THE KIRMESS A WONDERFUL PRODUCTION

Most Brilliant, Spectacle Ever Seen in St. John Produced by Local Talent.

MANY BEWILDERING BEAUTIFUL BALLETS

Novel Features in Entertainment Due to Win Hearty Approval — First Performance a Success.

Rivalling for novelty, beauty and grace anything ever attempted in St. John, the Kirmess, held in York Theatre last night in aid of the Playgrounds movement, fulfilled all that had been predicted and held a large audience fascinated for over two hours. A series of pleasing surprises the programme was one that thoroughly pleased. Replete with spectacular representations, delightful music, superb ballets, the Kirmess is undoubtedly one of the most interesting entertainments witnessed here in years.

From the rise of the curtain on the opening number of the programme to close as scene after scene passed, each surpassing in splendor of costuming or graceful execution of the dance, the spectator found much to claim his attention. The originality of the whole production appealed to all, the realization that local talent presented the different numbers added further enjoyment to the evening, while the remarkable skill evidenced in the interpretation of the several ballets was by no means the least noteworthy feature of the entertainment.

A Stupendous Task.

The presentation of a Kirmess is a task of stupendous proportions, involving an incredible amount of work both on the producers and on those taking part. The efforts of those who had the production in hand, however, have met with the fullest measure of success. Every number in the lengthy programme was carried out successfully, and reflected credit on all who were instrumental in the production.

The entertainment followed closely along the lines of the "Kirmess" as carried out in European countries. As is known, the Kirmess, in the Old World, is a church festival, originating in Flanders since introduced into other parts of Europe to commemorate the feast day of the principal saint of a particular place. In other words, it is a church fair at which the native amusements were carried out, dancing of the native ballets, constituting an important feature of the festivities. Into last night's Kirmess, however, were introduced the ballets of several countries, giving opportunity for variety both in point of costume and motion. And an exceptionally brilliant spectacle the whole performance was, whether in the Spanish dance, the Bohemian ballet, or the national dance of Marsovia the poetry of motion was to be found, the skillful interpretation of the dancers bringing out all the beauty of each distinctive number. Added to the grace and ease with which the ballets were executed the quaint costuming appropriate to the particular number and not even the most critical could ask for much more.

An Impression of Magnitude.

In the introductory numbers of the piece with the entire cast taking part, the audience was given the first impression of the magnitude of the undertaking in producing a Kirmess. The scene was of exceptional splendor representing many nationalities, each group garbed in the costume of the country represented, the spectacle was particularly attractive. The dancing features of the numbers were also unique, the skillful manner in which the performers went through the different phases winning merited approval.

Following the introductory numbers an excerpt from the Mikado was presented, "A night in Koko's Garden." The principal roles were assumed by Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood and Barton Wetmore, who sang the solo numbers. This scene, the music of which was familiar to nearly everyone, contains a number of pretty musical numbers as well as the national dance of the Oriental beauties.

The Spanish Danc.

Rivalling in beauty of the dance came the Spanish dance. The solo dance in this number was given by Miss Constance Campbell. Her interpretation of the number was particularly noteworthy, the grace and ease with which she executed the difficult movements winning for her a well merited ovation.

The ballet was comprised of the following:

Solo Dancer—Miss Constance Campbell. Misses Constance Campbell, Mazie Fleming, Kathleen Walker, Erminie Climo, Mabel Williams, Lois Murray, Hilda Shaw, Marion Campbell, Hazel Lewis, Muriel Belyea.

P. L. Lynwood, D. P. Beakley, W. Campbell, Guy Dowling, Harold Finley, George Hamm, Murray Lamb, Louis Gifford, Everett Hunt, Leslie Creighton.

The Bohemian Dance.

The Bohemian dance which was also a pretty number, was performed in exquisite manner by the following:

Solo—"Gypsy Sweetheart," P. L. Lynwood.

Sunbeam of the Gypsy Camp, Mrs. P. L. Lynwood.

Tyxolean Dancers, Mrs. Lynwood, R. L. Lynwood, Eugine Tudor.

Misses Hazen, McAvity, McGivern, Raymond, Coster, Bridges, Schofield, MacLaren, Sturdee, Kathleen Sturdee, Helen Church, Tessie Church.

