

LOCAL NEWS.

VERY COLD.—The thermometer dropped to 35° below Wednesday night, and to 33° below Thursday night, the coldest of the season.

SPECIALS.—The Reporter was so dumbfounded by the election of Mayor Beckwith, that it couldn't give the vote in Monday's contest.

PROPERTY TRANSFER.—W H Carter, druggist, has bought Judge Fraser's late residence on St John street, and will occupy it the 1st of May.

APPOINTMENT.—The last issue of Once A Week, a New York illustrated paper, contains a portrait and biographical sketch of Governor Fraser.

NEXT WEEK.—Our country friends will be here in force next week to attend county and municipal council, both of which open on Tuesday.

ALDERMANIC.—No new candidates have appeared this week for aldermanic honors, but already contests are assured in all wards except Queens.

FOR LIVERPOOL.—The Allan steamer Numidian is to sail from Halifax on the 20th of January for Liverpool, and will call at St. Johns, Nfld, to land passengers.

FIRE.—A slight fire at E. Byron Winslow's residence, Wednesday night, called the department out, but it was extinguished without their aid, and with but slight damage.

COMING.—Prof. Saunders has accepted an invitation to take part in the convention of the Dairywomen's Association of New Brunswick, which meets in this city early in February.

SHAFBOLD'S FAVOR.—Ald. John, yesterday, Judge Luck rendered his decision in the Shaftford case, giving the child to the care of the father. It is stated the case will be appealed.

LECTURE.—Rev. G. M. Campbell of St. John, will deliver his lecture, "A Trip to the World's Fair," in the vestry of the Methodist church on Monday evening next commencing at 8 o'clock.

ESTABLISHED AT CHATHAM.—Wm Richards, the well known lumberman, has secured the business office of the Miss Wm Richards at Chatham and will make his headquarters there the coming season.

WOODSTOCK'S CHOICE.—Urial R. Hanson, fruit merchant and auctioneer, was elected mayor of Woodstock, Monday, by acclamation. Samuel Watts, of the Sentinel, was elected alderman, but his confinement of the Press, Mr. Holyoke, met with defeat.

TOWNS THE LAST.—The ward lists, which have been made up for the coming aldermanic elections, show Carleton ward to have the largest number of electors of any ward in the city, the number being 235. Queens comes next with 214 electors; St. Ann's with 200; Kings with 145 and Wellington with 115.

NEW ARRIVALS.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Edgcombe are rejoicing in the arrival of a daughter, and a blessing in the same shape has put in an appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson of St. John street. Mr. Dibble, M.P.P. for Carleton, also feels proud over the birth of another son in his household.

SCORED ST. JOHN.—The St. Andrews Beacon, in reporting the proceedings in the circuit court, says that J. A. Vanwart, Q.C., in an address to the jury, had a slip at the people of St. John, whose chief business, he declared, was in passing resolutions by their board of trade and getting them printed in the daily papers.

NO BROUGHT THERE.—The Chatham World says that Rev. George Steel, Methodist, and Rev. J. McCoy, Presbyterian, made a friendly call on the Roman Catholic bishop of Chatham on Tuesday afternoon, and were shown by his lordship over the episcopal residence and through the convent and hospital. He made the visit so pleasant for his reverend callers, and had so much to show them, that they stayed with him all the afternoon.

ECONOMY WANTED.—The Sentinel says that with a floating debt of over $6,000, not including some $1,500 due to the county, and a bonded debt of over $100,000, the financial prospect of Woodstock is not so promising one. The situation is one that affords splendid opportunity for the display of wisdom and economy on the part of the incoming mayor and council.

NEW UP RIVER BOAT.—Messrs. Joseph Stackhouse and Richard Kettleick, of Carleton, St. John, have been given the contract to build a wheeler boat to connect the Florenceville on the route between Carleton and Woodstock. The Florenceville, which is now laid up at Carleton, has been condemned. The machinery will be taken from her and placed in the new boat, which will be somewhat smaller.

HONOR ON MRS. SHAFBOLD.—In delivering judgment in the Shaftford case yesterday, noticed elsewhere, Judge Luck was very severe on Mrs. Shaftford. He said the statements of Ring and Jenkins, if true, incriminated the lady in a way not pleasant to think of. There was evidence not of indiscretion alone, but of gross impropriety. Ring says they could not have done more if engaged. It struck him they could not have done more if they were married.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.—At the regular meeting of Carleton Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, Tuesday, the following officers were installed by deputy grand chancellor Samuel Keck: Walter S. Fisher, C. C.; James Waterman, V. C.; Geo. W. Adams, prelate; A. J. Fowle, K. of R. & S.; C. H. Thomas, M. of E.; John Palmer, M. of F.; Geo. W. Perkins, M. of W.; Arthur Staples, M. of A.; W. S. Carvill, I. G.; Wm. McKay, O. G. After the installation, on the invitation of chancellor commander Fisher, the members enjoyed the oysters at Parson's restaurant.

