FRANCE MUST CHAMPION THE CAUSE OF SYRIA

Marseilles, Jan. 5. — The French Syrian Congress, which began its sessions here Friday, continued its meeting yesterday. The congress was divided into sections dealing respectively with archaeology, history and education. The speakers were Professors Huvelin, Joubin, Comber, Brecier and Barbelon of various French universities.

A banquet was held last evening, presided over by M. Franklin-Bouillon, vice-president of the foreign affairs committee of the chamber of deputies.

"Syria must be rehabilitated," said A. de Monzie, former secretary of state for merchant marine, in a speech at this function. "The influence of France is pledged to this important matter. It is necessary, since Syria is not to be represented in the peace conference, that France make the voice of Syria heard and speak in the name of the Syrians."

RUSSIA'S STRIFE IS ACCENTUATED

General Semenoff Ordered Forces to Depose Officials of Verkhne Udinsk.

Irkutsk, Siberia, Jan. 5.—New Year's finds Russia's internal strife accentuated, offering additional problems to the allies and the United States.

General Semenoff, stung to action by the attempt made on his life at Chita, immediately ordered his forces to capture the important strategic centre of Verkhne Udinsk, midway between Irkutsk and Chita, and depose the officials. The correspondent on his arrival at Udinsk found two armored trains at the station and the Cossacks in complete control of the town.

Among those arrested at Udinsk and ordered to report to Chita were Colonel Baronofsky, the military commander in the region, his chief of staff, and the commandant of the station and the telegraph operators. The reason advanced by the Cossacks for the arrests was that the officials were pro-Bolsheviki.

A large contingent of Japanese troops which was camped six miles from Verkhne Udinsk, to guard the station, did not interfere in the capture of the city by General Semenoff, which assures him the domination of the railroad and telegraph lines in this section, as well as control of the great caravan route from China by way of Mongolia.

BRITISH EMIGRATION COMMITTEE APPOINTED

London, Jan. 5.—In view of the need for creating machinery to enable the government to deal effectively with emigration problems likely to arise during the reconstruction period, the secretary of state for the colonies has appointed a government emigration committee under the presidency of the secretary of state and the chairmanship of the undersecretary of state for the colonies.

The committee includes Lord Burnham and Sir Allan Anderson and a representative for women's interests. The new committee will after January 14 replace the managing committee of emigrants' information office. Continuity of work will be secured by the appointments of the chairman of the emigrants' information office as vice-chairman of the new committee and by Lord Burnham's appointment as a member.

COL. CROSS ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Annual Meeting of Saskatchewan Bar Association Held in Saskatoon.

Saskatoon, Sask., Jan. 4.—Col. B. A. Cross, D.S.O., K.C., M.L.A., of Regina, was elected president of the Saskatchewan Bar Association at the annual meeting held here yesterday. Chief Justice Wetmore was re-elected honorary president. R. C. Pope, of Moose Jaw, was elected vice-president, and M. F. Thomson, of Regina, secretary-treasurer.

The next convention will be held at Regina either the last week in June or the first week in July, 1919.

POPE RECEIVES PRESIDENT WILSON

His Holiness Expresses Hope for Consummation of Lasting Peace.

FINAL DAY IN ROME

President Visits Pantheon and Lays Wreaths on the Tombs of Two Kings.

Rome, Jan. 5.—President Wilson concluded his two days' visit to Rome yesterday, crowding into the daylight hours a multiplicity of activities, including a call upon Pope Benedict at the Vatican and a visit to the American Episcopal church.

He leaves Rome for Paris at nine o'clock tonight, with an itinerary calling for stops at Genoa, Milan and Turin.

Before going to the Vatican, the president got his first real glimpse of the Eternal City. An early visit was paid to the Pantheon, where wreaths were laid upon the tombs of King Victor Emmanuel II. and King Humbert there, and then the presidential party motored up the great hill overlooking Rome, where stands the imposing monument to Garibaldi.

The president's attendance at a meeting of the Royal Academy of Science and luncheon at the American embassy came before the carrying out of the most important part of the program for today. While these earlier functions were in progress Pope Benedict was giving audience to a delegation of American newspaper men to whom he expressed the greatest hopes for a lasting peace.

