THE WORLD !

FOR 1878.

Since the change in the proprietorship (which took place May 1, 1876,) "THE WORLD has become the brightest, sprightliest, most scholarly and popular journal in the metropolis."

"It is entertaining, interesting, bright, decent, fair and truthful."

It does wrong, wittingly, to no man, no creed, no interest and no party.

The WORLD believes the Democratic Party to exist for the good of the public service. It does not believe the public service to exist for the Democratic Party.

It is generally acknowledged that the

Sporting News

of THE WORLD is fuller and more accurate than that of any other Daily Journal. During 1878 THE WORLD will spare no trouble or expense to obtain the earliest and best accounts of Races (running and trotting), Fox Hunting, Yachting, Rowing, Base Ball, Cricket, Football, Lacrosse, Curling, Rifle Matches, Pigeon Matches, &c., &c.

Nothing of interest to sportsmen will escape the attention of THE WORLD.

The Agricultural Department of THE WORLD is under the charge of D. T. Moore, the founder and for many years editor of MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER.

CASH PREMIUMS !

To the person from whom THE WORLD shall receive, previous to March 31, 1878, the money for the greatest number of subscriptions for one year to the WEEKLY WORLD, we give a first prize of $300.

For the next largest number, a second prize of $200.

For the next largest list of subscribers, $100 each.

For the two next largest lists of subscribers, two prizes of $75 each.

For the six next largest lists, six prizes of $50 each.

For the eleven next largest lists, eleven prizes.