Messrs. Campbell, Percy McAvity, Fairweather, B. Wetmore, Rankin, Potter, Beveridge, Inches, Fraser, Merritt, Church, Lynwood.

La Carmencita, from the opera Carmen, proved another of the enjoyable features of the entertainment, the following taking part:

La Carmencita, a cigarette girl .....Miss Dorothy Creighton
Michela .....Miss Erminie Climo
Don Jose .....Barton Wetmore
Toreadore .....P. L. Lynwood

Cigarette Girls—Mrs. Dudley Robilliard, Mrs. Frank McNeill, Misses Christine Crawford, Lota Dykeman, Hazel Campbell, Annie Baizely, Jane Creighton.

Royal Serenaders—James Griffith, William Charlton, George Cochrane, Elmer Belding, W. L. Creighton, Walter Pidgeon, F. G. Poole.

The closing number was the national dance of Morsovia performed by Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lynwood. In this number the pleasing character of their work as evidenced in the other numbers in which they took part and so ably assisted the amateurs was emphasized and the number made a fitting closing for the entertainment.

Spanish Dancers Lead Vote.

An intersting feature introduced and which will be continued at each performance was the voting contest in which the audience is given an opportunity to give expression as to its opinion as to the merits of the different numbers. The participants in the ballet securing the greatest number of votes will have the selection of a king and queen at the Kirmess ball to be held by the performers on Tuesday night. Last night the Spanish dancers won the contest with 375 votes, the Bohemians coming second with 370.

The entertainment was in aid of the playgrounds movement and will be repeated tonight, Saturday night and Monday night as well as at matinee performances.

The entertainment decidedly is one of the most brilliant spectacles ever attempted, and the success of last night augurs well for excellent patronage at the remaining performances To those who took part either in the performance itself, or in arranging the entertainment too much credit cannot be given. To Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood and Mr. Agostini, who have promoted the entertainment, the success is, in a great measure, due, and they shared in the honors last evening.

In several of the numbers Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood took parts, their work being especially good and they ably assisted others in carrying out successfully the difficult movements.

The general chairman of the different committees is Mrs. G. L. Wetmore. That the venture has proved such a success is to a great extent, to be attributed to her efforts.

A CHILD'S LAXATIVE IS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Made from fruit — Can't harm tender stomach, liver and bowels.

If your little one's stomach is coated, it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When your child is cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

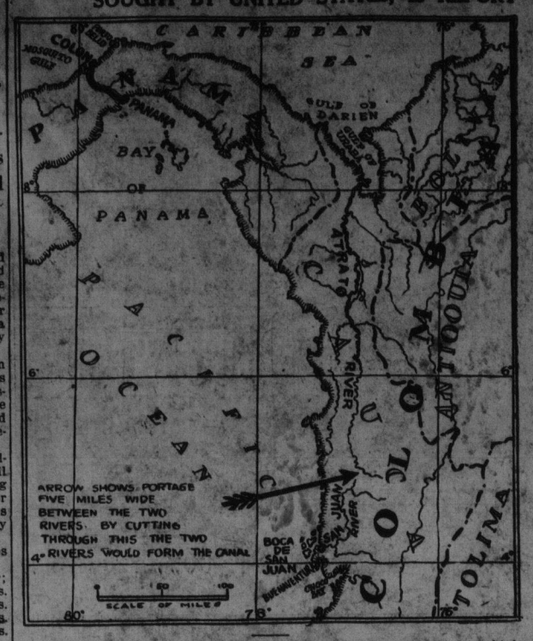
ENGLAND GETS COLOMBIAN CANAL OPTION SOUGHT BY UNITED STATES, IS REPORT



That the United States in the last month of the Taft regime tried to obtain an option for an ocean to ocean canal route through Colombia via the Atrato River is shown in documents received by Jose Carlos Martello, Colombian Consul at New Orleans, La.

Ernest Klepetko, a mining engineer who passed some time in Panama en route from Peru to his home in New York, brought the report that officials of the Isthmian Canal Commission are convinced that an understanding has been reached whereby the government of Great Britain will build the canal for which the United States sought an option. It is said plans for the work already have been drawn.
