Critically Ill.

C. P. R. Brakeman Christopher Johnston, who on Sunday had his right leg amputated at St. Joseph's Hospital as a result of having it crushed on Good Friday at Appin, is so critically ill this afternoon that practically no hopes are held out for his recovery. Lockjaw has developed, and although Johnston's condition has shown but little change in the last 24 hours, the attending physicians fear he cannot live.

CITY HALL SALE IS HANGING FIRE

Some of the Aldermen Fear That Something Has Gone Wrong.

Some of the aldermen are becoming somewhat dubious as to the sale of the city hall. They are commencing to figure that the delay in closing the deal does not augur well for the consummation of the sale.

"It begins to look as if we can do nothing this year," Ald. Eckert said today. "We cannot possibly get out of the present building by July 1, in my judgment. It will take some time to secure new quarters and fit them up, and it certainly will take a lot of time moving. We have a lot of stuff to move, and it cannot be done in a day. The matter is in Montreal, and that looks as if there should be much delay in closing the deal, if it ever is closed."

SUFFERED THREE YEARS

Till Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury, Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes: "For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That old, reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches, and in purifing the blood. 25c a box at your druggist's. 10

NO ENGINEER WAS DECIDED ON

Committee of the City Council Could Not Reach Agreement in the Matter.

LOOKS LIKE MR. WRIGHT

Another Session Will Be Held on Friday Evening, When the Matter Will Be Again Considered.

Little headway was made last night by the special committee named by the city council to select a city engineer. The meeting was adjourned until Friday night, when another effort will be made to name a man for the position.

The four applications were tabled: S. S. Davidson, Montreal, now in Egypt; City Engineer Ferguson, of Stratford; Acting Engineer George W. Wright, London, and W. M. Wilber, of Buffalo, engineer of the New York State highway commission.

The choice of the committee was divided between Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Wright. Ald. Tancock and Ald. Ashplant thought that Mr. Ferguson would suit, while Ald. Mitchell and Ald. Saunders figured that Mr. Wright should be given the position.

Looking Outside.

When it was seen that Mr. Ferguson's name could not pass the committee, Ald. Ashplant suggested that the committee communicate with Mr. H. R. Parsons, assistant engineer of Ottawa, and ask him if he would accept the position.

"I do not think this committee should run after any person," declared Ald. Mitchell. "If this position is not worth applying for, then it is not worth having. We have no right to run after any man. It would not be fair to the men who have applied."

Ald. Tancock complained that the advertisement had not been circulated widely enough, and that it should have been inserted in the American Engineer.

"We should keep this position open to Canadians," commented Ald. Saunders. "We have plenty of good men for the place."

Ald. Saunders moved that the position be offered to Mr. Wright.

This motion was negatived.

Ald. Ashplant thought that as the mayor was not present, the meeting should adjourn for two weeks.

Wasting the Summer.

"We are not going to waste all summer looking for an engineer. We want somebody responsible in charge."

As a compromise Ald. Tancock suggested that a meeting be held on Friday evening to further consider the question.

This was agreed on and the meeting will be held that night.

Those present were: Ald. Mitchell, chairman; Ald. Saunders, Ald. Tancock, Ald. Ashplant and City Clerk Baker.

OLD BOYS WILL MEET ON THURSDAY EVENING

Big Rally Will Take Place in the City Hall.

There will be a big rally of the Old Boys' Association in the city hall on Thursday evening.

The report of the nominating committee will be submitted to the meeting for their consideration. Other matters of importance will be dealt with. President Dr. Harry R. Abbott is anxious for a large meeting, in order to give the reunion a good start.

"We have arranged the financial end of the business to our satisfaction," he stated to The Advertiser. "The council will stand behind us, and I am certain that the citizens will do the same. All we need now is the hearty co-operation of all in making this affair a great success. There is much enthusiasm behind the association at the present time, and we expect that we will make it the best ever."

CANON ABBOTT APPEARS TO BE THE CHOICE

Hamilton Paper Says He Will Likely Be the New Bishop.

