SIDE LIGHTS ON MANY SPORTS

SEAFORTH HERE TONIGHT FOR DECIDING CONTEST

London Juniors Are Eight Goals Down, But Look For a Victory.

The London Juniors tonight go into the contest that will decide whether or not they remain in the running for the Ontario Hockey Association championship.

Seaforth comes here with a 11 to 4 lead, and can be counted upon to give the locals one of the closest runs for the pound that could be imagined. London is already in a most uncomfortable position, but the players believe that on their own ice with a good crowd of supporters they can haul down that lead and finish on top on the total goals.

Morrison, who could not get away for the Seaforth match, will be back in his old position again tonight, so the team will be strengthened materially in that quarter.

WOLGAST EXPECTS TO MEET M'FARLAND

Says Fight on Feb. 22 Is On as Far as He Is Concerned.

Cadillac, Mich., Feb. 11.—Ad Wolgast says he still has a date with McFarland for Feb. 22, and the date will be filled so far as he is concerned. His date with George Memsic for March 17 is definitely set, assurance coming today to Wolgast from Tom McCarry at Los Angeles to that effect. Four other dates will be filled by Wolgast within the next six weeks if there are any fighters to give him the chance. Said the champion tonight: "I know I am in shape now, and when I once get the game going I do not care to stop until I have satisfied half a dozen would-be champions. I have been idle evidently longer than necessary, but I did not know about the error standing the strain. Now that I know that I need not be longer careful, I will satisfy promoters and fighters alike.

"That takes in Moran or Nelson or any other fellow who thinks he can take me in any event from ten rounds to the limit."

Wolgast has developed a threatening cold.

PAIR OF YANKEES GO TO THE BROWNS

Austin Traded for Hartzell, and Laporte Is Sold to St. Louis.

New York, Feb. 11.—President Frank Farrell, of the New York Americans, announced tonight that Manager Chase had traded Third Baseman "Jimmy" Austin to St. Louis for Infielder Roy Hartzell, and that the local club had sold Second Baseman Frank Laporte to the same team.

Hartzell has been with the St. Louis Browns for five years, and during the American League career has batted at a .242 clip. His batting average last year was .218. The highest percentage he ever had was .271 in 1909.

BOWEN MUST INVESTIGATE SAGINAW'S SUSPENSIONS

Saginaw, Feb. 11.—That the findings of A. J. Flamer regarding the suspension evils in the minor leagues, which was made to Garry Herrmann, of the national commission, has reached Secretary Farrell, of that body, was known today when President Bowen, of the South Michigan League, received a letter from Farrell asking him to investigate the report that Saginaw had 21 men suspended during the 1910 season, why they were suspended and all the incidents of the cases, and to report immediately his findings.

"MICKEY" CORCORAN SENDS IN CONTRACT.

Detroit, Feb. 12.—The name of "Mickey" Corcoran was today removed from the list of Detroit holdouts, when his signed contract for one year was received at the office of the Detroit baseball club. Corcoran was purchased by the Detroit club from the Cincinnati Reds. He is an infielder and played with Buffalo in the Eastern League during the latter part of the 1910 season.

FRANK CHANCE WILL USE HIS OLD TIMERS

Can Depend on Veterans, He Says, But Has Fine Lot of Recruits.

[By Canadian Press.]

Los Angeles, Feb. 13.—Frank L. Chance, manager of the Chicago Nationals, will leave today for Chicago to take charge of the 1910 pennant-winners during the season of 1911.

Chance, who is about 20 pounds heavier than when he landed in California last fall, has spent the winter on his fruit farm at Glendora.

"I will have all the old men back in the game again—the same men that put up the hard fight for the 1910 flag," said Chance. "These men represent material that I can depend upon. If any of them weakens I have a big batch of young fellows to gamble with. I never bank on a green man until I see him deliver the goods, yet I feel certain that out of the army of newcomers signed by us, at least two or three of them will turn out to be valuable men."

K. O. BROWN AND HOGAN MATCHED

Slugging Lightweights Will Meet In Ten-Round Bout in New York on Feb. 22.

New York, Feb. 13.—"Knockout" Brown and "Cove-Round" Hogan, the California lightweight, are finally matched. They were engaged by Joe Humphreys, manager of the Madison A. C., to meet in a ten-round bout at a show of that club on the night of Feb. 22. Both men are fighters pure and simple, and go in for slugging.

