Notwithstanding her many advantages over ordinary ships, she has made but a sorry trip of it, having been out 53 days! A vessel sailed fifteen days subsequent to her departure was first in at Quebec.—Quebec Mercury, June 26.

CONTEMPLATED LUNATIC ASYLUM.—His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, we understand, has been pleased to appoint his Worship the Mayor, S. P. Fairbanks, Esq. M. P. P., and Dr. Sawers, to make the necessary inquiries, and to collect information with reference to the establishment of a Lunatic Asylum in this Province. These gentlemen are about proceeding to the United States, to make themselves acquainted, by personal observation, with the practical working of such institutions in that country, where several of them are in operation with the most beneficial results. We wish them success in the humane mission which they are about to undertake.—Nova Scotian.

TRADE ON THE GULF SHORE.—Many of our readers have but an imperfect idea of the industry, enterprize and commercial spirit, that pervades that portion of our hardy population that dwell upon the Gulf Shore. Of Pictou we need not speak, for it is well known; but the harbours, settlements and villages farther north, are rising in importance, to an extent of which thousands in the City have but a feeble conception. Tatamagouche, Wallace and Pugwash, load several square-rigged vessels yearly, with timber for the European market; and thus the industry of the labouring classes, and the enterprise of the merchants are contributing largely to advance the general interests of the Province. At Pugwash alone, during the present year, no less than thirty vessels of the description we have named, have been loaded, and sailed for the Mother Country. Ship-building is also carried on to a considerable extent in the Gulf. We understand that no less than seven vessels are being built this season at Tatamagouche, five of which are the property of the Hon. Mr. Campbell.—Ibid.

IMPORTANT FROM TEXAS.—Acceptance of Annexation.—The United States steamship Princeton, Captain Stockton, arrived at Annapolis Roads on the 3d instant, from Galveston, whence she was despatched on the 23d ultimo, with important despatches for the United States Government. The following, from the Washington Union, is a summary of the intelligence:—

"The news brought by the Princeton is of the most interesting character. Both Houses of the Texan Congress have unanimously consented to the terms of the joint resolution of the United States. The Senate had rejected the treaty with Mexico by a unanimous vote. Captain Waggaman had arrived at Washington, Texas, to select posts to be occupied by the United States Troops, and to provide for their subsistence. A resolution was introduced into both houses of Congress, requiring the Executive to surrender all posts, navy-yards, barracks, &c. to the proper authorities of the United States. The joint resolutions are as follows:—

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Republic of Texas in Congress assembled, That the Government of Texas doth consent that the people and territory of the Republic of Texas may be erected into a new state, to be called the state of Texas, with a republican form of government, to be adopted by the people of said republic, by deputies in convention assembled, in order that the same may be admitted as one of the states of the American Union; and said consent is given on the terms, guarantees and conditions set forth in the preamble to this joint resolution.

Sec. 2. Be it further resolved, That the proclamation of the President of the republic of Texas bearing date May 5th, 1845, and the election of deputies to sit in convention at Austin on the 4th of July next, for the adoption of a constitution for the state of Texas, had in accordance therewith, hereby receive the consent of the existing government of Texas.

Sec. 3. Be it further resolved, That the President of Texas is hereby requested immediately to furnish the government of the United States, through their accredited minister near this government, with a copy of this joint resolution; also to furnish the convention, to assemble at Austin on the 4th of July next, with a copy of the same—and the same shall take effect from and after its passage.

The treaty agreed upon between Ashbel Smith and Baron Cuevas on the part of Texas and Mexico, under the sanction of the English and French ministers, contains the following conditions:—

1. Mexico consents to acknowledge the independence of Texas.

2. Texas engages that she will stipulate in the Treaty not to annex herself, or become subject, to any country whatever.

3. Limits and other arrangements to be matters of agreement in the final treaty.

4. Texas to be willing to refer the disputed points with regard to territory and other matters, to the arbitration of umpires.

Done at Washington, (on the Brazos) on the 27th of March, 1845.

(Signed) ASHBEL SMITH, Secretary of State.

Certified copy of the original presented by Capt. Elliott. (Signed) ALLEYE DE CYPRE, Mexico, 20th of May. BANKHEAD.

This treaty, with the various documents connected with it, was considered by the Texan Senate on the 21st ult., rejected unanimously, and the injunction of secrecy removed.

President Jones's Message to the two houses of Congress was transmitted on the 16th. After calling their attention to the propositions from the United States, he says—

"The Executive has much satisfaction in observing, what no doubt will forcibly arrest the attention of the Congress, that, although the terms embraced in the resolutions of the United States Congress may at first have appeared less favorable than was desirable for Texas, the very liberal and magnanimous views entertained by the President of the United States toward Texas, and the promises made through the representative of that country, in regard to the future advantages to be extended to her if she consent to the proposed union, render those terms much more acceptable than they would otherwise have been."

What promises have been made through the United States agent, we are not informed. The President then refers to the convention, which was to assemble on the 4th inst., to whom will belong the questions of annexation, and the adoption of a state constitution.

Will Mexico Declare War?—The Congress of Texas having agreed to annexation, much anxiety will now be felt as to the course of Mexico. She is bound in some measure by fidelity to her own character, to declare war. This, too, she has threatened to do more than once, in official and formal public documents, and her people are said to be ripe for such a course on the part of the Government. Mr. Shannon expresses the opinion that, willing as the present rulers of Mexico may be to announce hostilities—yet the excited spirit of the army and the people, may compel the Government to declare war. And yet such a declaration under the circumstances would amount to little or nothing, should Mexico receive no assistance, direct or indirect, from England or France. The popular mind is in a wretched condition of instability. The present rulers, it is evident, have little hold upon the affections of the people. Every thing may be said to be in a confused and uncertain state. Mexico, moreover, would have much to lose and little to gain by war. Nevertheless, great anxiety will be felt as to the decision of her Government. To do nothing, to yield tamely and quietly to the act of annexation, would make her appear spiritless and imbecile before the world. To declare war, and thus invite the seizure of California or some other similar act, would be an alternative any thing but comfortable. Her position is of the most unenviable kind. A valuable portion of her territory torn from her in the first instance by a revolution, and now transferred to a neighbouring republic.

Another portion, California, in a condition of revolt if not of independence, as relates to the Supreme Government—her leading soldier and chieftain just driven into exile,—her President the other day seized by a mob, and held for some hours a prisoner—the Camanche Indians ravaging her borders—with little national strength—no harmony in her popular mind—her aspect as a nation is indeed deplorable. Is it probable that, under these circumstances, she will declare war, or commence any act of aggression or retaliation against the United States? A few weeks longer and we shall know her decision. —Pennsylvania (Phil.) Inquirer.

The N. Y. Courier & Enquirer, alluding to annexation, says:

"With regard to what Mexico may do in consequence of Annexation, we need not have any apprehension. She has offered to acknowledge the independence of Texas if she would not unite with us. By this act she has virtually admitted her inability to conquer her, and given to all the world a quit claim of her title. We care not much what she does; but if she declares war, her Capital will soon be in our possession, never to be surrendered, as we have heretofore said, until the Californias are ceded to the United States."

WASHING AWAY OF HOUSES.—Accounts reached town yesterday that the weather continues heavy in the Parish of St Thomas in the East, and that so flooded was the river near Morant-Bay that several houses which were on its banks had been washed away. We have not heard of any lives having been lost, but there is too much reason to apprehend that if any of the houses above alluded to have been washed away, some of their inmates must have gone along with them.—Jamaica Morning Journal, June 7.