Mayor Beckwith Re-Elected.—As anticipated by THE HERALD, Mayor Beckwith was re-elected Monday, obtaining a majority of 60 over Daniel Jordan, the Orange candidate. There was lively work all day at both polls, but Mr. Jordan was not in it from the start, and the announcement of the result caused no surprise. The vote stood:

BECKWITH.....	JORDAN.....
City Hall.....133.....	181.....
Court House.....235.....	118.....
Colony.....288.....	298.....
May for Beckwith 69.....

Both candidates addressed the electors in the city Council Chamber after the election was declared. Mr. Jordan announcing that at some other time he would run for something else, he did not say what it might be.

A Faithful Servant.—If there is one member of the present city council who deserves re-election he is Ald. Vandine of Wellington ward, an honorable, independent and entirely trustworthy man, who devotes much time to civic business and gives a disinterested vote on all questions. The electors of Wellington ward ought to see that Ald. Vandine is re-elected. At present he is confined to his home by illness, and probably will not be able to take an active part in the canvass. However, his friends will not allow his interests in the election to suffer on that account. Mr. Staples who was in the field when he was thought Ald. Vandine would not be a candidate, called on the latter, and learning that he would be nominated, announced his (Staples) determination then and there not to oppose Mr. Vandine.

Provincial Teachers' Institute.

The executive committee of the provincial teachers' institute held a meeting in the office of the board of education Friday night, June 27th, 28th and 29th. Considerable attention was given to the drafting of the programme, with the idea of making it as interesting and attractive as possible. The following draft was made, in which there may be some changes and additions:

Wednesday—Opening session at 2:30 p.m.; enrollment of members; report of secretaries.

Thursday—Public meeting in the interests of education to be addressed by some specialists, together with addresses by leading provincial and city gentlemen interested in education.

Friday—Open at 9 a.m.; miscellaneous business, twenty minutes; election of the executive committee for the current year; paper on The Demand for the Deeper and Wider Scholarship of Our Teachers; discussion thereon.

2 p.m.—Miscellaneous business, twenty minutes; paper on The Names of Places in New Brunswick, Their Origin and Associations.

8 p.m.—Meeting of a social character, which will probably be held in connection with the Natural History society.

Friday, 9 a.m.—Report of the committee on Text Books; election of a representative to the senate of the university of New Brunswick; paper, Practical Talks on Physics and Chemistry, with experiments.

2:30 p.m.—Miscellaneous business, twenty minutes; paper, Women's Place in the Teaching Profession; discussion thereon; adjournment.

Meeting of the University Graduates.

The semi-annual meeting of the Alumni Society of the university of New Brunswick was held Thursday evening at the Royal hotel. Jamies A. Vanwart of Fredericton, the president, occupied the chair, and Geo. A. Hughes, also of this city, was the secretary. Among those present were J. D. Hazen, M. P., Wallace Road of St. Stephen, L. A. Curry, Dr. Murray McLean, J. R. Dunn, W. M. McLean, H. G. Fenwick, R. W. Hanson, E. H. Flood, J. A. Belyas, and others. It was decided to take as its object the enable the society to change its method of electing the representatives from the society to the senate of the university. It was proposed that each member shall send a ballot to the secretary at Fredericton containing the names of those for whom he wishes to vote before the annual meeting of the society. This will lead to a larger expression of opinion than at present, as only those who attend the annual meeting have the right to vote now.

A general discussion of university matters took place, the meeting lasting over three hours.

Suicide in Miramichi.

Early on Monday morning last, Joseph Street, a resident on the Chaplain Island, committed suicide by cutting his throat. His house is about thirteen miles from Newcastle, in the parish of North Ek. He got up in the night and went out and set fire to his barn and a stack of hay, and then went back into his house and cut his throat with a razor and with a cut deep as in his throat. He then proceeded down cellar and finding the first cut on his throat not sufficient with a knife cut his throat still deeper, and then he rushed it still deeper. Word was sent out to town and coroner Dr. Desmond went out. The body was examined by him. The knife still being grasped in the dead man's hand, and the man committed suicide by his own hand. After examining two witnesses the coroner decided there was no need of holding an inquest. It is thought the deceased was insane.

York County Court.