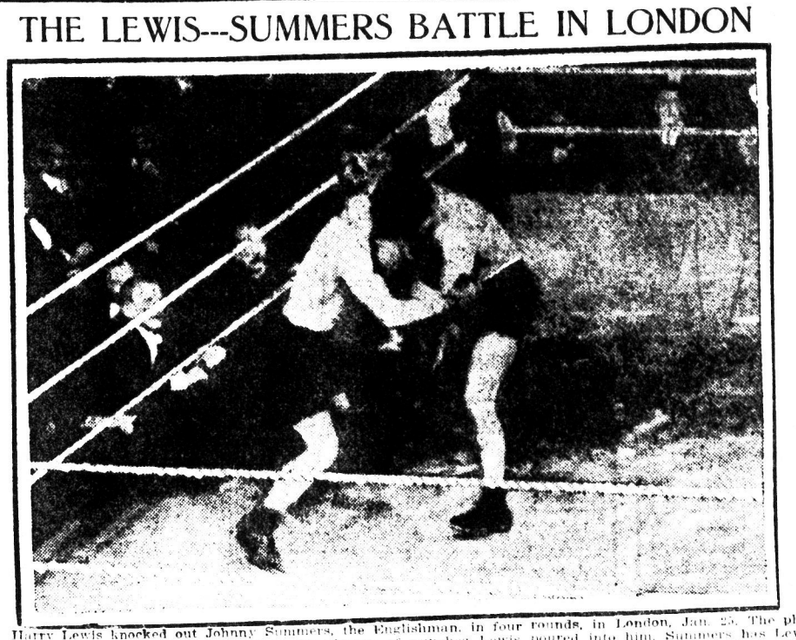
THE LEWIS---SUMMERS BATTLE IN LONDON



Harry Lewis knocked out Johnny Summers, the Englishman, in four rounds, in London, Jan. 25. The photograph shows Summers clinching to avoid the shower of punches Lewis poured into him. Summers has Lewis by the left elbow, and it is apparent that Lewis has been punishing him with short-arm blows which had the Englishman in distress.

DIGGER STANLEY IS "PEEVED" AT AMERICANS

Smarts Under Accusations That He Is a Foul Fighter.

New York, Feb. 13.—After "Digger" Stanley, England's bantamweight, has finished his bout with Jimmy Walsh in Boston next week, he will probably sail for home. Stanley is smarting under the charge that he is a foul fighter, and says he will never box in America again. He has written to friends in London that he has been unfairly scored by the American boxing critics, and he wants to get back.

SAM LANGFORD TO MEET LANG

Bill Will Clash With "Tar Baby" at London, England, Soon.

BOXING VERY POPULAR

Many Big Matches Are in Sight, So Old London Fans Are Happy.

London, Feb. 13.—Never was boxing so popular in London as at present. "Glove artists" of all nationalities are here, and according to Mr. James E. Britt, formerly world's lightweight champion, who is now acting as Mr. Hugh D. McIntosh's secretary, more are coming.

In a chat with the correspondent regarding future events to be decided at the boxing arena into which the large annex at Olympia has been turned, the versatile Mr. Britt remarked:

"We have some big matches in view, though beyond the 'Bill' Lang and 'Sam' Langford 'go' nothing definite has been so far arranged. Very probably our next big fixture will be between Harry Lewis and 'Jimmy Gardner. After that we hope to fix up 'Packey' McFarland with 'Freddy' Welsh (the latter will then have got through with 'Matt' Wells at the National Sporting Club) or 'Johnny' Summers, while in March 'Billy' Papke and 'Jimmy' Clabby will both be here and we shall arrange matches for each of them."

Interest Keen.

Tremendous interest is being aroused here in the meeting between "Bill" Lang and "Sam" Langford. When the "Tar Baby" arrived in London from America he reported himself as in excellent condition, and announced that he would be ready for the Australian on Feb 15, as agreed upon. Langford, however, accompanied by "Joe" Woodman, has since called upon Mr. McIntosh and requested that the event be postponed a week, to Feb. 22.

Lang naturally demurred at first, but, like a sportsman, when he was informed that Langford required the extra week to get himself properly in trim, he agreed. This indicates the spirit in which "the fight of the white man" as Lang is called here, views his struggles to reach world's championship honors. "I want Langford to be at his best," he said.

STRATFORD BEATEN.

[Canadian Press.]

Cleveland Ohio, Feb. 11.—The Cleveland Hockey team again defeated the Stratford team, score 9 to 4. A second game at the Elysium rink, by the score of 5 to 2, was fast and close game.

GOTCH WINS BOUT.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 12.—Frank Gotch threw George Hackenschmidt, the Swiss, here tonight. The first fall was in 15 minutes, the second required a quarter hour. The third fall gave Gotch the bout, the second fall in 10 minutes.

CHASE SUMMONED HASTILY BY YANKS

San Jose, Feb. 12.—Hal Chase, manager of the American League champion club, left for New York in answer to a hurried summons from the Highlanders. Chase has spent the last six weeks with his parents here.

Andy Cooley has written Ban Johnson for a chance to appear before the national commission to show cause why his suspension should be raised. Cooley felt sore when the Boston Nationals let him go last fall and signed Montreal $500 for his release. He says he can do business with a National League club if reinstated. Cooley was for a number of seasons in the big leagues, pitching for the Athletics, Reds and Cubs.

LONDON AND WOODSTOCK TO BE GIVEN MORE TIME

Meeting In Hamilton Delayed In Order to Allow Local Club to Organize.

Another meeting of Londoners interested in the proposed Ontario Professional Baseball League, will in all probability be held at the Savoy Hotel Wednesday evening, to proceed with the formation of the local club.

The meeting in Hamilton Saturday afternoon did not get down to business as both London and Woodstock complained of too short notice. The other clubs realized that this was the case, so Knotty Lee will visit both places again this week. It is understood that Woodstock is having some difficulty in securing reasonable terms for the park there.

