The Presidential Election.

As our readers are ere this aware the presidential election, which took place on the 8th inst., resulted in a sweeping victory for the domocratic party, and the triumphant election of ex-president Cleveland. The republican party has received such a defeat as it will not recover from in a quarter of a century. Not only did Cleveland carry the usual democratic states and nearly all the doubtful ones, but some four or five other states which have never returned democratic electors since the war, will this year give their electoral votes for Cleveland. It was a regular Waterloo, a landslide, for president Harrison. In fact he wasn't "in it" at all.

This overwhelming defeat of the republican party can be attributed to but one cause. The people have risen in rebellion against the McKinley tariff. Two years ago, soon after the tariff was revised, the republican party was overwhelmingly defeated in the state elections; but this result was attributed to misrepresentation and misunderstanding of the McKinley bill. The sober, second thought of the people, would lead to a different result, its friends claimed. Two years have elapsed, and now the sober second thought of the people has been given, and it is more emphatic than the first verdict. The people of the United States have pronounced against Mr. McKinley and his tariff, and will have none of it.

We do not wonder at this result. The old tariff was high enough in all conscience. It averaged about 47 per cent. or over double that of the dominion. It was enacted during the civil war, as a war tax, and justified at that time by the urgent necessities of the nation. Now, thirty years after, when the nation was at peace, when there was no urgent necessity for an increase of revenue, when in fact there was an annual surplus of nearly one hundred million dollars, the McKinley bill was forced through Congress, raising the tariff to an average of over 63 per cent. Such an act deserves to bring defeat to its promoters, as it seems like one of extreme folly. As the democrats appear to have gained control of a sufficient number of state legislatures to ensure them a majority in the Senate, we confidently expect such a readjustment of their tariff at an early day as will be to the mutual advantage of both the United States and Canada.

New Newspaper Law.

At the last session of the legislature an act was passed which makes some little change in the relationship hitherto existing between newspaper publishers and their subscribers. Under the old law the publisher could send out his paper to any one he chose, and if they were taken out of the post office by the person to whom they were addressed, the person so taking them could be held responsible for payment. This is now changed. The new law is as follows:—

"No person shall be liable to pay any sum for any newspaper, magazine, or other periodical sent by post to any such person by reason only of the fact that such person has taken such newspaper, magazine or other periodical so sent by post from any post office or way office, and kept the same."

Under this act a person cannot be compelled to pay for a paper unless he has ordered or subscribed for it. Having once done this the publisher can continue sending it and collect payment until all arrearages are paid and a proper notice of discontinuance is received.

The Czar's Gold.

It is reported from Europe that the Czar of Russia is accumulating vast quantities of gold, and the newspapers are getting up quite a scare by declaring that this movement on his part can have but one object, that of war in the not distant future. Some newspaper men with fertile imaginations have even declared that it is India he is after, and they have pointed out just when and where he will begin the attack. Might it not be that these men are all wrong, and that the Czar's intentions are much more peaceable and, in fact, commendable. He knows that there is a cold winter coming on, and that it takes a whole lot of corned beef, cabbage, oatmeal and Minard's Liniment to run a family like his through the winter. So his czarship it may be, is making provision for it. We don't blame the Czar one bit for hoarding up gold. We have long had serious ideas of doing the same thing ourselves, only—well we can't get hold of the gold to heard up.

Municipal Elections.

Voters in the Municipal Elections which came off yesterday could not have wished for or enjoyed any finer weather. The atmosphere was clear and mild, and the bright rays of the sun created a warmth almost equal to that of any of our beautiful September days. The roads were fairly passable, thus affording the aged and those living quite a distance from the polling-booths every advantage they could reasonably expect in depositing ballots for their choice of candidates.

In this Ward the day passed by very quietly, and had it not been for the strong representation from the shore districts, there was nothing out of the ordinary occurrences to attract the attention of our residents. The opposition offered Councillor Vidlto by Mr. T. A. Balcom received no attention whatever, as will be seen by the results given below.

From what we can learn, however, a strong fight was made in some of the Wards, and where was conceded a large majority to some of the contestants, the same has been materially reduced.

Oddfellowship.

