ROCHESTER ENDS GREYS' VICTORIES

Champions Interrupt Winning Streak of Providence Crew.

Providence, R. I., May 4.—Rochester broke it on Providence's winning streak this afternoon, taking the game by 3 to 1. The Greys were unable to hit Hughes when hits meant runs, the Hustlers' twirler holding them to five bingles. Rochester found Lavender for eight safe ones. Score:

BIRDS AND ROYALS IN A BATTING BEE

Baltimore Scored 22 Runs to 15 by Montreal.

Baltimore, Md., May 4.—Montreal and Baltimore had a batting matinee today, both clubs hitting the ball to all corners of the lot, and each team using three pitchers. The Orioles finally won out. In the sixth inning Maisel dropped Stanfield's fly, and, throwing to Rath, caught Foth at second, and Stanfield was doubled at first. Yeager claimed it was an infield fly, and played the game under protest. Score:

SQUEEZE PLAY WINS FOR JERSEY CITY MEN

Buffalo Bisons Defeated Again by a Score of Two to One.

Jersey City, May 4.—In another hair-raising struggle, through the aid of a cleverly-manipulated squeeze play, Jersey City succeeded in nosing Buffalo out of the victory by a score of 2 to 1.

The Skeeters pulled off the trick in their half of the eighth inning, with the teams again deadlocked, blocking what appeared good for another prolonged battle between the Insects and Bisons. It was only by a streak of luck that the Ryanites managed to get away with the decision, even with their fortunate break in the eighth frame. The score:

Judge a Car by Car Performance

MAKE up your mind about the qualities you want your car to have. Low first cost—low up-keep cost—liberal equipment—comfort—dependability, for instance. These, and more—are bound up in the "Everitt" as in no other car, because the "Everitt" is the composite design of 100 experienced car dealers whose ideals for service it represents.

These dealers designed a car of few parts, but each part made and machined in the best way that modern practice attains, and each part designed to prevent troubles for car owners. Judge the "Everitt" by its performance. It proves the plan behind its design. More than $1,450 may buy more frills—it cannot buy better service.

The "Everitt" has 2 Years' Guarantee, and Extra Tire, with its "Special Tudhope Equipment." Learn, by a demonstration, how much these, with "Everitt" design, mean to the owner.
