Mayoralty Promises.

In his ante-election speeches Mayor Fleming promised the electors that he would procure legislation at the next session of the Ontario Legislature to provide for making the assessments in the same year in which the bylaw establishing the rate bill for the year was passed instead of having the assessment made in the fall of one year for the succeeding year as at present. We have been carefully watching the proceedings of the Local House with a view to discovering how far His Worship had redeemed this promise, but we are unable to find that any legislation in the direction proposed by His Worship has been passed, and one of his organs has recently told the electors that the assessment this year would have to be made as heretofore because no legislation enabling the change to be made has been obtained. Perhaps the explanation of His Worship's failure to obtain the promised legislation will be found in the following sections of the Assessment Act, which we quote for his benefit:

"Subject to the provisions of sections 52 and 54, every assessor shall begin to make his roll in each year not later than the 15th day of February, and shall complete the same on or before the 30th day of April, and shall attach thereto a certificate signed by him, and verified upon oath or affirmation in the form following:

(CERTIFICATE.)

"I do certify that I have set down in the above assessment roll all the real property liable to taxation situate in the municipality (or ward) of (as the case may be) and the true actual value thereof in each case, according to the best of my information and judgment, and also that the said assessment roll contains a true statement of the aggregate amount of the personal property or of the taxable income of every party named on the said roll, and that I have estimated and set down the same according to the best of my information and belief, and I further certify that I have entered thereon the names of all the resident householders, tenants and freeholders, and of all other persons who have required their names to be entered thereon, with the true amount of property occupied or owned, or of income received by each, and that I have not entered the names of any persons whom I do not truly believe to be a householder, tenant or freeholder, or the bona fide occupier or owner of the property, or in receipt of the income set down opposite his name, for his own use and benefit; and I further certify that according to the best of my knowledge and belief, I have entered thereon the name of every person entitled to be so entered, either as a householder's son or as a wage-earner, and that I have not intentionally omitted therefrom the name of any person whom I knew or had good reason to believe was or is entitled to be entered thereon, either as a householder's son or as a wage-earner; and I further certify that the date of delivery or transmitting the notice required by section 47 of The Assessment Act is in every case truly and correctly stated in the said roll; and I further certify and swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that I have not entered the name of any person at too low a rate in order to deprive such person of a vote, or at too high a rate in order to give such person a vote, or for any reason whatever; and that the amount for which each such person is assessed upon the said roll truly and correctly appears in the said notice delivered or transmitted to him as aforesaid."—R.S.O., 1877, c. 180, s. 42, 48 Vic., c. 42, s. 8.

"52. In cities, towns and incorporated villages the council, instead of being bound by the periods above mentioned for taking the assessment and by the periods named for the revision of the rolls by the Court of Revision and by the county judge, may pass bylaws for regulating the above periods as follows, that is to say: For taking the assessment between the 1st day of July and the 30th day of September, the rolls being returnable in such case to the city, town or village clerk on the 1st day of October; and in case the time for closing the Court of Revision shall be the 15th day of November, and for final return by the judge of the County Court the 31st day of December; and the assessment so made and concluded may be adopted by the council of the following year as the assessment on which the rate of taxation for said following year shall be levied, and in the year following the passing of the bylaw the council may adopt the assessment of the preceding year as the basis of the assessment of that year."—R.S.O. 1877, c. 180, s. 44; 49 V., c. 38, s. 7.

From the above quotations it will be manifest that all that is required if the city wishes to go back to the effete system of making its assessment in the beginning of the year, delaying the preparation of its estimates, passing its rate bill and collecting its taxes until the end of the year and thereby increasing the amount payable to the banks for interest on current expenditure, is for the city to repeal the bylaw under which it has been making its assessments between the months of July and October under the permissive legislation procured by the late City Treasurer Harman, and then proceed to make its assessments under the provisions of section 49, above quoted, as was done prior to the passing of the permissive legislation.

The Fools Are Not All Dead.