Meets the Pope.

The president's arrival at the Vatican was announced by the master of the chamber to the Pope, who awaited the president in the throne room, where two gilded arm chairs had been placed. The president was admitted immediately to the presence of the Pope, who was gowned in white.

On his way to the throne room the president was accompanied by a procession of Vatican servants. The procession made its way thru halls filled with antique pictures and precious tapestries.

As the president entered the antechamber to the papal apartments he was preceded by the pontifical chamberlain. Gendarmes in immense busbys and the Palatine Guards and the Noble Guard in their red tunics were drawn up to greet him.

In his conversation with President Wilson, the pontiff gave expression to identical sentiments, and enlarged upon the themes. In view of the president's rejection of the pope's peace offer, the reception of the American executive today was looked forward to with great interest in all official circles, and the warm greetings exchanged by the president and the pontiff were commented upon with much satisfaction. The president continued the discussion of Italy's proposed claims before the peace conference, but the measure of the American spirit of them has not yet been fully developed, and seems not likely to be before further conferences.

The afternoon's program included besides the president's visit to the Vatican and later his reception of the Protestant bodies of Rome at the American Episcopal Church. His visit to this capital closed with an informal dinner at the palace.

President Wilson became a citizen of Rome last night. The ceremony took place in the historic capital, designed by Michael Angelo and redolent with suggestions of ancient and mediaeval Rome. Assisting in the services were King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, members of the Italian cabinet, members of the diplomatic corps, including Ambassador and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page and municipal and military authorities.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by the King and Queen, drove to the capital after the dinner at the Quirinal.

BITTER ELECTION FIGHT IN CITY OF BRANTFORD

Brantford, Jan. 5.—What has been perhaps the bitterest municipal fight in the history of Brantford will be brought to a close by the balloting Monday. The campaign did not end when Tom Lyle, candidate of the Municipal League, dropped out on nomination day, for charges and counter-charges have issued freely. The Municipal League is still pressing the requests for an enquiry into the civic handling of coal and Mayor MacBride's handling of the whiskey for the influenza epidemic. Mayor MacBride challenges investigation, declaring that he can prove that everything is in order. The polls are to be kept open until 7 p.m., tho technically this is illegal as the bylaw to put it thru was not passed until after Nov. 15, the day set for such action. The general opinion is that the election will not be upset thereby. If the election were protested the erection of a new school and the extension of the street railway to Terrace Hill, if carried, would be held up until the legislature met to ratify the passing of the delayed bylaw.

Maxim Gorky Has Been Elected To the Petrograd Soviet

Zurich, Jan. 5.—Maxim Gorky, the Russian author and revolutionist, has been elected a member of the Petrograd Soviet, according to Russian advices received here.

Despatches in late November reported that Maxim Gorky, who was at first opposed to the Bolsheviki, had joined them and had accepted a position in the Bolshevik department of education.

DANZIG ORGANIZING TO FIGHT POLISH ARMY

Copenhagen, Jan. 5.—"A people's council to combat the Polish danger" has been established at Danzig, and a military force will be recruited, according to reports from Berlin.

In southern Posen the Poles have occupied the frontier town of Skalmierzyse and destroyed the fortress there. The German garrisons at Ostrovo and Krotoschin, west of the frontier, are threatened seriously.

FARM PRODUCE.

St. Lawrence and North Toronto Markets.

There was a smaller attendance than usual at the markets Saturday, and trade was exceptionally dull and draggy on the bulk of the offerings.

Eggs—New-laid eggs were such a slow sale that prices declined and tho there were a few sold at the opening of the market at 90c, 95c and $1 per dozen, the bulk sold at 80c and 85c per dozen, with a few closing at 75c per dozen.

Butter—Prices ranged from 50c to 65c per lb.; only one woman receiving the 65c per lb., the bulk selling at 57c per lb.

Poultry.—Offerings were very light and prices quite firm; ducks and turkeys being noted for their absence; chickens selling at 35c to 40c per lb.; fowl at 30c to 35c per lb., and geese at 34c per lb.

Grains—
