Canadian-West Land Regulations

The sole head of a family, C. W. Lyons, over 15 years old, who was at the commencement of the present war and who has since continued in the British Empire, or a subject of an allied or neutral country, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion Land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgie and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

S. S. Megantic with soldiers and dependents arrived Wednesday and S. S. Adriatic due Sunday. The movement of returning men is to be kept up actively all summer.

The process of disembarkation at Halifax is being carried on without a hitch, and there is a fine system of co-operation between the Military and the Railway officials.

When Dominion Lands are advertised or posted for entry, returned soldiers who have served overseas and have been honorably discharged, receive one day priority in applying for entry at local Agent's Office (but not Sub-Agent). Discharge papers must be presented to Agent.

C. G. Railways

Up to March 1st 757,400 Troops have travelled over Government Railways.

Thousands arrive each week at Halifax and are sent forward to Dispersal Areas.

Since the war began in 1914 up to March 1st, when S.S. Belgie disembarked her returned soldier passengers at Halifax 757,400 troops have been carried on special trains over the Canadian Government Railways.

The first train which carried troops over the Government Railways the year the war was declared was numbered one and all special troop trains to and from Halifax since that time have been numbered consecutively. The last train from the Belgie was on Saturday No 1279. Each train averages about twelve cars with an average of 50 men to a car, which figures up a total of 757,400 men carried. Of course in addition to this thousands of soldiers have journeyed between Montreal and Halifax by regular trains during the past four years.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgie and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

S. S. Megantic with soldiers and dependents arrived Wednesday and S. S. Adriatic due Sunday. The movement of returning men is to be kept up actively all summer.

The process of disembarkation at Halifax is being carried on without a hitch, and there is a fine system of co-operation between the Military and the Railway officials.

Look! Read! Realize.

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor.

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine! We study the business. We know what suits a young man.

we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W. H. Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

Overcoats, Made-to-Order-from... $30.00 to $48.00
Overcoats, Ready-to-Wear..... $15.00 to $36.00

The Pope's Cabinet

One of the most august bodies in the world is the College of Cardinals. It is, in fact, the Holy Father's cabinet. All members of this important organization, are conspicuous for learning, diplomacy, or some particular attainment which qualifies them for important office. The various congregations which transact business with all parts of the Catholic world are under the direction and personal supervision of a Cardinal. Occasionally a number of Cardinals are connected with important tribunals.

It is interesting and at the same time instructive to note the age, nationality and history of these men. At present there are sixty-three members in the College. In all, the College contains seventy members, but it is only at rare intervals that there is not a vacancy. At present, out of the sixty-three members, thirty-two are Italians and thirty-one are from other countries. Cardinal Gibbons is the second oldest member of the Cardinals, and is the only Bishop surviving who was a member of the Vatican council.

It is one of the facts which should not be ignored that the conservative and careful policy so characteristic of the Holy See is partly due to the conservatism and ripe experience of these men. On the other hand, it cannot be denied that at times men of such advanced age are apt to look with suspicion and distrust on new and untied adventures.

Many changes occur in the bosom of this venerable body in such a brief period as twelve months, since a priest is generally well advanced in years when raised to the purple. A list of the senior Cardinals will be of interest with their age and number of years in the Sacred College: Cardinal De Cabrieres, France, 90; 8.

Cardinal Gibbons, Baltimore, 85; 23.

Cardinal V. Vamutelli, Dean of Sacred College, 83; 30.

Cardinal Cagliero, Salesian, Rome, 82; 4.

Cardinal Netto (Franciscan) Portugal, 79; 24.

Cardinal Nisco, Naples, 86; 25.

Cardinal Logue, Ireland, 80; 26.

Cardinal Begin, Canada, 79; 5.

Despite their years, all the venerable men still fill their posts with all the clearheadedness and skill of a dozen years ago. The Archbishop of Naples alone yields somewhat to Father Time.

The age and number of years of some of the other Princes of the Church, who are very much in the world's eyes, are:

Cardinal O'Connell, Boston, 59; 9.

Cardinal Mercier, Belgium, 68; 12.

Cardinal Gasparri, Secretary of State, 67; 12.

Cardinal Bourne, Westminster, 58; 8.

Cardinal Van Rossum, Rome, 65; 8.

Cardinal Gasquet, 73; 5.

When Betting Is Lawful

There is no theological difficulty about a bona fide contract for future delivery of goods, even though the seller has not present possession of them. He knows that he can get the goods before the time arrives when he will be bound by his contract to deliver them to the buyer; he hopes to be able to get them at cheaper rates than he charges. All this is lawful trade; there is nothing in the transaction that need cause him any qualms of conscience, writes Father Slater, S. J. But if there is question of a mere speculative contract in futures, and the intention of the parties is merely to bind themselves to pay differences, one may well hesitate before giving a definite solution of the problem.

Such a contract is merely a wager, as we have seen; it is in itself to all intents and purposes a bet concerning a future and uncertain event, and the question as to whether it is lawful or not depends on the broader question concerning the lawfulness of betting. An action may be lawful in itself, in the abstract, apart from special circumstances, and yet in the concrete, in certain circumstances, it may become wrong.