A lazy man, whose horses and cart were stuck in the mud, prayed to Jupiter for help. Jupiter answered: "Fool! get up and put your shoulder to the wheel and do not call on me when you can help yourself." Foolish people buy medicines hap-hazard, blindly trusting to promises made without a guarantee. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is guaranteed to cure colds, coughs, all lung affections and even consumption, in its early stages. It puts to rout all stomach troubles, purifies the blood, gives healthful action to the sluggish liver and drives blemishes from the skin. It is an honest medicine, and an invaluable health insurance policy which should never be allowed to lapse. All druggists keep it.

The Kilties.

On April 15 last year the first meeting to consider the formation of a kilted regiment for Toronto was held in Temperance Hall. Exactly a year afterwards the uniforms were issued to the company officers by Captain Adams, the quartermaster. On Saturday the officers issued the outfits to the men and showed them how to put them on. As proud as Punch were the men when they were thus arrayed. Some of them blushed as the small boys in crowds followed after them in anything but mute admiration of the bare knees. Excitement is high as to the first grand march-out next Sunday, when to the thrilling notes of the bagpipes they will proceed to church, kilts and all.

James Cullen, Pool's Island, N.F., writes: "I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of nose; while not a few of my rheumatic neighbors (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

The Last and Best of the Season.

The concert announced for Wednesday evening next by the choir of Carlton-street Methodist church promises to be one of the very best local concerts of the season. Mrs. Caldwell, Mr. Harold Jarvis, Mr. S. H. Clark, elocutionist, Mr. T. W. Chattoe, a rising young baritone, Master Bertie Plaut, cornetist, and other well-known artists will take part in the program. Mrs. Caldwell and Mr. Harold Jarvis will each contribute three selections, and Mr. S. H. Clark will recite his masterpiece, "The Chariot Race," from Ben Hur, and another number. Mrs. Scrimger-Massie, Mrs. Cameron, Miss Maude Snarr, Mr. Sims Richards and Mr. Cameron will also be heard in solo numbers.

Carleton Opera Co. To-morrow Night.

The famous W. T. Carleton Opera Company will fill a three nights' engagement at the Academy of Music, beginning to-morrow. The opera to be produced is Strauss' "Indigo." This is one of the most successful of the operas Mr. Carleton has ever had on the stage, and the production has met with wonderful success wherever he has appeared. The Carleton company is one of the best known in the country, and his name is a trade mark for success in every way. Special arrangements have been made for the presentation of this opera to the music-loving public of Toronto and the public will not be disappointed. The sale of seats is now on.

Roland Reed.

Manager Sheppard will to-night be the recipient of a benefit at the hands of his many friends. Roland Reed, the popular comedian, will then begin his week's engagement by a presentation of his new comedy, "The Club Friend," which has been one of the crowning successes of his career. It has been received with great favor both by the press and public throughout the large cities of the States and has at once placed him foremost in the ranks of legitimate comedians. The play abounds in happy human touches and is filled with bright and witty lines and amusing situations. Mr. Reed's company is the strongest that has ever assisted him on any of his tours, among its number being: Isadore Rush, Edna Wallace, Cecile James, Mary Myers, Geo. F. Nash, Albert Roberts, Chas. A. Smily, Julian Reed, Wm. Davidge, James Douglas.

Multum in Parvo.

"Much in little," is a term that certainly can be properly applied to the delegation of Lilliputians that are engaged to appear at Moore's Musee Theatre under the title of the American Star Lilliputian Comedy Company during this week. No doubt many Torontonians will remember this organization. At the first part of this season they appeared at the Academy of Music. Then prices ranging from 50 cents to $1.50 were charged, and on this account many of our citizens and their families were prevented from seeing their really meritorious performance. James H. Moore of the Musee Theatre, recognizing the merit of the entertainment, has engaged at an almost incredible amount of money the host of little people that are noted throughout the length and breadth of the land to entertain his patrons during this week.

Admiral Dot and little Major Atom, who for years have been drawing magnets with the great P.T. Barnum's show and who are actors of no mean order, will be in two of the leading roles of the farce-comedy the little people use as a medium to introduce their talents.

