THE T. EATON Co., (LIMITED)

190 Yonge-street, Aug. 7.

Store closes to-day at 5 o'clock.

Immense Variety:

Half the people in Toronto don't know this store as it deserves to be known. Half the people in Canada have no conception of its vastness.

Think of everything a self-respecting dry goods store should keep and many novelties that nine out of ten don't keep. Then add—

—Groceries
—Bicycles
—Harness
—Tinware
—Glassware
—Crockeryware
—Hardware
—Furniture
—Carpets
—House Furnishings
—Sporting Goods
—Books and Stationery

and every kind of clothing for everybody from Shoes to Silk Hats—add these things to the immense assortment of Dry Goods and it helps one comprehend just what we are.

Shoppers are reminded that this store is the largest in Canada—the greatest in regard to range of stock, number of employes, extent of selling space and the record of daily business. We're glad at all times to meet strangers, a visit here meaning vastly more than buying goods. It is an education in itself to study the large assembly of bright new things brought together for your use and enjoyment. People are welcome to come and go at will. No obligation to buy unless you want to.

Just an Instance:

We sell good shoes cheap—very cheap! Here's a sample:

—Ladies' Kid Oxford Shoes, all sizes and newest styles, made to sell at $1.75, special at 95c and that, too, in the face of a rising market. Shoes are costing more because leather is dearer and manufacturers want bigger profits. But if there's a possible chance to figure prices down you may depend on our doing it.

Furniture Sale:

Enormous distribution of brand new goods. Prices whittled down to bare cost. It's the best kind of an advertisement to be able to sell—

—$1.00 Chairs at 60c.
—$1.25 Chairs at 90c.
—$5.00 Tables at $3.25.
—$8.00 Sideboards at $5.90.

and so on. You simply can't afford to ignore this sale. Over an acre of new Furniture at very special prices. Biggest enthusiasm we have ever known in housefurnishings.

"ALMOST PERSUADED"

In a recent issue, The Christian Guardian announced that the Methodist Conference had declared itself in favor of the following principle:

"Against any grants from the public funds for the endowment or support of any purely ecclesiastical or sectarian institutions."

The Methodist Church, being pledged to this doctrine, The World a few days ago asked the editor of its official organ why it was that the conference hadn't enjoined all the churches under its control to refuse the money which they annually accept from the state in the shape of exemption from municipal taxation. The Jarvis-street Baptist Church is in the habit of paying into the city treasury over $1000 a year, which it acknowledges it should pay as its fair share of taxes chargeable against this particular church. The World asked the editor of The Guardian why he didn't urge upon the Methodist Churches to do the same thing, especially since they are pledged to oppose any grants from the public funds for ecclesiastical or sectarian institutions. The new editor of The Guardian has the reputation of being an argumentative chap, one who can reason about a thing and give a logical verdict. We are sorry to state that his article on this question does not harmonize with his reputation. True it is he makes an attempt to refute our contention, but he does not do so by means of logical argument. It is a sad sight to witness a brand new editor sacrificing his reputation on the altar of prejudice when a brilliant career might be open to him if he were to accept common sense as his mentor through life.

We will briefly examine his defence of church exemptions. Before answering the question at issue, the editor thinks it pertinent to ask how The World stands in regard to exemptions generally, "whether the inspiration of its crusade is a general conviction against all exemptions, or a special animus against the churches." We may state in reply that our crusade is against all exemptions, without distinction. We doubt if we would even exempt graveyards, although General Grant, when he declared himself, made this one exception. There are certain institutions in regard to which it is a matter of indifference whether we tax them or not. Public Schools, municipal buildings, public (not private) hospitals are of this nature. These should be exempt. But, as a matter of fact, such buildings are not exempt. As a matter of fact, we do pay taxes on Public Schools and on municipal buildings, and every ratepayer contributes his share of them in exact proportion to his assessment. If we hadn't to maintain sidewalks, sewers and roadways for the Public Schools, our taxes would be just so much less. The taxes we pay on these buildings are exactly this difference, and every ratepayer pays his fair share of them.