A lodge of this order was instituted in this town on Wednesday evening, 9th inst., by D.D.G.M., R. J. Uniacke, Esq., of Annapolis, he doing the work for the Grand Master, who was unavoidably absent. Past Grand Master Edwards and Grand Representative Weatherspoon were also present. There were in all about one hundred present from different parts of the province. "Western Star" and "Guiding Star" sent large delegations, and Berwick Lodge sent a fine looking lot of young men to do the degree work which was done in first-class style, their beautiful paraphernalia showing to good advantage. The special from Annapolis arrived about half-past seven, when the work was immediately proceeded with. About midnight the lodge took recess for an hour in order to partake of a turkey supper that had been prepared for the visitors at the house of Mr. N. E. Chute, and it is sufficient to say that it was prepared in Mrs. Chute's best style, and the visitors were loud in their praise of that which was placed before them and the cordial way in which they were entertained. Returning to the Court House, the work was concluded at an early hour.

"Crescent, No. 63"—for such is the name by which the lodge is to be known—begins with a membership of 31, and there are few lodges in this jurisdiction that have been organized with a more promising future, as those composing it are among the best of our young men. The following officers were elected and installed:—

R. Allen Crowe, N.G.; Harry J. Crowe, V.G; O. T. Daniels, R. S.; O. S. Miller, P.S.; Hugh Fowler, Treas.; Rev. J. B. Giles, Chap.; B. D. Neily, Warden; N. E. Chute, Con.; Henry Morris, I.G.; Thos. Dearness, O.G.; G. H. Dixon, R.S.N.G., Henry Shaw, L.S.N.G.; Arthur Morse, R.S.V.G.; Wm. E. Reed, L.S.V.G.; A. E. Sulis, R.S.Sup.; E. Forsythe, L.S.Sup.

The lodge is to meet for the present on Thursday evening.

Wedding Bells.

HART—DYKEMAN.

Queensbury New Brunswick, will long remember Thanksgiving day of 1892 as the day of the most brilliant wedding that has been witnessed in that part of the county for many years. The snowstorm in the afternoon made the day disagreeable outside, but this did not deter the invited guests from assembling at the residence of G. W. Dykeman, Esq., in Lower Queensbury, to witness the marriage of his only daughter, Minnie Blanche, to J. William Hart, eldest son of the Rev. J. R. Hart, of Bridgetown, N. S., but now of the Ottawa experimental farm. There were over eighty guests present at the ceremony, which took place at 4.30 in the afternoon. Rev. B. H. Nobles of Gibson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lepage, officiated, while F. St. John Bliss of Fredericton did the honors for the groom, and Miss Georgie Mott, daughter of Dr. Mott of Prince William, acted as bridesmaid, and little Elsie Vanwart was maid of honor. The bride was attired in a handsome costume of cream crepon with souris and cheffein trimmings, and orange blossoms and veil, and carried an exquisit bouquet of chrysanthmums and maiden hair ferns. The bridesmaid, Miss Mott, had a costume of cream crepon, with trimmings to match that of the bride, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and smilax. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served and thence till midnight the spacious residence of Mr. Dykeman resounded with music and merriment. Mr. and Mrs. Hart left this morning by the noon train on their bridal trip. Mr. Hart will assume charge of the Sussex creamery after the first of the year and will be located there during the winter. There was a numerous array of bridal presents, both costly and handsome.

MCNAIR—CLANCY.

A quiet home wedding occurred at 54 Appleton Street, Boston, on November 3rd, the contracting parties being Miss Mina S. McNair, formerly of Springfield, and Mr. William A. Clancy, a native of Liverpool, N. S. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony, but during the evening an informal reception was held and a wedding lunch served. The room was tastefully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. Many beautiful and useful presents were received, showing the high estimation in which the young couple were held. Mr. and Mrs. Clancy will make their future home at 54 Appleton Street, where they will be at home after November 10th.

Platform Temperance Meeting.