BOB UNGLAUB MANAGER

Former Washington First Sacker Will Head Lincoln Club.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 11.—Announcement was made tonight by President Dunpain that "Bob" Unglaub had been purchased from the Washington American League club, and will manage the Lincoln Western League team this year.

BROWN AND WOLGAST IN A TEN ROUND BATTLE

Champ Goes Up Against Knockout Person Again on March 3.

New York, Feb. 13.—It appears that K. O. Brown and Ad Wolgast who will meet again in a ten-round bout at the National Sporting Club here March 3, were matched in a hurry.

Manager O'Rourke has given up all hope of bringing the boys together after a talk with Wolgast's manager, Tom Jones, late Thursday night, and again Friday morning. Jones demanded so much "expense money" to bring Wolgast here that O'Rourke reminded him that the lightweight champion had depreciated in value since the trimming he received from Brown.

"Brown is the card, not your boy!" said O'Rourke, as he closed the interview. Wolgast's manager did not wait many hours before he admitted that O'Rourke had the right idea, and when Brown's manager was summoned, the match was clinched without a quibble.

Moran Is Better.

"In addition to meeting Brown again in a ten-round bout on March 3," said Wolgast, "I will soon be ready to make a match with Owen Moran, who in my opinion is a more dangerous antagonist than Brown. I offered to take $2,500 for my proposed bout with Al Kaufman in O'Brien's club, but O'Brien wouldn't hear of it. I guess he got cold feet after he had to make up a loss on my scrap with Brown. McFarland can have a ten-round fight with me in Milwaukee, however, and I'll agree to an early date."

CARL MORRIS READY FOR JOHNSON IN YEAR

Oklahoma, "White Hope" Prepares to Meet Champ Next Winter.

Carl Morris, the locomotive engineer, who is believed to be a real "white hope," has established regular training quarters in Oklahoma, and has engaged Con Riley, of Cincinnati, to instruct him in the art of self-defence. Morris says he will soon be ready to fight any white man in the world. He draws the line in respect to all negro pugilists except Jack Johnson, and will be prepared to meet the latter next winter.

Pertinent Sport Paragraphs

"Angling is somewhat like poetry, men are to be born so."

Hal Chase will have to be as sensational a leader as he is player to live up to the boosts hanged out by McGraw and a few others.

Cobby "boys" at St. Andrews are men who have grown up in the vicinity of the famous Scotch links, and who wear whiskers that are fine foul lashes.

We'd like to inquire at what weight Mr. Referee Hynek, of Memphis, fights. Some of the things Packey McFarland has said about him would make any man get the don't care feeling and wade in.

Judging from an altered interview with Bill Papke in Sydney, the Queensbury rules are interpreted in the United States, permit rough, and tumble fighting. Don't sound like Bill.

Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast, offers $1,000 cash if money is forthcoming Wolgast and not for bait. Bad decree for tennis. Don't know as anyone ever heard of Nelson NOT wanting to fight.

A great boon to dog fanciers and lovers generally, if the claims of the discoverer can be substantiated, is a specific for distemper, in the form of a toxin. Treatment is said to make a puppy immune from the disease.

LONDON SENIORS DEFEAT ST. JAMES

Fast Toronto Basketball Team Loses by 36 to 24.

The London Y. M. C. A. seniors defeated the St. James' basketball team of Toronto, 36 to 24, in a very fast game played on the "Y" floor here Saturday night. The Toronto team is a very strong one, and recently played the well-known West Ends, losing by but six. London will meet the latter team here on Thursday in a return match. The locals lost at Toronto by two.

The winning team in Saturday's game was composed of Morris and Jones, forwards, Eckert, centre; Hamilton and Shaw, defence.

In a preliminary, the Intermediates defeated the Businessmen.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

Arthur I. Raymond, the spitball pitcher of the Giants, is at his home in Chicago, Ill. He has been discharged from an institution at Dwight, Ill., whither he went for treatment for the drink habit. He entered as "Bugs," but emerges as Arthur I. A letter from the Dwight authorities yesterday applied Secretary Bill Gray, of the Giants, of these several facts. Further the authorities are willing to bet that Raymond will not touch a drop of stimulant all year.

Artie Latham will accompany Manager John J. McGraw to Marlin Springs. The two will leave on Feb. 15. Latham has not as yet signed a contract, and it is not known definitely whether he can appear in uniform on the coaching lines without being classed as a player in the roster draft rule. However McGraw will carry the veteran if possible, and in the meantime Artie will be paid for his services as coach throughout the training season.

Lowell, of the Naps, lived up to his name in his short career of fold. He connected safely with the opposing defense, but one game during the entire season. Still, he looks a pretty promising twirler.

Joe Sugden, the old National League catcher, has been elected to the presidency and management of the Newcastle, Pa., club in Pennsylvania.

Matt McIntyre, the early-loved native of Staten Island, is cool for a year's engagement on High Jennings and his old Tiger associates. The Detroit outfielder, who is expected for centre field with the White Sox, is already holding out at Hot Springs, Ark.
