Then four men in a row made hits, but the fifth allowed a double play. At no other season did Syracuse have any chance at scoring until the 9th inning, when two hits netted one run. Score:

At Rochester: In deep contrast to the game put up by the Bronchos on Wednesday, they played and won the first of the series with the Dooleyites. Morse officiated for the home club and was well supported. Duggleby was great for the visitors, and the same is true of his backers. The features outside of the superb pitching put up by both men, was the fielding of Lush, who virtually saved the game, capturing a long hit after a terrific run while the bases were full, thus retiring the side. Torontos Home Monday.

The Torontos will come home on Monday for a three-game series with Montreal at Hanlan's Point. The easterners and the locals are the bitterest rivals and the three games will doubtless be among the best of the season. Sutthoff is home getting in shape for the first game, which he will pitch. Wednesday night both teams go to Montreal and play a series. The next championship game at home will be the following Tuesday. The next day, Aug. 2, the Washington National Leaguers will play at the Point. This game will be of especial interest to Torontonians, as it will mark the reappearance of a number of celebrated graduates from the Eastern League, among whom are Dan McGann, the greatest of first basemen; Buck Freeman, the heaviest hitter in the business and champion home-run batter of the world, and J. Jimmy Slagle, the fastest and most sensational outfielder of a decade. Frank Bonner, Willie Dineen, Dick Padden, Charlie Atherton, Jack O'Brien, Jack Barry and other well-known players are also with the Senators. There has been such a demand for seats for the Washington game the management has placed tickets on sale at the town office, 10 West King-street.

At the park arrangements were perfect and the events were most interesting. The scores were as follows:

CAN'T RULE PLAYER OFF FOR MATCH

Referee Chittick Made Mistake and Capitals Lose Their Victory Over Nationals.

Montreal, July 20.—At a meeting of the Senior Lacrosse League here to-day it was decided not to allow the protest entered by Cornwall against the Nationals, but the protest entered by the Nationals against the Capitals was maintained on a majority vote of the delegates, the representatives of the Nationals, Quebec and Toronto voting in favor of it. The question of maintaining the protest turned on the point whether Referee Chittick of Ottawa had the right to rule Wells, one of the National players, off for the match. The Nationals claimed that he had not such right, and that he could only rule a man off for the game. Mr. Chittick was present at the meeting and explained that when he ruled Wells off for fouling, Wells had assaulted him and used grossly insulting language, on which he ruled him off for the remainder of the match. Mr. Chittick thought his action should be upheld by the league, as it was not fair that referees should be subjected to such abuse. The National representative pointed out, however, that Mr. Chittick's action was against the rule. The vote resulted in the Nationals' protest being maintained, and the match will be played off at a date to be arranged between the clubs.

Lacrosse Points.

F. T. D., Aurora—There is no record of a Seaforth-Orillia match being played July 7.
