Strained Relations

Exist here between price and quality. Price is a firm believer in humility, while quality prides itself in greatness. Indeed, so serious is the difference that they are scarcely on speaking terms. And no wonder, when we make a first-class Business Suit or Silk-lined Overcoat, that you have been accustomed to pay other tailors $22 to $27 for, for..... $15

FAVORITES AT GRAVESEND WON 5 RACES, TRACK HEAVY

Merry Lark, Top Weight, Beat Cairngorm in Hindoo Stakes—Louisville Results.

New York, Sept. 21.—Merry Lark, second choice, easily captured the Hindoo Stakes at Gravesend to-day. Despite the fact that this mount was carrying topweight, Davis sent Cairngorm, the favorite, out to make the pace, with Chrysolite second and Merry Lark third. This order was maintained for about one mile, when O'Neil sent Merry Lark into second place, about one and a half lengths behind Cairngorm. In the stretch O'Neil let Merry Lark down and soon was in front and came away an easy winner by two lengths. Cairngorm was 20 lengths before Chrysolite. Five public choices finished in front, while one second choice won. The track was heavy. Summary:

RECORDS AND M. J. DALY GO AT WOODBINE PARK

New Marks by Claude, C. B. Campbell and Irish Witch—Bad Day for Favorites.

THE WINNERS.

1 John H. Kirby.....8—1
2 Come on Sam.....20—1
3 Claude.....2—5
4 C. B. Campbell.....6—1
5 Lord Radnor.....11—5
6 Irish Witch.....7—1
7 Caper Sauce.....5—1

More records and good-bye to M. J. Daly were the features of a fine Thursday afternoon at Woodbine Park. As a farewell performance Claude won the seven furlongs race in 1.26 3-4, which is 2 1-4 seconds better than the old record for the track. At 5 1-2 furlongs C. B. Campbell also reduced the time by three-quarters of a second. Then Irish Witch did the 1 1-8 miles in 1.53¾, which is 1 1-2 seconds better than any previous feat at Woodbine.

Mr. Daly was informed that further entries from him will henceforth be refused, tho he may start Claude in the stake on Saturday.

Claude and Lord Radnor were the only winning favorites. Of the other winners J. H. Kirby, C. B. Campbell and Caper Sauce were third choices, Irish Witch at 7 to 1, and Come on Sam, a rank outsider. Of the beaten favorites Bonnie Re gand Vincitides finished second, and Jillett, Wire In and Pride of Galore outside the money.

In the first race Sampan went away flying, and opened up a gap. At the bend the favorite, Bonnie Reg, took command, and looked an easy winner, when John H. Kirby shot out of the bunch and won easily. Bonnie Reg beat Sampan two lengths. The favorite was pounded.

The long shot, Come on Sam, won the two-year-old event in commanding style. His price was 20 to 1, but he had few supporters. Jillette, the heavily-backed favorite, was slow to begin. Come on Sam got away running, set all the pace, and something in reserve for the stretch. Miss Anxious, the second choice, tired chasing the winner, and Daring, finished fast, beat her out of second money by two lengths.

Claude had a lump under his girth for a new record. He broke in front, but Daly let Don Domo set the pace for five furlongs. In the stretch run there was nothing to it but Claude. Norbury finished fast, and beat the grey horse a head for the place. The others could never get up.

Another favorite went down in the fourth, when C. B. Campbell beat Vincitides in Woodbine record time in the run thru the stretch. Vincitides was the pacemaker, closely attended by Termagant until the last sixteenth, when C. B. Campbell challenged, and the favorite dropped back beaten. Termagant was an easy third.

The steeplechase resulted in five of the seven coming to grief or refusing, leaving Lord Radnor and Zeriba alone to finish. They alternated in the lead, and then Radnor went to the front for an easy victory. The winner and Opuntia carried the coin. Wellington J. was played at long odds.

Irish Witch shot out at flag fall for the Pheasant Plate and never was headed, the result being a new record. Her return to life surprised both stable and public. Elliott and Wyfield drove home for the place. The second horse and Wire In were most supported, the favorite's poor form being as noticeable as the winner's speed.

Caper Sauce looked beaten rounding into the stretch for the last race, but came strong on end and beat Elliott by a half length. Norway support did not keep his price from extending to 5's at post time. Blue Grouse was third a couple of lengths away, the rest being strung out. Pride of Galore started favorite, but her Fort Erie speed failed her.

Jockey Obert was fined $25 for running Big Mac into the fence in the first race.

The following announcement of the result of the inquiry into the running of Claude was given out yesterday by Secretary Fraser:

At a meeting of the board held today (Thursday) the secretary was instructed to refuse all entries made by M. J. Daly for the remainder of this meeting, dating from to-day.

While the O.J.C. committee is to be heartily commended for its efforts to provide clean racing at Woodbine Park, his many friends in Toronto will think that M. J. Daly has been made the scapegoat for considerable in-and-out running just as bad as Claude's.
