(To the St. John Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 7.

Antioch, in Syria, on the 3rd inst., was destroyed by an earthquake.

Fifteen hundred persons were instantly killed, as many more fatally wounded.

Thousands are suffering from wounds and bruises, while survivors are homeless.

The earthquake extended over other sections of the kingdom, but no reports of such disastrous results as at Antioch are received.

The Queen returned, landing at Ports mouth this morning.

O Connor's trial for his attack on the Queen commences Wednesday. The prisoner has not secured counsel.

It is probable the trial will be postponed, as the conviction gains he is insane.

It is again stated that Thiers and Von Arnim are soon to negotiate for the evacuation of France by the Germans.

The latest returns to the Spanish Cortes give Ministerialists 229, Coalitionists 137, Doubtful 18.

There is terrible anarchy everywhere in Mexico.

An easterly rainstorm occurred in New York and New England on Sunday.

Merchants' Exchange.

The following despatches were received at the Exchange to-day:—

Montreal, April 6.—Flour at Liverpool, 26s. a 26s. 6d. Red Wheat, 10s. 8d. a 11s.

New York Flour Market firmer; common to good Exchange State $6 85 a $7.50.

Pork firm, $13.12 new.

Grain freights 4d.

Montreal Flour Market quiet. Western State and Welland Canal Superfine, $5.90 a $5.95.

New York, April 8.—No Gold reports.

Shop Breaking.

The stores of Oliver Emery & Co., F. Tufts, on the South Wharf, and C. M. Bostwick's, on Water street, were this morning discovered to have been entered. Drawers had been forced, but little either of money or goods, had been taken. Some tobacco stolen from Emery's was found in Bostwick's, and a better quality appropriated in its stead.

The Escape of the Czar.

A great deal has been said both in Russia and in foreign journals about the narrow escape of the Czar while hunting on the 16th of January. The correct version appears to be, that on the day in question during a hunt, the Emperor, accompanied by a party of sportsmen, came on the track of a bear; in the battue which followed, the animal emerged from a thick part of the forest and advanced with such rapidity directly towards the spot at which the Emperor was stationed that the latter had only time to fire two shots—one of which struck the bear in the shoulder. He fell, but immediately rose again and rushed furiously onward in the same direction. The Emperor, not having time either to reload the gun in his hand or to procure another, in order to avoid the animal stepped on one side. At the same instant two of the huntsmen stationed near his Majesty, seeing his imminent danger, rushed to the spot. One ran his spear into the bear, while the other effectually despatched the beast by a shot through the head.

Torn to Pieces.

The interesting spectacle of a human creature being torn to pieces by infuriated lions has again been witnessed by a circus audience. On Tuesday evening a tamer named Joseph Whittle, while performing in a lion's den at Frankford, Penn. lost control of the animals, and was immediately thrown down and his body so terribly lacerated that he is not expected to live. In December last there was just such a scene enacted in the Market-place of Bolton, England. Still later, at Philadelphia, an audience at Forepaugh's circus was entertained in a similar way; but luckily the tamer by an extraordinary effort of will, coupled with a rare presence of mind, threw himself upon the floor of the den and remained as if dead until the manager was enabled to save his life. In the face of numerous experiences of this kind it is a matter for surprise that these disgusting exhibitions are not prevented by the authorities.
