Prize Cats Dead.

About a dozen of the valuable prize cats shown at the exhibition during the first week, have died from gastritis. Mrs. C. A. Paxton lost five beautiful brown tabbies, each a prize winner, and her big black lynx. Mr. Villiers lost three silver tabbies, Mr. Walker three prize winners, and Mrs. Arnott a first-prize brown tabby. It is said that the meat, with which the animals were fed during the show, may have had something to do with their death.

GREEN FLAG COMES DOWN

Station Superintendent Refuses to Allow It to Decorate Train.

Ireland was landed another figurative poke on the solar plexus yesterday morning by Station Superintendent Beck at the Union depot, who refused to allow the green bunting with harp and all to decorate the train which carried the field battery from the exhibition back to Kingston. A member of the corps on the train had hoisted the Irish colors in the place where the company's flag is usually flown, and Mr. Beck insisted on its removal, much to the chagrin of a number of Irishmen. The train was liberally bedecked with other flags, however.