There are several reasons why we make a point of telling the churches from time to time that they should refuse to avail themselves of the exemption privilege. First of all, they make public profession of a doctrine which of itself ought to prove to them the inconsistency of their conduct. Secondly, The World knows that religion will not mix well with politics, in Canada at least. We believe in the absolute separation of church and state, and we intend to hew to this line and let the chips fall where they may. Religion in politics is the curse of this country. It is at the bottom of the Manitoba school question and of a hundred other troubles that from time to time have distracted this Canada of ours. When the French Catholics come to Ottawa and demand that the Catholic religion shall be incorporated into the Manitoba school system, we oppose them. When Methodist and Presbyterian clergymen combine to incorporate a religious enactment in the statute respecting Sunday observance we oppose them, and will oppose them till the objectionable features are removed. So, too, when the clergymen of Ontario go to the Government and ask to have their taxes remitted because they are Christians, we oppose them, and we will keep on opposing them. There is only one way to harmonize this country. Religion must be entirely eliminated from politics—not partially, or almost, but entirely. The attitude of the Methodist denomination on this question reminds us of the hymn, "Almost Persuaded." If it were not for their attachment to this one little sin of exemptions, they would be converted. As it is, they are as far out of the fold as was the certain rich man who lacked the one thing essential to his salvation.

Here is The Guardian's reason why churches should be exempted from paying taxes:

"Churches are not income-earning institutions. They hold property which they do not wield in the market, but set apart from ordinary commercial and productive enterprises, and dedicated to Almighty God and His worship. They are free to all classes. As the property is definitely taken out of the commercial field, and earns nothing for those who hold it in trust, it ought not to pay taxes."

According to this argument, all institutions that are not income-earning should not pay taxes. Under this ruling the Toronto Club and a score of other clubs should be exempt. They are not in the market, and are set apart from ordinary commercial and productive enterprises. It is straining the English language to say that churches are free to all classes. Nowadays you have to pay to go to a church pretty much as you have to pay to go to a theatre. But even admit that churches are free to all classes. That is not the point. All classes do not wish to avail themselves of the churches. Many people do not enter a church from one year's end to another, and this alleged freedom of the churches means nothing whatever to these people. They should not be taxed for a privilege which they repudiate, and which they will not accept, even if a bonus is held out to tempt them.

This is the injustice of the exemption privilege. It makes the people who do not go to church pay for the municipal conveniences of institutions in which they have no interest. No doubt they should go to church; but this is a free country, and they should not be exposed to a penalty because they choose to exercise their freedom in a way Brother Courtice and his friends do not approve of. If the church occupied the lofty pedestal originally designed for it, it would not hesitate for a moment to pay its just taxes. Instead of being forced to do its duty and to pay its way, the church ought to set a shining example to the rest of the community and take the initiative in doing justice. We had hoped that Brother Courtice was going to help to educate the conference up to this ideal. We are sorry to see him grovelling with the rest of them in the mire.

IS PARLIAMENTARY GOVERNMENT BEING IGNORED?

The Government at Ottawa, it would appear, is not disposed to trust Parliament, and not even the great bulk of the Conservative party, in connection with its railway policy. The recent legislation in connection with the Hudson Bay Railway was put through in a way that cannot commend itself to a people who believe in Parliamentary institutions and who believe in the supremacy of Parliament in connection with the government of the country. The Conservative members of the party were told that no legislation in connection with the Hudson Bay Road would be brought down until the party, as a party, had been consulted in caucus; and yet at the very last moment of the session, and when many members had left, a bill was brought down altering the terms of agreement with the Hudson Bay Railway; and now, immediately after Parliament is prorogued, an Order-in-Council is said to have been passed, increasing the mail subsidy of the Canadian Pacific Railway. It may be true that the legislation in regard to the Hudson Bay Railway was only an alteration of terms, and not of principle, and dealt with a vote that had been previously made by Parliament; and it also may be true that the Canadian Pacific Railway, as The Globe pointed out yesterday, may be justly entitled to the increased subsidy; but it is not good policy, it is not in the interests of the Conservative party, and it is not to the credit of the Government, that these measures have been put into effect as they have been. It would have been far better for the party, far better for parliamentary institutions, if the Government had come frankly down to Parliament in the recent session and stated what was their intention in regard to these two schemes, and after taking Parliament into their confidence had the necessary legislation voted by their followers, if not by the entire House. There is a parliamentary way of doing things and an unparliamentary way of doing things, and Sir Mackenzie Bowell, if he is really the head of the Administration, and responsible as Premier therefor, ought to see that what are well-recognized principles in constitutional government are not violated.

