CHICAGO GRAIN PIT GOES INTO FRENZY

Prices Plunge Downward on False Report, But Partial Recovery Follows.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—False reports that Germany had already signed an armistice brought about a savage whipsaw market today in the corn trade. After prices had plunged downward about 6c a bushel, a violent upturn ensued, and the close was wild, 3½c net lower to 1⅞c advance, with December $1.21¼ to $1.22, and January $1.23¼ to $1.24. Oats finished unchanged to ¼c lower. The outcome in provisions was an advance ranging from 10c to $2.50.

Before the armistice canard put the corn market into a whirl, prices had reacted moderately from yesterday's sensational advance, and were steadying, while evidence was awaited that a genuine basis existed for current talk that grain exports would soon be greatly enlarged. Suddenly a big selling drive developed, and word went around that the armistice had actually been signed. Especially for small dealers, there was no chance to stop for enquiry, and many holdings had to be sacrificed on the rapid descent of values. The lack of any confirmation of the armistice signing finally became too apparent, tho, for even the most radical bears, and the result was a complete change of sentiment. As the session came to an end, prices shot straight for the zenith. Severe losses to traders, therefore, resulted, both on the break and the subsequent tumultuous advance. During the earlier part of the hubbub peace enthusiasts indulged in a premature celebration, and added to the confusion by propelling grain samples and flags over and among the hundreds of excited brokers in the pits.

Oats swayed with corn, but within a narrower range.

Provisions were relatively inactive and closed at the topmost quotations reached on the over-hasty peace bulge.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Montreal, Nov. 7.—There was little or no disposition on the part of local dealers to trade after the noon hour, in fact most of the grain houses closed up for the balance of the day, and prices were nominally unchanged, with car lots of American sample corn quoted at $1.40 to $1.50 per bushel ex-store as to quality.

A large amount of business was done in flour during the afternoon, but the balance of the day the market was of a holiday character.

Flour—New standard grade, $11.30 to $11.40.