The January sitting of the York county court opened at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Judge Stedman presiding. There was no criminal business. The only civil cases entered were:

John B. Gunter vs. Chas. F. Watson. Edgcombe & Sons vs. Thos. Bridges. Wm S. Bridges and John D. Bridges. The former case was for the recovery of the amount of three promissory notes. The defendant failed to appear, and the jury assessed damages at the sum of $50.00. The Edgcombe vs. Bridges case was an action of trover for the conversion of a carriage. It did not come to trial either, but was settled by the defendants signing a composition of $100.00 in favor of the plaintiffs for $12.50 and costs of suit. The court then adjourned.

A Great Success.

The electric street lights were turned on for the first time Thursday night, and are a great success. It is needless to say that the people of Fredericton are delighted with the change, and are not slow in bestowing on the city council unqualified praise for the enterprise they have displayed in introducing electric lighting. The company also come in for their full share of congratulations for furnishing so fine a light. They were faithfully carried out their contract in the character and strength of the light produced, and we have no doubt the contract will prove satisfactory to both the city and the company. The cost of the new lights is $20 per light per year. Moncton pays $100 per light.

Extensive Dock.

At the Sunbury county court, which meets next Tuesday, besides some two or three civil cases, which stand for trial, there are two criminal cases to be tried, viz.: The Queen against Joseph E. Kingsford, of Lincoln, for burglarizing the store of D. H. Nevins, of that place, and the Queen against James F. Fox for resisting constable McMonagie in the execution of a process issued out of the parish of Margueriteville court against the goods of defendant's father, John Fox. There is also a bastardy case, the Queen at the instance of the overseer of the poor of the parish of Sheffield against one Thomas Fulton, jr., on the information of Annie Olmstead.

Curling Notes.

The Fredericton curlers expect to leave for St. Stephen on Wednesday morning to play the curlers of that town the same afternoon and evening. Thursday morning they will leave for St. John and play the Thistles and St. Andrews before returning home Friday evening.

Trips Selected to Play in St. John, are as follows:

A. D. Macpherson,	R. P. Randolph,
Dibble,	Lemou,
Hogg,	C. E. Neill,
Rutter, skip,	Loggie, skip,
Shute,	VanBaskirk,
Fowler,	Bridges,
J. S. Neill,	Campbell,
Grievies, skip,	Hawthorn, skip.

Fun Ahead.

On Tuesday evening, 19th instant, Rev. Dr. Wilson of St. John will deliver a lecture at the University, on Imperial Fredericton. Dr. Wilson has made this question a study, and has taken a prominent part in discussions on the subject, both in this country and in England, so that those desirous of knowing the facts, and plans as prepared to those interested in this scheme of the construction of the empire, would do well to attend. A reply will be made by Rev. Mr. Parkinson, which will likely bring out some pithy arguments. General admission is 25 cents, and 15 cents for students of the University and Normal school.

The Death Bell.

Amos Fox died at Southampton, in this county, on the 2nd inst., aged 71 years.

Mrs. Henry Pinley, who died recently at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, was formerly a Miss Ganou of Little River, Sunbury county.

The Duty on Lumber.

Hon. J. P. Bass, editor of the Bangor Commercial, and a member of the Bangor board in St. John recently. Mr. Bass is considerably interested in the free lumber clause of the Wilson bill now before the United States congress. He has been to Washington, he is interested in obtaining a free trade agreement with the lumbermen, and with others saw members of the ways and means committee, and explained the views of Maine lumbermen on the question. The bill, Mr. Bass explained to a reporter, has been reported to the house with the free clause in it, but the lumbermen of Maine and other states will make an effort to prevent the clause from becoming law. The bill, Mr. Bass said, would not be passed unless the lumbermen of Maine and other states will make an effort to prevent the clause from becoming law. The bill, Mr. Bass said, would not be passed unless the lumbermen of Maine and other states will make an effort to prevent the clause from becoming law.

Mr. Bass said several American citizens who reside in St. John and have large interests in the lumber business, with a view of securing their co-operation in an effort to defeat free trade, or failing that, a compromise, in speaking to a reporter Mr. Bass said the American residents of St. John, as well as those of other cities, have a belief that the duty would be maintained and all would surely suffer by competition with Canadian lumber. If the free clause could not be secured, it was hoped that a compromise might be effected, such as a way to gradually take the duty off, thereby allowing the Americans to work off their stock and get out of their investments if they so desire.

St. John's Present Appearance.

It was in St. Andrews, and he was in attendance at court. Through the kindness of his friends he had a very good dinner sufficient of the beverage which is clandestinely imported from Robbinston for Scott's purpose, to arouse his brain to its fullest activity and lend a gloss more than customary to his face. "These stories are a very bad lot," said he, "and the worst of them was Sir John A. Macdonald, peace to his ashes. Notwithstanding his wickedness, however, he is in heaven. I know he is in heaven. And do you know what he is doing there? No! Then I'll tell you. He had no sooner reached the shining shore than he quickly reached the other side of the river, and the highest archangel and stood by his side. Thence he proceeded to the side of the revolving angel and began to play, hoping thus to charm the recorder, so that nothing but what is good should be written on the pages of the chronicle. With what success he is meeting I do not know, but I have had a revelation that this is the occupation in which Sir John is now constantly engaged."