On Sunday evening, Nov. 13th, a meeting was held in the Baptist Church in the interests of temperance. The programme was a very interesting one, and the rendering of it was very acceptable to the large audience present. The meeting was conducted by our popular temperance worker, Mr. W. A. Craig, P.W.P. of Olive Branch Division. The Rev. J. L. M. Young, B.A., B.D., gave a very amusing as well as practical address on the reason why christian temperance men and women should not use cider, beer or kindred drinks. O. S. Miller, Esq., B.A., read an excellent paper on the history of the temperance movement, which was well worthy of the writer and the occasion. Mr. A. D. Brown spoke forcibly on the efficacy of prayer in connection with temperance work. A. F. Newcombe spoke of the Church as the true temperance society. Recitations were delivered by Misses M. Fash, Winnie Morse, Gertie Young, and Master Max Newcombe. All these recitations bore directly upon some phase of the temperance work and were well received. Especial mention may properly be made of the recitation by Winnie Morse, entitled "The Bridal Cup," which was given in a very attractive manner and delighted the audience.

The singing formed an intresting feature of the service. The quartette, composed of Mrs. F. M. Young, Miss Edith Quirk, Mr. Steadman Newcombe, and Mr. F. V. Young, rendered two very appropriate and attractive selections entitled "The Temperance Ship" and "The Temperance Battle Song." The meeting was an encouraging success, and augurs well, we hope, for the future temperance work in our town.

Thanksgiving Day.

One of the stormiest and most disagreeable days of the fall season was that of Thursday last—Thanksgiving Day. At an early hour in the morning snow began falling quite heavily and continued to do so until about eleven o'clock when it was followed by a cold hail storm of short duration. Towards evening the temperature somewhat moderated and rain fell in torrents for several hours. Business places were all closed, and the day passed by in a quiet and peaceable manner.

The entertainment given by the ladies of St. James' church at Victoria Hall in the evening was slimly attended, though, all things considered, the receipts were satisfactory, some $27 being realized.

Rev. Dr. Sutherland, general secretary of the Methodist Missionary Society, delivered an interesting address on mission work in Providence church in the evening. The subject was treated in an eloquent and able manner, and was much enjoyed by those whose pleasure it was to be present.

Promotions and Appointments.

A late number of the Canada Gazette contains the following:

69th "1st Annapolis" Batallion of Infantry, N. S.—No. 2 Company, Paradise.—To be 2nd Lieutenant: Sergeant James Eugene Morse, R.S.I., (1st B), vice Milledge Rice, who retires from the service. No. 7 Company, Paradise.—To be 2nd Lieutenant: Sergeant Allister Daniels, R.S.I., (1st. B.), vice William Buckler, who retires from the service.

72nd "2nd Annapolis" Battalion of Infantry, N. S.—No. 3 Company, Wilmot.—To be Lieutenant: 2nd Lieutenant Murray Stanley Elliott, R. S. I., from No. 4 Company, vice Levi Gates, who is permitted to retire, retaining rank.

Annapolis Votes Incorporation.

The poll held at Annapolis on Monday last to decide the question of incorporation resulted in a majority of twenty-eight in favor of the act. The logical articles from the able pen of County Court Judge Savary have doubtless, in a great measure, brought about this result. A number of our principal towns are now incorporated, and though the act has many opponents, wherever it has been put into effect, the result has, in most cases, proved satisfactory.

The friends who accompanied the body had not the funds to carry it through to Cape Breton, and by permission it was interred in the cemetery there.

DROWNED.—Alfred Grant, of Weymouth, while on a trip as mate of the schr. Grace Rice from the West Indies to that port, was knocked overboard and drowned. The deceased leaves a widow and family. Strange to say Grant's three brothers were all drowned at sea, he being the fourth and last of the family to perish in such manner.

FLOURISHING YARMOUTH.—It may be interesting to note, says the Yarmouth Times, that there are only five cities in Canada where the amount of people's savings on deposit exceeds that in Yarmouth, the order being: St. John, Halifax, Charlottetown, Victoria, B. C., Winnipeg. Yarmouth, with Toronto and many other places coming in after.

They were cleaned off George's Island.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—Arthur Jefferson, son of Mr. Stephen Jefferson, while attempting to eject a cartridge from an old revolver last Saturday evening, managed to discharge one of the loaded chambers, the ball passing into the hand and running along the fleshy part of the fore-arm. —Mr. John H. Baird, a widely known and respected member of the firm of Baird & Peters, grocers, St. John, died quite unexpectedly in that city last week. The business will be continued by Mr. Peters under the old name and at the same stand.