Hamilton Herald. One week from today the lay and clerical delegates to the Synod of the Diocese of Niagara will meet in Christ's Church Cathedral schoolhouse to elect a bishop to succeed the late Bishop DuMoulin, and already the campaigning is quite brisk. Campaigning in an Anglican Church election is, of course, very quietly done, owing to it being prohibited. There is not supposed to be any at all, and the eight men indorsed by the clerical and lay delegates are not saying a word; but they have their friends and supporters whom they cannot control, and there is a certain amount of campaigning.

Already the process of elimination is going on and a few of the eight have been quietly, but none the less decidedly, disposed of by those who have votes.

The eight nominees for the position, whose names were announced after the meeting of the clergy, are: Dean E. J. Bidwell, Kingston; Canon Tucker, London, Ont.; Rev. Dr. Paterson-Smythe, Montreal; Canon Cody, Toronto, and the following local clergymen: Archdeacon Clark, Archdeacon Forneret, Canon H. P. Almon Abbott, Canon R. G. Sutherland.

Of that octet three of the outside men and one local man have been, to all intents and purposes, ruled out.

The outside men who will not be serious contenders when the battle of ballots is going on are Dean Bidwell and Canon Cody.

In addition to the elimination rumors that are floating about there are others, and the most persistent is that Canon Abbott is undoubtedly the most likely of the five candidates to be elevated.

He is not the choice of one party, but the general favorite with all. He is as popular with the high church faction as he is with the low church, and a man with broad views on that question is hard to find. The cathedral rector has the support of many of the clergy as well as being the undoubted choice of the laymen.

If there is one thing that counts more than another in favor of Canon Abbott it is the fact that Hamilton, and not only Hamilton but the Dominion, will lose his services if he is not voted to the See house. He is regarded as one of the most able of the Anglican ministers of Canada, and several times rich congregations in the United States have made flattering offers to the young Canadian. The latest offer from the United States was from a Cleveland congregation that was willing to pay a stipend that would stagger the local cathedral congregation.

Aching Muscles and After-Effects of Grippe

ZAM-BUK GIVES EASE.

As soon as you feel any deep-seated pain in the joints, back, crisis or elsewhere, place a liberal supply of Zam-Buk on the fingers or on the palm of the hand, and rub it well in. The penetrating power of this "embrocation-balm" is exceedingly great, and once having reached the seat of the pain, it removes it speedily. It also ends the stiffness, which is so unpleasant.

Mrs. Frances Wyatt, of 5 Gay avenue, Montreal, says: "I have found Zam-Buk most soothing and valuable in a very bad case of rheumatism, and also for stiffness of joints and muscles. I suffered long and acutely with rheumatism, and tried one ointment after another in vain. I also took medicines internally, but it remained for Zam-Buk to effect a cure. I began applying this balm wherever I felt the aches and pains of rheumatism coming on, or felt the stiffness. The result was truly wonderful. Zam-Buk seemed to penetrate to the very seat of the pains, driving them out completely, and I am now quite cured."

This case, and scores of similar cases reported to us, proves that Zam-Buk's penetrating and healing power is very great. In addition to its use as an embrocation it is a sure cure for skin diseases, such as eczema, ringworm, ulcers, blood poisoning, scalp sores, etc., and is the finest known "first aid." For piles, it is a specific. Gives certain ease. All druggists and stores, at 50 cents box, or post free from Zam-Buk Company, Toronto, for price.

Mothers should also try Zam-Buk Soap for baby's bath and for rashes, eruptions, pimples, etc., so common amongst children at this season. Shampooing with Zam-Buk beautifies and strengthens the hair.

LIFE AND DEATH OF TECUMSEH!

An Interesting Paper Read at Historical Society Meeting by Mr. Norman Gurd.

RETREAT GEN. PROCTOR

Sarnia Man Says It Was a Cowardly Act—Some History of the War of 1812.

Unusually interesting and instructive in its character was the paper which Mr. Norman Gurd, of Sarnia, read before the meeting of the London and Middlesex Historical Society on the life of Tecumseh, in the public library building last night. It was the closing meeting and attracted the largest attendance of the year.

For several years Mr. Gurd has closely studied the life and story of this great Indian chief, who did so much to preserve the integrity of the Canadian territories in the stormy days of 1812, and he has now a volume in the press which deals with the life and work of Tecumseh, and of which this paper last night was an epitome.

