Mrs. David Magee and family were warmly welcomed home last week after having spent the past five months in St. John.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. James McMurray, president of the Loving Helpers' Mission Band, entertained the mothers and friends of the children very delightfully at her home. A programme appropriate to the David Livingstone centennial was given by the members, all of whom did their part well. Ice cream and cake was served, and words of appreciation spoken. The band is in a very flourishing condition, doing good work. A cradle roll has been added, with several members. Mrs. McMurray had charge of the exercises. Mrs. McFadzen presided at the piano and Miss Hattie McMurray assisted with the "map" work and gave a reading.

Mrs. John H. Thomson returned home from Boston on Saturday and has had as guests her little granddaughters, Misses Betty Thomson and Ruth Harrison, of St. John.

A largely attended and very successful entertainment was given in the Presbyterian hall last evening by the Social Club, which is closing the season's meetings this month. A programme of songs and recitations was much enjoyed. A very attractive candy table decorated with red and white was patronized by all. A "mystery bag" made fun for many. Refreshments were served, and a very pleasant evening closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King. The committee appointed was Misses Jean Atwell, Clara and Ada Steeves, who were loyally supported by all the members.

Mr. Horace Longley is home from a trip to Halifax.

Wood, Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Allison, Mrs. A. W. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McKenzie, Mr. and Miss Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Copp, Miss Isla Fawcett, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss Marjorie Smith (Moncton), Miss Lou Ford, Miss Beatrice Fraser, Miss Marjorie Bates, Miss Helen Christie (Amherst), Mr. B. C. Rayworth, Mr. Percy Black (Amherst), Mr. R. Trites, Mr. W. T. Wood, Mr. Falconer, Mr. W. J. Heans and Mr. Pethick.

Mr. J. F. Falconer, who for some time has been accountant in the Royal Bank here, has been transferred to Moncton and leaves today for his new field of labor. He has been succeeded here by Mr. E. S. Reid, of Charlottetown but recently of North Sydney. The departure of Mr. Falconer from Sackville will occasion much regret. He has been popular with the customers of the bank, has been a success socially and has made many friends whose good wishes will follow him to the railway city.

Mr. Dwight Pickard received a telegram from Vancouver on Sunday morning informing him of the death in New York of Mr. Harry Sprague, eldest son of Capt. and Mrs. Sprague, of Vancouver, formerly of Sackville. The telegram gave no particulars other than to state that Mr. Sprague had died and that Capt. and Mrs. Sprague, accompanied by their son, Dr. William Sprague, who has been in poor health, were on their way by steamer from San Francisco to Vancouver and were expected to arrive any hour. Deceased leaves a wife, who was formerly Miss Milligan, of Shediac, and two children. He was an electrician and has been in robust health. His parents and one brother, Dr. C. W. Sprague, formerly of Sackville, survive. Mr. Sprague is well known in Westmorland county, where he has many friends to whom the news of his death will come as a shock.

Mrs. W. B. Fawcett entertained a number of her lady friends very pleasantly Saturday evening at a turkey supper. Among those present were Mrs. Bliss Anderson, Mrs. L. Anderson, Mrs. Bates, Mrs. E. M. Copp, Mrs. James Rainnie, Mrs. Silas Copp, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. A. B. Copp, Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. Lee Dixon, Mrs. H. Pickard, Mrs. John Humphrey, Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Mrs. Fawcett, Mrs. E. The Monday Club met at the home of Mrs. F. J. Allison.

One of the very best concerts ever given in Sackville was the recital in the Charles Fawcett Memorial hall last Friday night by Misses Mary L. P. Smith and Lucia Fydell, assisted by Miss Janet Crowhurst, members of the staff of Mount Allison Conservatory of Music. Unfortunately the attendance was not as large from the town as it should have been. The people of the town are greatly favored in being able to attend recitals of so high a class as that given Friday night, and it is almost regrettable that more of our citizens do not avail themselves of the opportunity afforded them. The work of the three performers was exceptionally fine and elicited much appreciative applause. The blending of the voices of Misses Smith and Fydell in duetts was beautiful, while the vocal and piano solos by the three artists was markedly good. In fact, the concert was one that could be given in any large city anywhere with the certainty of its being well received and largely patronized.