Jennie Magley, Sadie Bilton, Lottie Smartweed and La Petite Kitter are the female members of the company, and they thoroughly understand how to entertain and attract.

Alfred Hembler, the happy little German comedian, appears in his specialty and also plays a part in the comedy in a very acceptable manner.

The main attraction in the curio hall will be the only live gorilla in captivity. Its name is Angora, its sex is male, and although not the peer intellectually of the monkey, is a curiosity on account of its massive proportions. He measures four and a half feet and weighs 135 pounds.

The Musee patrons will be pleased to hear of the return of Nero, the clay moulder, and the far-famed Musical Damm Family. In all the Musee show will be a corker and all should see it.

Manager Sheppard's Benefit To-night.

To-night Manager Sheppard takes his annual benefit at the Grand Opera House, when Roland Reed will present his great comedy success "The Club Friend." Apart from the excellence of the performance Manager Sheppard should have a bumper house, as he has catered well for the amusement-loving citizens of Toronto. It is doubtful if any manager in America has played more really good attractions than has Mr. Sheppard during his management of the Grand Opera House.

The Bottom of the Sea.

This big spectacle will be presented at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House, commencing to-night with usual matinees during the week. The play is replete with thrilling situations, wonderful mechanical effects, good acting and clever scenic changes.

Notes.

Mercantile Lodge No. 81 S.O.E.B.S. holds a concert in the Auditorium to-night. A good program is assured and the house will doubtless be well filled.

The annual concert and assault-at-arms of the Army and Navy Veterans will be held to-night in the Academy of Music. The concert has the highest patronage, and as the object of the performance is a charitable one—to replenish the sick funds—there should be a crowded house.

Miss Marie Tempest met with a little accident at the Academy on Saturday night. She was finishing her solo at the end of the second act, and unknowingly stepped on a little too far. When the curtain came down the heavy roller struck her on the head, and partially stunned her for the time. The crowd cheered until the curtain was rung up again, and Miss Tempest came forward, showing that she had not been seriously injured.

A Chief of Police.

There is no body of men more liable to suffer from exposure than the police. But as an example of how they get rid of their maladies, the following is cited: Green Island, N.Y., U.S.A., Feb. 11, 1889: "I suffered with neuralzia in the head, but found instant relief from the application of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured me." E. P. Bellinger, Chief of Police.

SHOWED HOW THEY HONORED HIM.

Interesting Presentation By the Employes of Gordon, Mackay & Co.

On Saturday afternoon last an ominous ringing of the department electric bells from the counting room of Messrs. Gordon, Mackay & Co. indicated that something of more than ordinary occurrence was on the tapis. The summons seemed peremptory; for in an instant every employe of the house hied himself to the woolen department to await events.

They did not wait long ere Mr. A. G. Malcolm, the firm's head bookkeeper, escorted by Mr. J. A. Browne, also of the counting room, put in an appearance with looks which betokened wonderment at least. Mr. W. J. McMaster, as spokesman, asked Mr. Malcolm to come forward, and on behalf of the employes of the house expressed the gratification felt by one and all at the interest taken in them and the business of the house by Mr. Malcolm since his association with them, and that having heard of his approaching marriage they desired to show their appreciation by asking him to accept as a token of their regard a cabinet of cutlery.

The recipient was more than surprised and found it difficult to express his gratitude and pleasure at their kind, opportune and most considerate gift.

The cabinet is a black walnut, elegantly inlaid with satin wood and lined with blue satin and contained four dozen dinner, dessert, tea and fruit spoons, two dozen of white ivory-handled knives with forks to match, two sets carvers, sugar spoon, tongs and butter knife, all of solid silver. On the cover is a silver plate with this inscription: "Presented to Augustus Grant Malcolm by the employes of Gordon, Mackay & Co. on the occasion of his marriage. Toronto, 20th April, 1892."

Their Pathetic Appeal.

