MUSIC AND DRAMA.

In Mr. Ben Greet's production of Shakespeare's woodland plays, the great virtue is that the "play is the thing," and there is nothing to distract attention from the work of the performers and the action of the play. Among the plays in which Mr. Greet will be seen here is "Twelfth Night," in which he takes the part of Malvolio, the pompous steward, who imagines that his mistress is in love with him. Equal pleasure is given whether the woodland plays are seen in the afternoon or in the evening. Mr. Ben Greet and his company of woodland players will appear here in the beautiful grounds of the Western University on Friday afternoon, June 2, in "Twelfth Night," and on Saturday evening, in "The Comedy of Errors."

The Chesapeake, famous for her encounter with the British ship Shannon, in the war of 1812, is still in existence. When she was captured by the British she was taken to England by Sir Philip Brooke, and her timbers were sold. The purchaser was a miller in Wickham, and when he pulled down his old mill he built a new one from the timbers of the Chesapeake.

DISASTROUS FIRE AT BRUSSELS, ONT.

Several Big Buildings Totally Destroyed at Loss of $35,000.

Brussels, Ont., May 25.—Probably one of the most disastrous conflagrations in the history of this town occurred this afternoon. Shortly after 3 o'clock dense volumes of smoke were seen issuing from the stables of the Queen's Hotel. An alarm was sent in immediately, and the brigade was prompt in arriving on the scene.

The water pressure, however, proved inadequate, and valuable time was lost before a line of hose was laid to the spot. A strong southwest wind added to the fury of the fire, the main street being in imminent danger. Fortunately the wind veered southward and the danger to the business portion was averted.

The flames crossed the street to Walter's livery stable and adjoining buildings, thence in a northerly direction towards the Maitland River. Several buildings were totally destroyed, including the stables of the American Hotel, Peter Scott's blacksmith shop, P. Adams' agricultural implements, and Ross' grist mill and adjacent buildings. The electric light power house was badly scorched.

The wind by this time had increased in velocity, large pieces of burning timber being carried across the Maitland River, and the large carriage factory of J. C. Cober & Son, with its contents, was entirely consumed. The fire had burned itself out, and was subdued at this point.

Wingham and Listowel fire brigades arrived about 5 o'clock, and did heroic work. Loss estimated at about $35,000; insurance unknown.

The fire is supposed to have originated from the overturning of a tinsmith's lamp, with which the man was soldering gavestroughs on the Queen's Hotel stables.

COURTS UPHOLD PRESIDENT SHEA

Head of Striking Teamsters Is Not Guilty of Contempt.

Chicago, May 25.—Cornelius Shea, president of the International Teamsters' Union, today was upheld by John Kohlsaat, of the federal court, in his refusal to answer questions before Master in Chancery Sherman, which might tend to incriminate him. Shea is now under indictment in the criminal court.

In the same decision the court ruled that Bernard Mulligan, president of the Express Drivers' Union, and John Donohue, of the same union, had refused to answer questions which could not in any way connect them with any criminal proceedings, and they were there in contempt of court. He sentenced both men to jail, but allowed them to remain in nominal custody in the hands of United States Marshal Ames for five days in order that their attorneys may perfect a review on habeas corpus proceedings before another federal judge.

The strike did not spread to any great extent today, and there was little disorder. Several lumber firms made a few deliveries. For the first time since the strike began many coal wagons, handled by colored teamsters, passed through the down town streets without police protection. None of them were molested. The large State street stores also made deliveries, and no trouble was experienced.

Mayor Dunne and Chief of Police O'Neill did not meet with the response expected when they called for 12,000 volunteers for additional policemen. About 100 men responded, and 75 of these proved acceptable. In the lumber yards several concerns refused police protection, saying that it was not possible for them to make deliveries unless their wagons were guarded by soldiers.

There is tonight no apparent prospect in any direction of a settlement of the strike. The express companies refuse to recede in the slightest degree from their declaration that none of their former men will be re-employed.

S. A. CAPTAIN DROWNED

Leader of the Harmonica Evangelists Perishes in the Ottawa.

Ottawa, May 25.—Staff-Capt. Arthur C. Perry, of the Salvation Army, was drowned in the Ottawa River at Rockcliffe today while in swimming, and up to a late hour tonight the body had not been recovered. He came to Ottawa on May 2, as leader of the harmonica evangelists, and today insisted on going for a swim. The Ottawa seemed to have a fascination for him. He was accompanied by Capt. Aldford, who did not go in. It is probable that the staff-captain was seized with cramps. While in he commented on the enjoyment, and swam around a bend and was seen no more. He made no outcry. The Ottawa's water is ice cold at present, owing to the northern waters coming down. Deceased was 36 years old, and leaves a widow, who is in the city. He belonged to Yarmouth, N. S.

LONDON BEAT 'EM ALL

The Grand Did the Biggest Holiday Business on the Small Circuit.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, May 25.—"London beat them all yesterday," said Mr. A. J. Small this evening, referring to the holiday audiences at the various theaters controlled by him throughout the province.

"The receipts from the two audiences which saw "The Fatal Wedding" were bigger than those at the Grand and Majestic here, or at the Hamilton, Kingston or Ottawa theaters. Allowing for the difference in the prices, the houses at London were better than those at the Princess Theater. London is certainly a good show town."