Tecumseh, when translated means "shooting star," and the name has a peculiar significance for the great chief, who of a sudden shot into prominence, then was suddenly killed at the battle of Moraviantown, and disappeared so that even his burial place is unknown.

Born in Ohio.

Tecumseh was born in an Ohio village of his people not far from where the present city of Springfield now stands. His rise to prominence among the councils of his tribe was facilitated by the popularity of his brother, the prophet. His father fell in a battle with the Virginians.

The displacement of the Indians was rapid and continued after the Revolutionary War. The extension of the American frontier made the valley of the Ohio bloody ground. Mr Gurd reviewed the course of history to show into what positions the Indian tribes had fallen as a result of the rivalries of the French and English.

It finally came to be a question of who should be the masters of the redmen. Tecumseh saw that affairs were rapidly shaping towards this, and he came to the decision that something more than the loose alliance of the Indians in war was necessary to resist the encroachments of the whites. He accordingly spent his early years travelling widely to the far south, the west and northwards, as far as the Red River. Everywhere he was received joyfully by the Indians, for all of the tribes could tell of injustices wreaked upon them by the white invaders. He went as a messenger of his brother, the prophet, who as the voice of the Great Spirit had brought to the Indians a new gospel and a new religion. All the Indian tribes of the north, the south, and the west were ready to unite in a great confederacy to maintain their freedom and their territories.

Battle of Tippecanoe.

In 1811 while Tecumseh was on an expedition to organize the tribes of the south, the battle of Tippecanoe was lost by the Indians, and the village of Tecumseh was destroyed. Then it was that he decided to join the British in the struggle between Canada and the United States, which he saw approaching.

In 1810 Tecumseh had met General Harrison, of the American forces, but had come to no understanding with him. Mr. Gurd very graphically described the council of the Americans and Indians on this occasion.

It so happened that the first blood shed in the war of 1812 was that of an Indian who was killed and scalped by the American invaders. Thus it was a redman who was the first to die in the defence of Canada in this struggle.

The campaign which led up to the evacuation of Fort Amherstburg and the retreat of General Proctor, was interestingly sketched by Mr. Gurd. Proctor promised Tecumseh to make a stand at McGregor's Creek, but he retreated further to Moraviantown. The speaker reviewed the conflicting stories of Tecumseh's death and burial, and also discussed the report that Tecumseh's bones had been found on St. Anne's Island last May.

Tecumseh's Death.

It has been claimed that Tecumseh was killed in a personal encounter with Colonel Johnson, the noted Kentucky soldier, and on Johnson's monument in Frankfort, Kentucky, the achievement is recorded.

It has also been said that the Americans, after the battle, mutilated the body of the dead chief and carried pieces of his skin away as mementoes, but it has been further stated that they mistook the body of another chief for that of Tecumseh.

"That the part Proctor played in fleeing from the battlefield was a cowardly act has never been questioned," said Mr. Gurd in reply to a discussion which followed his paper.

In concluding his address he drew attention to the approaching centenary of Tecumseh's death, and expressed the hope that in 1913 a worthy monument of the greatness of the great chief would be erected to Tecumseh the stranger who fell while fighting in our defence.

Vote of Thanks.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Gurd was moved by Dr. McCallum, seconded by Mr. Macklin, and carried enthusiastically by the society.

Afterwards the annual meeting of the society was held. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, A. W. Fraser, first vice-president, Capt. T. J. Murphy; second vice-president, Miss Macklin; secretary, Rev. Mr. Cox; treasurer, John Dearness; auditors, Thomas Bryant and Dr. C. F. Campbell; curator, Dr. S. Woolverton; executive, Henry Macklin, Dr. C. T. Campbell, Mrs. Buckingham, Miss Moore, and Thomas Bryant.

The treasurer's report showed the society to have the fine balance of $234. The president, vice-president and secretary were appointed delegates to the meeting of the Ontario Historical Society to be held in Brantford in June. A third volume of the papers read before the society will be issued in the near future.

Ottawa, April 25. — There is no change in the west with regard to the reciprocity situation, declared Roderick MacKenzie, secretary of the Grain Growers' Association, who returned to Ottawa this morning, after spending two weeks in the west. The agreement, he said, is indorsed by more than three-quarters of the people, but an increased preference and free agricultural implements are also discussed.