At the last meeting of the Alexandra Industrial School Board the following resolution was passed unanimously: "The members of this board have learned with sincere regret of an attention to be paid to the department known as the morality department of the Toronto police force. They feel it their duty to respectfully protest against such interference and to state that such action will most seriously injure the efficient working of this Industrial school. The services of Staff-Inspector Archabold have been simply invaluable. He has always removed the board knows not where to look for an officer to make the needed investigations and inquiries, and give the help required in the difficult and complicated cases with which it is necessary continually to deal. His services are absolutely indispensable to the successful carrying on of this institution, therefore the Board of Police Commissioners are most earnestly requested to retain this most important department of the Toronto police force."

Educational Convention.

In connection with the educational convention during the week the Mathematical and Physical Association of the province will organize and hold its first meetings in the Normal School buildings, Gould-street. The association will be composed of all engaged in the active teaching of mathematics and physics in the universities, colleges and high schools of Ontario. Addresses will be delivered on Monday evening by Dr. McLellan, principal of the Provincial School of Pedagogy; Prof. Alfred Baker, University of Toronto; William J. Loudon, M.A., of University College, and A. DeCourcy, mathematical master of Galt Collegiate Institute. Several important matters in connection with the subjects of mathematics and physics will be discussed at the different sittings through the week, of which due notice will be given. Major Manley has been acting secretary pro tem, and will be glad to answer any inquiries.

Prisoners' Aid Association of Canada.

The monthly meeting of this association was held in the office of Mr. Hamilton Cassels, Bank of British North America building, Mr. W. H. Howland in the chair. The reports read showed that during the month of March 186 prisoners were discharged from our city prisons. Forty-three ex-prisoners were aided by the association, the assistance given consisting of meals, lodgings, provisions, rent, railway fares, clothing and tools. Situations or work had been found for 12 and seven families supplied with provisions. In addition to 59 visits to the friends and families of prisoners, the agent and Bible woman have made 26 visits to the prisons during the month. Before separating the board passed a resolution in favor of the Morality Department of the police force.

Inside History of Bismarck's Fall.

HAMBURG, April 16.—Prince Bismarck's newspaper organ, The Hamburger Nachrichten, says that there was at one time a proposal that Bismarck was to resign the offices of Prussian Premier and Imperial Foreign Minister, which were to be taken respectively by Count von Caprivi and Count Herbert Bismarck, the prince remaining Imperial Chancellor. The scheme offered so many difficulties that it was abandoned and Bismarck was dismissed. This is interesting in view of Caprivi's recent resignation of the Prussian Premiership.

"Labby" Doesn't Want Women to Vote

LONDON, April 16.—Henry Labouchere is organizing a strong whip against the Woman Suffrage Bill introduced by Sir Albert Kaye Rollit. It is reported that Labouchere has already secured the support of Mr. Gladstone, Sir W. Harcourt, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Henry James and Lord Randolph Churchill. Mrs. Fawcett writes a long letter to the newspapers in favor of the bill.

Died While Telling a Funny Story.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 16.—Friends of George W. Reynolds, the New York traveling salesman who dropped dead while eating dinner in Boyle's restaurant, No. 5 Calhoun-place, on Monday evening, say that a diamond stud valued at $400 was taken from the body before the arrival of the police. The evidence at the inquest showed that Reynolds died while telling a funny story.

CELEBRATING THE RESURRECTION.

Easter Day in the Churches—Glorious Weather Tempts Thousands Out In New Spring Attire.

A bright blue sky, golden sunshine, crisp cool air, new headgear galore, floral decorations of person and sanctuary, jubilant music, generous offerings, resurrection themes—and the story of yesterday is told.

The Catholics Are Foremost.

Easter Sunday is always a day of joy in the Catholic churches. It marks the resurrection of Christ and all the faithful unite in praising His name. It also marks the end of the Lenten season and the conclusion of fasts and abstinence. This year the Lenten season has not weighed very heavily on the members of the Catholic Church, at least so far as fasting was concerned, for the Pope's encyclical suspended most of the Lenten rules. Easter Sunday, however, was none the less welcome, and gladness was stamped on the faces of those who briskly walked to church on yesterday's sunny morn.

