The travelling dairy in charge of S. L. Peters and W. W. Hubbard, will be at Upper Gagetown Tuesday, at Upper Maugerville, Wednesday, at Lincoln, Thursday, and at Burton court house, Friday. Meetings at 2 and 7 p.m.

On Wednesday City Marshal Roberts arrested George Young, an employe of the Gibson cotton mill, for robbing the store of C. I. Keith, at Havelock, Kings county, some months ago, and the prisoner was taken to Kings county for trial.

Many regrets will be expressed when it is known that Rev. J. DeW. Cowie purposes returning to California, in the course of three or four weeks. Both he and Mrs. Cowie have made a large circle of friends during their residence in Fredericton.

Capt. Hemming, now of the R. R. C. I., London, Ont., is here making arrangements for the removal of his family to their new home. Fredericton is sorry to lose Capt. Hemming and his estimable wife, and many good wishes will follow them.

Among the visitors here over Sunday was R. T. Babbitt, of Gagetown, who brought up nearly five hundred applications of persons desirous of getting their names on the Queens electoral list. Mr. Babbitt says that every one will be a good liberal voter.

A St. John young man on a shooting expedition to Geary, Sunbury county, accidentally discharged the contents of his gun into the horse of a man named Carr, who was driving the hunter, and the latter has laid information before Magistrate Gillmat, Waasis.

Blair is prosecuting for the Crown and Crocket's counsel are E. LeLeod and A. B. Connell of Woodstock. The grand jury found a true bill against Crocket Tuesday, and the trial commenced yesterday.

The Kingsclear Fair.

The annual fair of the Kingsclear agricultural society took place on the society's grounds at Kingsclear on Wednesday. The attendance was small in comparison with former years, owing no doubt to the bad state of the weather. The exhibits, with the exception of roots and grain, were hardly up to the average, but the display of the latter was exceptionally fine. John McKay had on exhibition twelve turnips that heaped a lime cask and weighed over 260 pounds. The display of apples was also very good, some splendid varieties of fall and winter fruit being shown. The exhibit of dairy produce was hardly up to the standing which the district is capable of producing, and the judges appeared to have no trouble in awarding the prizes. The display of fancy work, flowers, domestic manufacture, etc., was very fine. The pulling ing match, to test the mettle of the draft horses, was quite exciting, but Thomas Murray's handsome team of grays appeared to have a walk over. The judges were:

Grain and roots — Thomas Colter, Patrick Lucy, George Currie.

Horticulture and dairy produce — B. A. Everett, Wilmot Guiou, Mrs. J. W. McCready,

Domestic Manufacture — Edmond Ashford, Mrs. John Kilburn, Mrs. John Gilman.

Fancy work and flowers — John Gilman, Miss Ferguson (St. John).

Horses — Benjamin Kilburn, John Kilburn, Henry Close.

Cattle, sheep and swine — Warden McKeen, Spencer Inch.

A Great Orator Coming.

Mr. Fenety's enterprise in securing T. D. Sullivan, the celebrated Irish M. P., to lecture in this city Nov. 7th, will doubtless be rewarded with a full house. Mr. Sullivan is one of the most eminent of living Irishman, and is said to be second only to Gladstone in the liberal ranks in the power of his oratory. He has long filled a large place in the Irish parliamentary party, has served as Lord Mayor of Dublin, is a journalist and poet of reputation, and has suffered imprisonment for his outspoken advocacy of Ireland's cause. His visit to America has no political significance whatever, but during his stay he will lecture on literary and historical subjects in many of the leading cities.

Crownland Sale.

Twelve berths of crown lands were sold at public auction at the crown land office Wednesday. Nine of them went to the applicants at the upset price, $8 per mile. There was some lively competition on the other three. F. B. Coleman, of this city, who applied for a 4½ mile berth on the Miramichi, was compelled to pay $56.50 per mile for it. A six mile berth on the Restigouche, which was applied for by R. T. Blair, was bid in by F. Stancliffe, of Montreal, for $53.50 per mile, while Mr. Blair paid $30.50 per mile for a 4½ mile berth in the same locality, which was applied for by Jas. H. Moore.