Lower Preacher William.

Jan. 10.—The weather still continues cold. Rev. Mr. Wallace, who came here last week from Woodstock, is holding special services in the Baptist church.

Church Social which was held at E. H. Peters on New Year's night, was a decided success, the large number present enjoying a pleasant evening.

Invitations are out for a quilting, Miss Maud Hinckley being the recipient of the young ladies who were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Spencer are rejoicing over a little boy stranger that came to their house last Friday evening. They are making things comfortable as can be for the little youngster.

Invitations are out for a quilting, Miss Maud Hinckley being the recipient of the young ladies who were invited.

On account of an increase of business on the Ridge last summer, it makes it very undesirable that we have only one mail a week. Bloomfield Ridge is quite a thriving little place, no doubt as large if not larger than a great many places where they have three or four mails per week, and we trust that our people will see long to see that we are supplied with three mails per week, instead of, as at present, one.

SUNBURY SELECTIONS.

Mill Settlement.—The many friends of Rev. John MacKenzie will regret to hear of his illness. Mr. and Mrs. Whipple, of Hardfield, are visiting friends here.

A very pleasant though common event took place here on Wednesday, Dec. 27th, at the residence of F. Kington, in which Orlo Kington and Christina Boome were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. John MacKenzie.

Miss Agnes Miles is to take charge of the singing at the coming term. Her young people enjoyed themselves thoroughly at H. Knorr's last Saturday evening at a dance.

Sheffield.

Jan. 10.—The reading circle met at the residence of Hon. A. Harrison last Friday evening. It being a "free and easy meeting," with the assistance of some invited friends. The drive to and from was one of the most pleasant of the evening's entertainment.

The Methodist and Congregationalists are holding services during the week of prayer.

Arnold Barker, who has been suffering from an attack of neuritis for several weeks, is confined to his house.

Miss Lizzy Bridges, who has been home several weeks on account of illness in her family, has returned to her situation as stenographer and typewriter for Wm. P. Allen, Carleton, Me.

Miss Mary McAdam, who has been visiting friends in Gibson and St. John, is expected home in a day or two.

THE NEWS IN QUEENS.

Gaspareau Station.—Jan. 9.—We had a gentle snow last week, which somewhat lessened the bulk of the snow, but it was of short duration.

Our young men are returning from the lumbering districts of Maine. Walter S. Kirkpatrick and J. Alec Herron are among the latest to come back. They report wages very low and work hard to obtain.

The people around here who promote the temperance interests, are very jubilant over the triumphs in P. E. I and Ontario for prohibition.

It has been a long time since so little frost was in the ground in winter. On the open meadow a stake can be driven easily into the ground, and will stand firm.

This is a hard winter for lumbermen here. Their roads are in very bad condition, and hauling therefore very difficult.

People here have watched the contest for mayor of Fredericton with quite a bit of interest.

The new officers of Star of Hope Council are as follows: H. C. K. Kirkpatrick, S. G.; Lizzie A. Roberts, Y. C.; P. Parker Kirkpatrick, P. C.; I. Newton Thorne, F. S.; Thos. B. Roberts, T.; Chas. McKenzie, C.; W. O. Patterson, R. S.; P. Foster Thorne, herald; J. Berline Roberts, dep. H.; Chas. A. Kirkpatrick, A. R. S.; Harley McIntosh, guard; C. A. Patterson, sentinel.

CLEANINGS FROM YORK.

Upper Magaguadavic.

Jan. 9.—The weather has been very fine for the past week and our roads are splendid.

The death of our worthy secretary to trustees' brought about a special school meeting for the purpose of electing someone to fill the vacancy. Joe Gartley was elected.

Our school opened to-day under the management of Miss Hunter.

Miss McMillin and her sister Florence, have gone to their respective places to take charge of their schools for the coming term.

Mr. Stephen, placed a visit to his farm. He reports times dull and money scarce.

Hardfield.

Jan. 3.—The snow is very deep with good prospect for more, rendering operations for the lumbermen very difficult, and causing a large number of men to be discharged.

Henry Hart's family has been visited by a serious attack of the measles.

Deer are very plentiful, as some of our young men had a lively chase after one and followed it so closely that it jumped over the river fall.

Robert Ballentine, of Grantville, has put up very fine ice in his yard, and is advancing in improvements fast.

Cupid has been very busy this fall visiting around. He called at Mrs. Sinist's home, taking away her last daughter. He'll give us in a hush a Servant's house.

Lower Preacher William.