COAL AT $2 A TON.

A War in Fuel That Would Be Welcome

New York, Aug. 6.—The Morning Journal says: As a result of the daily increasing demoralization in coal rates caused by the coal carrying railroads, the individual anthracite operators have decided to take matters into their own hands.

It is anounced that they will forthwith place 1,000,000 tons of anthracite on the market at $2 a ton unless prompt action is taken by the coal carrying lines to restore prices and limit the output.

An Etobicoke Farmer Suing His Wife for $3500.

Thomas P. McConnell, a farmer of Etobicoke, loaned $3500 on a mortgage to T. P. Gracey and put it in his wife's name. She afterwards eloped with the hired man and took $3500 with her. Mr. McConnell yesterday entered an action to have the mortgage transferred and to recover the $3500 from his wife, who he believes, is living in Sault Ste. Marie.

Petition to Exclude the Japs.

San Francisco, Aug. 6.—The State Labor Commissioner has prepared a petition to Congress asking for the passage of a law to restrict the immigration of Japanese into the United States.

The fact is set forth that investigation of Japanese labor in this State proved that white labor is being supplanted by Coolie importations, and that unless relief is granted by Congress the white laborers will soon be forced out of the field.

It is the intention to have this petition signed in every part of the State and then forwarded to Washington as soon as Congres convenes.

Cholera Causes a Riot.

Vienna, Aug. 6.—A despatch from Tarnopeol, Austrian Galicia, states that cholera is raging in Rusian Podolia. The inhabitants resisted the erection of temporary hospitals for the accommodation of sufferers from the disease and began rioting, and it was found necessary to call out a body of troops to quell the disturbance.

Sleeplessness is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it. Sleep is the great restorer of a worried brain, and to get sleep cleanse the stomach from all impurities with a few doses of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, gelatine-coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

Canadian Fish Smugglers Fined.

Buffalo, Aug. 6.—Four Canadian fishermen conveying a boatload of fish across the Niagara River were recently arrested and the boat and cargo seized. The fishermen to-day paid a fine of $40 on the charge of smuggling fish into the United States, and their boat was released.

THE MASSACRED MISSIONARIES

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT DEMANDS IMMEDIATE REPARATION.

China Accedes to the Request and the Murderers Will Be Executed—A Strong Anti-European Feeling Renders the Position of All Foreigners Critical—The Massacre Deliberately Planned and as Deliberately Executed.

London, Aug. 6.—A despatch from China states, with reference to the massacre of Christians at Wasang, that the Chinese Government has issued imperative orders to the provincial authorities to search out and punish the persons guilty of the outrage. The Government deplores the event, which is most unfortunate for China.

The Daily Telegraph prints a despatch from Shanghai saying that Rev. H. S. Phillips of the English Church Misionary Society, witnessed the atrocities at Wasang, but was powerless to do anything to prevent them. The Chinese magistrate, the despatch also says, waited until the foreigners were murdered or had fled before he appeared. The massacre was carefully planned. There are about 1000 Chinese soldiers stationed at Kucheng, and they could have stopped the riot had the officials chosen to do so.

The same dispatch states that the American mission at Shashi, near Hankow, on the Yang Tse Kiang, has ben destroyed and its former occupants are fugitives. The American consul here has advised the missionaries in other parts of the country to retire.

A meeting of the foreign residents of Shanghai of all nationalities was held yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the China Association. Foreigners were urged to apeal, direct to the Governments of the various countries to secure reparation for the many outrages committed in the Chinese empire, especially for that at Wasang. Some of the speakers at this meeting declared that no confidence was to be placed in the diplomatic representatives at Pekin.