—An interesting article on the many advantages of brick in constructing buildings, from the pen of John Ervin, Esq., taken from the Brickbuilder, appears on our fourth page, and is well worthy the careful perusal of all readers.

—A. W. Hayden, one of the greatest hustlers on the road at the present time, and representing the Canada Paper Company of Montreal, has been calling on his many friends and patrons in the valley during the past few days.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.—Dunn & Russell report twenty-six Canadian failures for past seven days and thirty-eight for the corresponding week last year. Bradstreets report fourteen Canadian failures this week and thirty for the corresponding week last year.

PROPERTY TRANSFER.—Mr. Chas. Poole has recently purchased from Mrs. J. C. Troop her well-known property on Granville street and has already taken possession. Mrs. Troop and family will, for the winter months, occupy a portion of Mr. Charles Parker's house on Queen street.

A FINE CALENDAR.—The Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance company has issued its calendar for 1893. The card is neat and handsome and has this advantage over other calendars, that it is arranged to suit the maritime provinces. The design is by the general agent, W. M. Jarvis, and the work was done by J. & A. McMillan.

—The jury in the "graveyard insurance" case at St. John, last Wednesday brought in a verdict of guilty against C. B. Welton and Dr. Randall on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Total Abstinence Life Association of Chicago and the Golden Rule Alliance of Boston. In regard to case of the Rev. Sydney Welton the jury disagreed.

—We somewhat regret our inability to furnish our readers with a report of the meeting of The Valley Telephone Company which came off on Friday evening and Saturday morning last, and which we feel confident will be looked for by stockholders and others interested. The absence of the report, however, is no fault of ours, as we relied on the promise of the secretary of the company for the same,—a promise yet unfulfilled.

—The schr. Genius, Capt. Apt, arrived at Annapolis on Wednesday last with one hundred and sixty-five tons of ground bone, etc., for the new fertilizer factory of Mr. G. C. Miller which has lately been constructed at Middleton. The last of this large quantity went forward to its destination over the W. & A. Railway yesterday morning. The Genius was towed to this port on Tuesday by the tug Pinafore where she will load cordwood for Boston.

—Late apple quotations from across the water are very unsatisfactory to the shippers. In quite a number of instances the growers have been called upon for small amounts to cover expenses, the fruit not realizing enough to do so. The St. John market is fairly steady, extra grades bringing from $1.75 to $2.00 per barrel. Later English advices, however, are somewhat better, and quote Nova Scotia, Kings 12s. to 17s.; Baldwins, 12s. to 16s.; Greenings 12s. to 15s. For choice lots of Kings 20s. to 25s. have been paid.

SPEEDY TRIALS ACT.—We hear that there is a likelihood of John Brent alias Brenton, the Montreal-Truro-Yarmouth printer and tramp,—who was arrested a short time ago suspected of being an accomplice in the many daring robberies and safe explosions which have occurred along the valley,—being arraigned in the near future under the Speedy Trials Act. Although it may be impossible to secure such evidence at the time as to convict the accused, the general opinion of the public is that he at least knows much more about the safe robbery at Granville Ferry than he would like made public. The whole chain of evidence as far as obtained, outside of his unwillingness to prove where he spent the Saturday night and Sunday and the Sunday night following, is of itself sufficient to warrant most any one in saying that there is something crooked about the fellow. One thing, however, is certain, and that is that since Mr. Brent has been spending his leisure time at Annapolis, there has been an absence of burglaries throughout this section of the country,—a source of relief our citizens have not enjoyed for some months past.

Card of Thanks.

The parents of the late Mr. W. H. Sancton desire to express their heartfelt gratitude to his and their friends for kindness received during his illness.

The Murderer of Grant.

San Francisco, November 14.—The second trial of Maurice Sterlinger, better known as M. B. Curtis, the actor (Sam'l of Posen), charged with killing Policeman Alexander Grant, of Nova Scotia, in September, 1891, while resisting arrest, began to-day. In the former trial the jury disagreed.

Five Years in Dorchester.

Albert A. Dodge, the I. C. R. freight cashier, charged with embezzlement of about $4,000, was brought before Judge Peters under the speedy trials act at St. John last Saturday afternoon and on pleading guilty was sentenced to five years in penitentiary. The money found in Dodge's boarding house was ordered to be returned to the government.