One of the most delightful parties of the week was at the home of Mrs. A. H. McCready on Saturday evening, when the members of the public school staff were the guests of the Sackville W. C. T. U. Among others invited to meet the teachers were Dr. Baker, Miss Curtis and Mr. J. M. Palmer, of Mount Allison; the pastors of the various churches, and the members of the school committee in the Woman's Council. A short programme was carried out. Mrs. Humphrey gave a brief sketch of the Sackville union, more especially of its early days, showing that scientific temperance instruction in the public schools is the direct result of the active interest of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Sprague was introduced as the provincial president. She reviewed the efforts made by the society for the enlightenment of the youth of our day. Mr. James M. Palmer expressed the belief that ninety per cent. of boys and young men fail in their school work and college work, because of the cigarette habit.

Mrs. W. Simpson, who has been spending the winter in Sackville, left last Saturday for Point de Chene.

Mrs. Bell, of Newcastle, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Copp, left today for home.

The funeral of Captain William Milner was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late residence on Squire street, and was largely attended. Impressive service were conducted by Rev. C. F. Wiggins, of St. Paul's church, of which deceased was a member. The church choir sympathetically rendered the hymns Nearer My God to Thee and Lead Kindly Light. The pallbearers were Captain B. J. McHaffey, J. E. Hicky, Fred. Harris, Frank Harris, A. M. Avard and J. L. Dixon. The sympathy of many friends was expressed by beautiful floral offerings. Interment took place in the Rural cemetery. Of the five daughters of deceased, all were present at the funeral except Mrs. Oliver P. Wakeland, of Los Angeles (Cal.) Mrs. Charles Outhouse, of Halifax, a half-brother, was also present.

Mr. H. M. Wood is on a business trip to Boston.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, April 9—Amateur entertainments have taken the interest of society this week. On Thursday evening last the St. Steuhen Dramatic Club presented in the St. Croix Opera House, Calais, Olivet Goldsmith's comedy in five acts, She Stoops to Conquer. It was given under the direction of Rev. E. B. Wyllie, of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Miss Louise Purves and also under the patronage of the Chipman Memorial Hospital. The play was finely staged and the performers were greeted with a large audience composed of the elite of the St. Croix towns. Those who took part were Messrs. E. W. Ward, Ernest Hewes, H. Clements, H. R. Jones, H. N. Ganong, Joseph Whitely, Ralph McNeill, Jack Waterson, Glenn Nicholson, Wallace Murray, Miss Lelia McVay, Miss Marion Murray, Miss Margaret McWha, and Miss Muriel Grimmer.

Mrs. William Dinsmore gave a very delightful bridge party last Friday evening for the pleasure of her daughter, Miss Bessie Dinsmore, and her young friends. The prizes were won by Miss Elsie Sullivan and Mr. Earle Gardner. After the prizes were awarded there was some music and a dainty supper was served. The guests were Misses Margaret Murchie, Muriel Todd, Alice Hannah, Marion Murray, Pauline Clarke, Marjorie Baskin, Elsie Sullivan, Leila Murchie, Kathleen Hill, Vera Murchie, Doris Clarke, Marguerite McIninch, Myrtle Ganong, Glenna Dinsmore, Dorothy Nason, Helen Ryder, Lelia Grant, Roberta Grimmer, Messrs. Randolph, Jewett, Harry Murchie, Howe Grant, Harold McLean, Paul Lord, James Inches, Earle Gardner, Roy Sadler, Leon Harper, Gates Murchie, Abner McAllister, Hugh Jones, Harry Burton, Evans Hill, Charles Ryder and James Douglas.

The play, Scenes in the Union Station, which was given by some fifty young society people from both St. Croix towns, in the St. Croix Opera House on Tuesday evening, under the patronage of the Golf Club, was most amusing, and greatly enjoyed by the large audience which filled the house. The play was more than two hours long and the performers were bright and enthusiastic throughout the whole play. There was only one scene arranged as the inside of a station. There were several local jokes and witticisms that elicited peals of laughter from the audience and kept them in sympathy with the performers and in high good humor. The play was under the direction of Miss Harriette Harris, of Weymouth (Mass.), who was ably assisted by ladies on both sides of the river, who are ardent devotees of golf.