The American residents desire the appointment of a committee to enquire into the outrages in Szechuen and other inland provinces, apart from the British commission, and to be under the control of American Consul Jernigan. Mr. O'Connor, the British Minister, has given his assent to the proposition. The existing commission is composed of British Consul Tratman of Chung King, one missionary, the native prefect at Chengtu, the provincial treasurer and the provincial judge. All of the latter are regarded as having been implicated in the attacks upon foreigners.

These Canadian Methodist missionaries have been removed from Kucheng to Shanghai on account of the massacre: Rev. Dr. V. C. Hart, Rev. George Hartwell, wife and family; Rev. Jas. Endacott, wife and family; D. O. L. Kilborn, wife and child; Dr. D. W. Stephenson, wife and family; Dr. H. M. Hare, Misses Brackbill and Ford.

Plans Carried Out With Diabolical Cruelty

Foo Chow, Aug. 6.—The survivors of the massacre at Wasang, in the course of an interview to-day, said that the work of the mob had evidently been carefully planned, and all the arrangements made for the destruction of the mission stations and the killing or driving out of the foreigners were carried out with diabolical cruelty. The first attack was made while the missionaries were asleep and the charred bodies of some of the victims were found in the ruins of their burned homes.

A rumor was current in the city at midnight last night that further riots had occurred nearer to Foo Chow than Kucheng.

The foreign colony at Foo Chow will hold an indignation meeting this evening to protest against the commission of outrages upon foreigners, and to demand protection by the authorities. A similar meeting will be held to-morrow.

Hostile Feeling Towards Europeans

Shanghai, Aug. 6.—The Foo Chow correspondent of The Shanghai Mercury telegraphs to-day that the position of the Europeans there is critical, owing to the openly expressed hostile feeling of the natives towards them. The Chinese officials declare that in the event of an outbreak directed against foreigners they will not be able to help them. The province of Fo-Kien, in which are situated Kucheng and Foo-Chow, is in a state of rebellion.

The American mission house at Fung Foek has been burned, and gunboats have been telegraphed for to protect the foreign settlement there.

England's Demand for Reparation.

London, Aug. 6.—A despatch has been sent from the Foreign Office to Mr. O'Connor, British Minister at Pekin, instructing him to demand of the Government of China that it secure the safety of British subjects residing in that country. Mr. O'Connor has also been instructed to demand a full inquiry into the recent massacre at Kucheng, and the punishment of those found to be guilty of the crimes. In addition to the instructions sent to Mr. O'Connor, her Majesty's Consul at Kucheng has been ordered to make an independent inquiry into the massacres.

Britain's Demands Acceded To

London, Aug. 6.—Intelligence was received here this afternoon from China, stating that the Emperor and the Government had agreed to the demands made by Lord Salisbury, through Mr. O'Connor, the British Minister at Pekin, and that an Imperial proclamation had been issued ordering the capital punishment of the murderers. A military escort has also been ordered to protect the British Consul at Kucheng during his inquiry into the outrage.

Further Outrages

Washington, Aug. 6.—The State Department this afternoon received a despatch from Consul-General Jernigan, reporting further missionary outrages in China. The despatch follows: "Hixon (Consul) writes that American missionary property at Yungsuh burned. Details of Kucheng massacre horrible. Houses stealthily surrounded and sleeping ladies and children speared to death. Situation unsettled."

Mrs. Celeste Coon, Syracuse, N.Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's Pills, according to directions under the head of 'Dyspepsia or Indigestion.' One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose, without distressing me in the least." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required.

Bernard Lindman, Esq., Toronto.

Dear Sir,—It is now about three months ago since I first noticed that a cure of my rupture was being effected by the use of one of your Wilkinson Trusses, and now I am fully convinced that the cure is both complete and effectual. I have on several occasions within the last few weeks taken long walks without truss or support of any kind, and have every confidence that my rupture, which, as you are aware, was of a very severe description, is now permanently healed, and I can assure you that I feel deeply thankful for the beneficial results. I have already recommended your appliances to several of my friends similarly affected.

