garrisons have pronounced for the movement, and General Ignacio Gurrut has taken command of the place...

From late American Papers.
SUICIDE OF TWO PERSONS IN EAST ALBINGTON.
A suicide, attended with circumstances of a singular character, occurred this morning in East Albington, the particulars of which, as we learn, are as follows...

rendering the possession of it precarious when attained.
Admiral Napier has withdrawn his force from its position before Cronstadt. Two reasons have been advanced for this movement...

Mr. Sears, upon discovering these things, went at once to the mill pond, and soon discovered the bodies of Mr. Nash and Miss Sampson in about seven or eight feet of water...

Private letters from St. John, N. B. dated on Thursday last, state that the city is undergoing an awful scourge from the cholera. All the workmen have quitted the shipyards in the neighbourhood, and business is almost completely suspended...

THE BALTIC FLEET.
DANZIG, July 30.—The Nicolai list arrived here this morning. She left Baro sound with Sir Charles Napier and the French fleet on the 18th. The fleet went to the Aland Islands.

THE SPANISH INSURRECTION.
PARIS, July 30.—According to advices from St. Sebastian of the 18th, the inhabitants of the town and all the garrisons have pronounced for the movement, and General Ignacio Gurrut has taken command of the place...

From late American Papers.
SUICIDE OF TWO PERSONS IN EAST ALBINGTON.
A suicide, attended with circumstances of a singular character, occurred this morning in East Albington, the particulars of which, as we learn, are as follows...

Having established an and myself for Queen's Council Election last year, I am desirous to do so again, and I am desirous to do so again, and I am desirous to do so again...

To His Excellency the List. Governor.
My dear Sir:
The period has arrived to accept the resignation of my office as a member of the Council, which I have the honor to do so...

On the 1st August, at 5 o'clock, by the Rev. Mr. J. M. Hall, &c., &c.
The Rev. Mr. J. M. Hall, &c., &c.
The Rev. Mr. J. M. Hall, &c., &c.

W. Webb, Esq.
A. Sims, Esq.
J. H. H. Esq.

W. Webb, Esq.
A. Sims, Esq.
J. H. H. Esq.

W. Webb, Esq.
A. Sims, Esq.
J. H. H. Esq.

Various small notices and advertisements including names like W. Webb, A. Sims, and J. H. H.