It will be advisable to consider the lawfulness of different transactions first of all in themselves, and subsequently as they are met with in practice. The question revolves itself, as we have said, into the broader one of the lawfulness of betting.

Now, it is commonly taught that it is not wrong to make a bet, provided certain conditions are fulfilled. Among these conditions the principal are:

1. That the money risked belongs to him who bets, and that he has the free disposal of it.

A lawyer must not bet or speculate with the money of his client; if he does so, he exposes the property of his client to risk, and sins against justice. The money risked in betting must also be at the free and unfettered disposal of him who bets. He must not bet with what is necessary to fulfil his obligations, otherwise he exposes himself to the danger of not being able to meet them. A father of a family must not bet with what is required for the support of his children, else he runs the risk of not being able to fulfil his natural duty of bringing them up in a manner suitable to their condition in life.

2. Betting to be lawful, must be free from fraud and deceit.

The event on which the wager is ventured must be uncertain to both parties. If the uncertainty exists only on one side, if it is brought about by means of false rumors and news, if by dexterous manipulation one of the parties intends to decide the event in his own favor, the wager is a dishonest contract.

3. Finally, the chances must be fairly equal on both sides.

The sharper who abuses the ignorance and simplicity of the countryman, can make no claim to have come by his gains honestly. He is a rogue and a vagabond.

A wager that fulfills the above conditions is not a sinful transaction. But though this may be true, yet, as is well known, a habit of gambling is easily contracted; and when such a habit has once been formed it is very difficult to shake it off. There may be a certain amount of temporary success; the excitement and fascination which gambling has for many minds; the ease and rapidity with which large sums of money may some times be acquired by this means—all lend their attraction and combine to make what in itself, if indulged in occasionally, may be a legitimate form of recreation, a most dangerous temptation, and the sure road to ruin.

Things to Remember in the Sick Room

To send for the parish priest as soon as a person becomes dangerously ill.

To have the room put in order and everything made ready for the priest if he is to bring Holy Communion.

To have a table covered with a clean white cloth and upon it a candlestick holding a blessed wax candle lighted, a Crucifix, two small glasses, containing Holy Water and the other pure fresh water and a tablespoon.

For all in the room to kneel when the priest enters with the Sacred Host.

To have the patient's hair combed, face washed, the mouth rinsed out and the bed made tidy before the priest arrives.

For one who suffers a prolonged illness to receive Holy Communion frequently, even though not in danger of death.

To know that a sick person need not be fasting to receive the Holy Viaticum.

That Extreme Unction should be received while the patient is conscious.

DO NOT DISMISS CONSTIPATION AS A TRIFLE. IT IS NOT.

Half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to become constipated.

When the bowels become constipated the stomach gets out of order, the liver does not work properly, and then follow the violent sick and bilious headaches, nervousness of the stomach, biliousness, heartburn, water brash, or the painful, irritating internal bleeding or protruding piles.

Keep your bowels regular with Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills and you need never be constipated.

Mrs. C. Henderson, Trail, B.C., writes: "I have been troubled with sick headaches and constipation most all my life. Have not now been troubled for a long time. I have great faith in Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills since using them."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are also a trial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. M. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mark Twain's Religious Census

When Mark Twain was reporter on the Virginia City Enterprise he was given an assignment to report the condition of the churches in Gold Hill. The next day he turned in the following:

"Your reporter had some difficulty in securing an interview with the pastor of the Baptist Church. He found him pushing an ox cart on the dump pile of the Overman mine. He said he was doing this, not merely for exercise, but for $3.50 a day. He said that his clerical salary was nominally $50 per month, but the irregularity with which it was not paid was very distressing. The butcher, he said, had been very kind to him, but patience had limits, and lately, when called upon for a breakfast he had, in an absent-minded way cut off a piece of liver. His congregation had dwindled to fourteen hearers, and the collection for the previous Sabbath amounted to but 40 cents. He had made one convert, but has been unable to baptize him, for the water company had refused to supply the water except for cash in advance."

2. Betting to be lawful, must be free from fraud and deceit.

The event on which the wager is ventured must be uncertain to both parties. If the uncertainty exists only on one side, if it is brought about by means of false rumors and news, if by dexterous manipulation one of the parties intends to decide the event in his own favor, the wager is a dishonest contract.

3. Finally, the chances must be fairly equal on both sides.

SCALDS and BOILS

Preventable by Two Years.

When scalds and boils appear on the face and body it seems as if the skin is the seat of the trouble, but the real cause is in the blood. Lather and salubrious may allay the trouble for a while, but seldom if ever cure.

Let's have to get under the skin; get the blood which is the cause of the trouble. Burdock Blood Purifier goes direct to the seat of the disease and restores healthy normal action to the different organs, and cleanses the blood of all its impurities.

Mr. H. C. Goodwin, Cambridge, N.B., writes: "For nearly two years I suffered on my body and pimple on my face and neck. I tried most everything, but got no relief. One day a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Purifier, and after using three bottles the boils and pimples had all left and there is no sign of their return. I can strongly recommend B.B.P. to anyone who is troubled with skin diseases. Manufactured only by The T. M. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."
