Mr. Kirhpatrick is an ex-Speaker of the Mouse of Commons, and is a most popular member. He resides in Kingston, and is a man of exessive means.

The name "Sir John " is destined to hold a most prominent place on the honorial to consider the columns by affording them space for their vile effusions. Nothing but a rag, in the shape of a newspaper, places its space at the disposal to the fore be guaged from the fact of its allowing this foul scribbler's production a place in its columns to his countrymen, as simply "Sir John." Then there is Sir John Thompson the present brilliant, salented and most successful Government Leader in the House of Commons. And lastly the able and popular Premier Abbott, who has just hom knighted, is called John Joseph Caldwell, and it is not unlikely he will elect to be known as "Sir John Abbott."

In the House of Commons, on Friday last, Sir John Thompson estated that the Newfoundland Official Gazette of that day contained a proof matios ordering that the extra duties imposed on Canadian products by the revenue act of 1891, should not be collected after that date, and directing Newfoundland officials to issue bait licenses to Canadian Fishing vessels on the same termalian were granted to Newfoundland Georgetown engage in their devotions without being subjected to the ribald jests of this ill-bred creature? What a harmonious community we would have if this condition of affairs.

Covernment had, on its part, abolished duties on Newfoundland fish and fisch products by virtue of power granted to the Executive by the Customs Act. Thus a somewhat vexed question has been eatisfactorily adjusted. seems to be actuated by political bias against Mr. McDonald, M. P