The churches were never so beautifully decorated. Myriads of lights twinkled between a profusion of choicest flowers and the whole scene was one not soon to be forgotten. St. Michael's is the mother Catholic Church of the city. Here all the faithful, or as many as can get inside, attend on all great festivals. Yesterday was no exception, for the cathedral was crowded throughout the day. In the morning Gounod's Mass of the Sacred Heart was sung by a full choir with orchestra. At the Offertory Confirma Hoc Deus was well rendered by Mr. Anglin.

It is at night, however, that St. Michael's looks its best. The lights shine forth brilliantly, the flowers send forth their sweet odor, the figured windows stand radiantly in the dimmer but handsomely painted walls, and when strains of sweet music float down from the lofty gallery the effect is just about as near being heavenly as it is possible to have it on earth. Hundreds were turned away from the edifice last night and among the fortunate ones who got inside there were just about as many Protestants as Catholics. Rev. Father Williams preached an eloquent sermon commemorative of the festival, and Gounod's Vespers were sung by the fullchoir, Miss McCauley very feelingly rendered the "O Salutaris." The other soloists were Mr. Durham, "Cujus Animam," and Mr. Anglin, "Ave Maria." Lambilotte's "Tantum Ergo" in G minor was sung very creditably by the choir.

A Specimen Service.

All Saints' was beautifully decorated with flowers yesterday morning, the atmosphere being suffused with their perfume. The musical service was excellent, the choir, led by Mr. W. E. Fairclough, being largely augmented and supplemented by an orchestra of 12 pieces. Among the anthems were Charles Vincent's "As It Began to Dawn," and Stainer's "They Have Taken Away My Lord." Rev. J. O. Miller, M.A., principal of Bishop Ridley College, St. Catharines, preached in the morning and the Bishop of Algoma in the evening.

The New Socialism.

The Carlton-street Methodist Church was crowded last night, when the pastor, Rev. James Henderson, preached his second sermon on "Christian Socialism." The preacher spoke in eloquent phrases of the time when all men shall be brothers and the Fatherhood of God shall be universally acknowledged.

Hymns appropriate to the day were sung, and after the benediction had been pronounced the choir rendered the Hallelujah chorus (Messiah) with splendid effect.

A Pulpit Witticism.

At the Immanuel Baptist Church last evening the pastor, Rev. J. Denovan, in commenting on the lesson for the evening, said: "This is the gospel according to Philip, the evangelist. I am sorry to say it is one of the passages Rev. Mr. Phillips bases his arguments upon; but we ought to be glad that we have at least one orthodox Philip." This remark seemed to tickle the congregation, and the smile that went around the pews was almost audible. Eloquently the veteran Baptist pastor proceeded to show that "substitution," the doctrine impugned by Mr. Phillips, is at the basis of the believer's pardon and justification.

St. Mark's, Parkdale.

This church was crowded at both morning and evening services. The music, particularly the chanting and anthems, was remarkably good and the fine choir of some 40 voices, under Mr. Newhook's direction, were quite up to their reputation. Mr. Kennedy presided at the organ. The church was most tastefully decorated with flowers. The rector, Rev. C. L. Ingles, preached at both services.

Easter Flowers for the Sick Little Ones.

A children's floral service was held in the Elm-street Methodist Church yesterday morning. The children of the school marched into the church bearing the wreaths of flowers, and after the service carried them to the Sick Children's Hospital. The music by the choir fully sustained their previous record.

Their 19th Anniversary.

The Sunday School of the Sherbourne-street Methodist Church held its 19th anniversary yesterday. The services were conducted morning and evening by Rev. G. R. Turk. The choir, aided by 50 little girls, gave special music for the occasion. Master Arthur Hawker sang "Our Ascended Lord" and "Hail Thou Arisen." The platform was prettily dressed with hydrangea and other floral decorations.

CHRIST NOT OUR SUBSTITUTE.

Methodists Take a Wrong View Through Fossilized Expressions of Evangelists.