Yours very sincerely,

THE PROHIBITION APPEAL.

Edward Blake Argues on Behalf of the Brewers.

London, Aug. 6.—The hearing of the prohibition appeal by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, to decide whether the power to pass prohibitory liquor legislation belongs to the Federal or the Provincial authorities in Canada, was resumed to-day.

Hon. Edward Blake, Q.C., M.P., for Longford, argued in behalf of the Brewers' and Distillers' Association of Ontario, that whatever reason there might be for the prohibition of any trade, the power to prohibit such trade rested solely with the Dominion Parliament.

He further maintained that the Province possessed only the power to legislate in matters of purely local import, but admitted that the right to regulate the hours of sale in public houses might be left to the Province.

The further hearing of the argument was adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

Island and Wharves.

At Centre Island yesterday there was the usual crowd of picnickers, among them being the Emerald Beneficial Association, who are holding their annual games.

The city is full of visitors from all parts of the continent, and our American cousins continually express themselves as much pleased with Toronto, its dull Sunday excepted.

At Hanlan's a number of the followers of the bicycle are daily watching with interest the work of the professionals, who are training on the track.

There was a large excursion party here yesterday from Bridgeburg. They came on the Chicora and Chippewa. The Garden City left yesterday for Whitby and eastern ports in that vicinity. She will bring an excursion here to-day.

Members of Oakville Presbyterian Church and their friends came here on the Greyhound yesterday morning, going home at 5 in the afternoon.

British Wheat Crop.

London, Aug. 6.—The Mark Lane Express, in an article upon the wheat crop in Great Britain says that reports from the various districts in England show the yield this year to be 78.4 per cent. of the average. The yield in Wales is 50 per cent. of the average and in Scotland 83.1 per cent., making the entire crop for Great Britain 22 per cent. behind that of last year.

The harvest is now in progress, but the weather is unfavorable.

The Beauty of Health

Features don't matter so much. Most any features will do if the complexion is clear, the eyes bright and the lips rosy. Hearty, healthy wholesomeness is better than mere beauty of features. A face full of the glow of good health—full of the kindliness and good humor that health brings, is bound to be an attractive face—a face that will make friends. The face tells the story of the whole body. "Murder will out"—and so will "female weakness" and nervousness and other disorders peculiar to women.

If there is a drain on the system and strength, the record of it will show in the face. If there is nerve nagging "bearing-down" pains, dragging and pulling at the most sensitive organs in a woman's body, the face will show it. Abused nerves draw lines of care and worry on the face. Nervous prostration writes its warning on the face long before it comes. Sleeplessness, nervousness and debilitating drains make more wrinkles than age.

Nine-tenths of the sickness of women comes from some derangement of organs distinctly feminine. Nine-tenths of this sickness can be cured and avoided by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There is nothing miraculous about the "Favorite Prescription"—nothing supernatural.

It is the result of rational thought and study applied to medicine.

It has been prescribed by Dr. Pierce for over 30 years. It has made thousands of women healthy and happy, and has brought joy to thousands of homes.

In "female weakness" it acts directly and strongly in healing and strengthening the parts that are most severely tried. It clears out impurities and promotes regularity at all times.

ALIVE WITH A BROKEN BACK.

An East Flamboro Man Breaks His Spine By a Fall.

Jeremiah Howell of East Flamboro was brought to the General Hospital yesterday, suffering from a broken spine and paralysis. Last Friday afternoon Howell assisted a neighbor, named Webb, in getting in grain, and had started home when he remembered having left his coat in the loft of Webb's barn. Going back for it he had taken but a few steps across the floor of the loft when he fell through an open trap door to the floor below. In falling he broke his spine and lay there in terrible agony all night. He was not discovered until 6 o'clock Saturday morning. On being moved he lost consciousness and remained in that state until Monday afternoon. He again became unconscious last evening and paralysis set in to such an extent that a needle could be inserted in his limbs without producing the slightest movement from the patient.

Use the safe, pleasant and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.
