Proportion is one of the most particular branches of our trade; without it a Monument cannot look well. This is one of the places where some competitors are continually going astray.

We do not import condemned stock full of cracks and stains because it is cheap, but we pay the right price and get the right goods.

Before and Since Liberal Rule.

Total expenditure for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, the last year of Conservative rule, $4,702,382; for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, the total expenditure was $5,713,810; estimated expenditure for the current fiscal year $5,312,527.

A WINNIPEG despatch of the 28th inst. says: C. H. Campbell, attorney general of Manitoba, is re-elected by a splendid majority in Morris. At the general election in 1898 Campbell was returned with a majority of 100. On Saturday night, with five distant polls to bear from, which will increase his majority, the attorney-general had a majority of 318. It will swell to 400 at least. This election became necessary in consequence of Mr. Campbell taking the office of Attorney-General in succession to Hon. Hugh John McDonald in the reconstructed Manitoba Cabinet. Morris is not a large constituency, and prior to the elections of 1899 was represented by a supporter of Greenway. It will therefore be seen that a majority increased from 100 in 1899 to 400 in 1900 just on the eve of a Dominion general election means a sweep for the Conservatives in that Province.

Mr. H. O. Lisle, barrister, Dawson City, while passing through Winnipeg on his way to England on business, was interviewed by the Telegram, and among other things declared:—

"I have read the report of Sir Herbert Tupper's speech at Brandon in regard to Yukon matters. Sir Herbert Tupper did not state one-tenth of what he might have truly said in regard to the matter in which the administration of affairs has been conducted there since the rush to the gold fields commenced. The manner in which the officials have acted and in which they are simply shocking to anyone accustomed to British ideas of government."

Mr. Lisle is an Englishman with no particular interest in Canadian politics, and hence able to give an unprejudiced view of Yukon affairs. The interview referred to is a long one, but we hope to find room for it in The Herald within a day or two. Of the truth of the charges of maladministration there is not a particle of doubt. Not a man returns from the Yukon who does not privately assure his friends that affairs out there have been worse than any account that has ever been written of them.—Halifax Herald.

Bright Prospects of Victory.

But one week now remains till the electors of Canada shall have the privilege of determining by their ballots which of the two great political parties shall control the Government of the Dominion for the next five years. The issues before the people have been pretty thoroughly discussed in the press and on the public platform, and it is reasonable to suppose that almost every intelligent elector has by this time fully made up his mind as to how he will cast his ballot. It does not appear to us that any one, still in doubt, should have any difficulty in arriving at a safe and sure conclusion regarding the candidate and the party for whom he should vote. An honest comparison of the promises and performances of the Laurier Government cannot fail to convince an unbiased elector that they have forfeited public confidence and deserve to be driven from power. Let any elector who hesitates in his determination to vote against the Government, reason with himself in this fashion: When the Liberals sought our votes in 1896 they solemnly promised to reduce the public debt; but they have increased it. They promised to reduce the expenditure; instead of that they have increased it by many millions a year. They promised to reduce taxation, and they have increased it by several millions of dollars. They proclaimed themselves the party of political purity and in the face of this have been guilty of the most outrageous election scandals in the Brockville, West Huron and other elections, and the Government threw the shield of their protection over the guilty perpetrators. They condoned the scandalous wrong inflicted upon our soldiers in the emergency rationing scandal. In short, they have trampled under foot every promise of reform made before the election, and have prostituted every principle of political justice and honesty. The evidence of all this is spread broadcast on the political records of Canada for the last four years, and every honest and unbiased elector must conclude, after reasoning the matter out, that a party capable of so flagrantly violating its pledges and promises and sacrificing all principle at the shrine of political expediency, is unworthy of the further confidence of the Canadian electorate. As a further proof of the Government's unworthiness, it is only necessary to look about and see the defections from their ranks in all parts of the Dominion. Scarcely a day passes but we hear of one or more life-long Liberals, leading members of the party, severing their connection with the Government's side and throwing in their lot with the Conservatives. These are intelligent and practical men and can no longer allow themselves to remain in a false position. They remained with their party as long as possible; but seeing matters going from bad to worse, felt compelled to make the plunge. Following is a short extract from Mr. H. H. Cook's written opinion of the Government: "The record of our party while it has been in power under its present leaders is one long, shameful story of promises unfulfilled and broken; of reckless extravagance; of jobbery and corruption; and of utterly disgraceful betrayal of every principle for which a party stood. For the purpose of securing themselves in office the men who have been entrusted with positions of leadership have brought disgrace upon our party and dishonor upon the name of Liberalism." There are many others, as well as Mr. Cook, who perceive the rash quality of which the Government is guilty, although perhaps they have not expressed themselves so openly. But when the day of election comes, these are most likely to mark their ballot against the Laurier Government. The signs of Conservative victory are everywhere in the air; from every province comes the strongest evidence that the Government are losing ground, and the prospects are bright for a sweeping Conservative victory. The result of the by-election in the constituency of Morris, in Manitoba, which we publish elsewhere, may be taken as an evidence of the manner in which Hugh John McDonald is going to sweep that province on the 7th of November. In our own province our cause is gaining strength every day, and the prospects are bright for sending five Conservatives to support Sir Charles Tupper. It is the duty of every intelligent independent elector to go early to the polls and cast his ballot against the corrupt and deceitful Laurier Government.

Are the Charges True?

That politically independent Journal Events, published at Ottawa and Toronto, offers a very proper comment on Mr. Cook's manifesto. It says:—"Mr. H. Cook, ex-M. P., a distinguished Liberal who has turned on the Laurier government, is occupying a good deal of the attention of politicians. His manifesto is a lengthy document, and in it he goes for the government in no mild way. He charges them with having broken every pledge they ever made, and he proves his charge right out of their own mouths. No Liberal, who is true to the history and principles of the Liberal party can, he says, support the men who now preside over its destinies, and the reason why they cannot support them is that, in doing so, they will become sharers in the perjury of their leaders. The reply that the Liberal organs make to this is that Mr. Cook wanted a senatorship which he did not get, and now he is sore on the party and is taking this way to get even. This is a heavy argument indeed. It is an argument, too, that could have been used against Mr. Tarte at the time of the Langevin scandal, when he was sore because the Conservatives would not come to his terms. Yet Mr. Tarte's charges were true and were proven, and way no one cared what his reasons