C. F. Maloney, who says he hails from Bangor, hired a team from W. F. Glidden, of Woodstock, last week, to go up river, but he came down river instead, arousing Glidden's suspicions that all was not right. He wired to City Marshal Roberts to be on the look out for Maloney and the span of horses, and on Wednesday Roberts captured both man and team at the Springhill hotel. Maloney was lodged in jail, but on Glidden's arrival here, the prisoner declared he had no thought of making way with the property, settled the bill and was given his liberty.

The University and city football teams played their third game Wednesday afternoon, and the boys from the hill scored a victory 5 to 3. They made a goal, the result of very pretty play by Tibbitts. C. E. Neill umpired and his decisions were received without a protest. Next Friday afternoon the Sackville team play here against the University in the league series, and a lively game is anticipated. The Sackville men may also play the city team during their visit.

They were from Halifax, and they were English — British army officers, in fact, en route to the Tabusintac shooting grounds. When they were shown to their room in a Chatham hotel, one of them, with his double-barrel in his hand, remarked to the clerk — "We can get some beah, I suppose." "Oh, yes, sir," replied the clerk; "the woods are full of them. A man was chased by one on the Bartibogue road last week." The Englishman exploded.—The World, Chatham.

His Heart is Young.

(St. Andrew's Beacon.)

The Fredericton HERALD thinks that Mr. Temple is too old to be made a Senator. Though he is nearing his seventy-sixth year, Mr. Temple has given ample evidence that his heart is still young.

The West End saw mill will begin making hemlock wood next week, and parties wishing dry wood will do well to place their orders and have it promptly delivered.

"Seasonable."

The new fall jackets and the the new fur goods at Edgecombe's are attracting much attention from the ladies just now. Although the season is young yet, a great number have been sold and are giving perfect satisfaction for "fit" and style and value.

It is well known that F. B. Edgecombe leads in these departments, and is headquarters for such goods as ladies jackets, fur goods, dress goods, carpets, staple goods, etc., and right-thinking, and far-seeing people know it is to their advantage to trade there.

Haynesville.

Our young men are leaving for the woods.

Do you want to get goods that are really very cheap. If so, attend Lucy & Co's. clearance sale on Saturday next. They have an immense stock. It seems marvelous that they can sell goods at the prices quoted in their circulars. We refer to a few, viz: Men's overcoats, $4.50; men's reefers, $4.00; men's strong boots, $1.00, besides many other lines which seem to be remarkably low.

By the breaking of an axle of a car on freight train, bound from Chicago to the Eastern States, Sunday evening, 300 hogs met their death. The train was made up of 26 cars, in nine of which were 785 hogs. The axle broke on one of the front cars, the cars behind piled on the front cars, and there was a terrible slaughter. The noise from the injured and frightened animals was terrible.

Augustus W. Peters brother of Mrs. F. A. H. Steaton of this city is in the Democratic candidate for President of the New York Board of Alderman, and his opponent is John Jeroloman. The New York Sun in sizing the gentlemen up, remarks that Mr. Peters, who is a Wall street man, is known among politicians on account of his luxuriant mustachios. Mr. Jeroloman, who is a lawyer, is known among politicians by his sideboard whiskers, which are the envy of the whole east side.

There are several Cadets in the guardroom at the Royal Military College, Kingston, because they tried to put up a job on a professor. One of the class practised fainting until he had it down fine. On Wednesday he went off and a number of his comrades carried him out of his class, and restored him to consciousness. Of course the class did not resume studies that day, as the students planned it would not. It leaked out, however, that the fainting was only a sham, and the result was the ringleaders were placed under guard. Three other cadets from St. John and Halifax have been suspended from the College for having indulged in the "hazing" of the members of the recruit class.