Another large congregation attended Euclid-avenue Methodist Church last evening when the pastor, Rev. A. M. Phillips, preached on the Atonement, taking for his text I. John iv., 19: "We love Him because He first loved us." The reverend gentleman stated that he had uttered no sentiments from that pulpit that he desired to take back. [Applause.] He felt that Methodists generally took an unmethodistic conception of the Atonement. This conception is due to the fossilized expressions that are preached by evangelists and others, and is also brought about by the reading of tracts and singing of hymns. Misconception has arisen from not recognizing the universal fatherhood of God and through the conceiving of the Atonement from the Godward side instead of looking at the manward side. It is clear from scripture that Christ was manifest in the human nature for the purpose of revealing God as an everlasting father. Christ died because he partook of our flesh and was in the likeness of sinful human nature. Mr. Phillips illustrated by example the conception of the Atonement that he desired the congregation to take, which conception was that we must see in Christ not our substitute, but we must see in him the love of God, and through the Father the forgiveness of sin.

In concluding the reverend gentleman stated that next Sunday evening he would deliver his last sermon on the Atonement.

A SHOW OF MINERALS.

Which Canada is Sending to Represent Her Mineral Wealth in Britain.

Sending coals to Newcastle is a commercial operation that extends further than that North of England town; it is found in Canada, as a World reporter concluded when he had seen the fine collection of Canadian minerals which Mr. David Boyle is packing for sending to the Imperial Institute in London and to Chicago. "We'll send to Chicago what we have left over from London," said Mr. Boyle. The room at 58 Victoria is filled with specimens in the best conditions, and the closer inspection the better the impressions.

The large display of granite is the first that takes the eye. The specimens are in various shapes, some in highly polished cubes and cylinders, but the general shape is a cube or slab, highly polished on one or two sides, and the others showing the natural aspect of the stone. The North Shore of Lake Superior furnishes most of the specimens, though Cornwall contributes some beautiful pieces of intensely black granite, and Kingston has a fine deep red variety. The colors vary, light grey, almost white, light red, or mahogany stone as it is called, from Black Bay, and the beautiful Penessie marble. The colors of some of the specimens are exceedingly beautiful, shading from purple to white. Allied to these are some specimens of "puddingstone," a remarkably beautiful stone from Rleylstone, in the northwest corner of Northumberland, a discovery the credit of which belongs to Mr. Boyle.

The metals are well represented, there being five specimens of gold, silver, copper, iron, graphite and nickel ore. One of the pieces of silver ore has 85 per cent. of silver. The Sudbury mines send nickel ore and the partially refined mixture of nickel and copper, as it is sent to Wales to be further refined and to have the metals separated. Ash Bay, Addington county, contributes very rich graphite or blacklead. The iron and copper ores are very good.

Other things contributed are soapston of excellent quality, the finest kavlin, from which porcelain is made, feldspar, specimens of various kinds, lignite and numerous other species of useful minerals. Crystals of hornblende and of phosphate of lime, and some very fine specimens of agate are among the ornamental stones. Specimens of mineral waters are to be forwarded, and altogether Canada will make an excellent showing at the new institute that is to be a standing monument to the riches the British Empire.

With all these mineral riches in her borders, Canada imports foreign minerals, especially granites. A little enterprise would enable her to supply herself, while now it is a case of faraway birds having fine feathers.

A Prosperous Business College.

Being always anxious to advance the interests of all educational movements in this great centre of grand privileges, we are only too desirous to draw the attention of our readers to what is now without doubt one of the finest institutions for preparing young men and women for practical positions, where they can lend their aid in turning Canada's great wheel of education and commerce. We refer to Barker & Spence's Shorthand and Business School of this city. For some time this widely and favorably-known business college has had its headquarters in very fine rooms over the Army and Navy, King-street east, but being very anxious to secure every comfort for the students, as well as locate themselves as near as possible to Toronto's largest commercial firms, in the majority of which their pupils are now to be found occupying splendid positions, the proprietors, Mr. J. W. Spence and Mr. James Harrison, have lately fitted up very commodious and attractive premises almost at the corner of King and Yonge-streets, at 12, 14 and 16 King-street west, where their future work, commencing to-morrow morning, is to be carried on. The enterprising proprietors, both of whom are experienced experts in what they teach, are ably assisted by an efficient corps of instructors, and judging from the high-class position a their graduates are called upon to fill Toronto can now point with pride to a model business and shorthand college, one that is supported by the leading commercial and literary educationists of Canada.

"Hotel Vendome," New York.

Toronto people visiting New York should make their home at the well-appointed and handsome "Hotel Vendome," corner of Broadway and Forty-first-streets. The "Hotel Vendome" is a short distance from the Grand Central depot, and has also direct car service from the West Shore and Erie Railway ferry docks. The "Vendome" is almost opposite the Metropolitan Opera House, and street cars pass the door from all theatres. Its appointments are perfection. Newly furnished and equipped from the ninth story down; it is the par excellence of comfort. The hotel contains two hundred and fifty rooms, single and en suite, with or without baths, and is conducted on both the European and American plan. In the hotel office will be found Mr. A. B. Craig (late of the Rossin House), who pays special attention to Canadian guests. The cafe is one of the handsomest in New York, and the dining-room, situated in the ninth story, cannot be surpassed in New York.

"Queer Knightly Capers."

Editor World: The Telegram of Wednesday published an account of alleged "Queer Knightly Capers," and therein stated what is wholly untrue and casts unwarranted reflections upon a large body of respectable citizens. The occasion was a smoking concert of Damon Lodge, K. of P., held in the old Town Hall, Parkdale. The Telegram characterizes them inferentially as house-breakers and burglars, "that their conduct was in keeping with tonight's, that the gathering was pandemonium let loose." They are charged with breaking into and ransacking the Masonic Hall on the top flat; that "nothing was sacred to them and that it was only at the approach of daylight and probable detection that they quit."

Mind, this is a most serious allegation to make. If true it brands the Knights of Pythias as unworthy of confidence or respect. With kind permission we desire to offer, on behalf of that lodge and their guests on that occasion, the following statement:

We hear from police authority that the robbery in question consisted in somebody stealing nine bottles of ale from a supply kept by the Masons in their room above the town hall. The Knights of Pythias, by their laws, are prohibited from using any liquors or serving them in their lodge room. On this occasion their liquid refreshments consisted of coffee and lemonade, nor did a guest or any member of the order have anything else.

As the committee of the entertainment we remained until our guests retired at 1.30 a.m. The lessee of the building locked the hall occupied by us, and neither a Knight of Pythias nor a Mason, of which many were present, remained after that time.

We are quite prepared to leave it to the large number of Masons and society men not of our order who were present as guests to say whether or no there was any ungentlemanly conduct during the whole evening. We believe that the street door of the building remained unlocked all night, for which our order is in no way responsible.

We further say that it is a stretch of imagination to conclude that Knights of Pythias who are not in the habit of being in the building should know where liquors were kept under lock and key. The Telegram's statement is devoid of any foundation in fact.

We fully agree with those who think that the guilty parties should be exposed and punished, irrespective of what society they belong to.

Signed on behalf of the committee:

J. INGLIS (Sec.).

AND

Why They Did the Largest Shoe Business in the Dominion Explained:

Because their goods were invariably purchased for cash, in larger quantities than any retail house, equally as large as any jobbing house; there was no middle house between them and their customers; they sold at jobbing prices, consequently from 25 to 30 per cent. less than any other retail house could pretend to do; they had only one price for rich or poor, and finally there was no boot, shoe or slipper manufactured that they did not keep in stock.

Why Guinane Bros. Are Sure This Enormous Business Will Continue to Increase:

Because they have taken advantage of the disastrous condition of the shoe trade and made their spring purchases for cash at such prices as will enable them to discount any offers they have ever before made to the public, and also that, in consequence of the great clearing out of stock at their late sale, the spring goods will consist of the very latest styles fresh from the manufacturers; that whatever remains of the old stock will be run off regardless of cost; that the stock will still continue to be complete in every style, quality, size, shape and novelty known to the shoe trade; that all sales will be made in the interest and for the satisfaction of the customers; that our attention and courtesy to customers will be redoubled, and because we have again renewed our determination to do the largest shoe trade in the world. With this end in view there is nothing known that can stop the progress of
