Huron Signal.

GODERICH, JUNE 14, 1866.

THE FRENCH ALMOST OVER.

The great Fenian invasion which was to sweep over Canada like an avalanche, and by hoisting the green flag over our conquered country, form a base for the final conquest of Britain, has terminated ingloriously. The hand that crossed at Fort Erie was hurled back defiantly, and the horse that crossed the Province line below Montreal, on Friday last, retired at the approach of our volunteers, almost without firing a shot. The most they did was to steal a few horses and head of cattle, in return for which they left scores of their number in our hands. We must do the American invasion the credit of admitting that it acted at last with a degree of vigor adequate to the importance of the occasion. The Federal authorities were slow in acting—indeed they should have acted months ago—but within the past few days, by the seizure of Fenian arms, and munitions of war, and the firm stand taken by Gen. Meade, they have materially assisted in scattering the armed gatherings on our frontier. The American press has also changed its tune very considerably; and instead of leading the "brave" scum of the earth, as it did a few days ago, declares that it was pretty well known all along that the affair would be a fizzle. We must not forget, however, that a respectable number of our republican brethren of the quill have retired from the commencement of the danger to the American Government of harboring such a dangerous element.

It is a pity in one sense that such a false alarm should have been circulated, but it is gratifying to know that it proved a fact we have often asserted: that if we had arms, an army of seven or eight thousand men, the Fenian invasion would be in vain. It is in view of this theory that we have had such success in our operations. We had not seen about the fact of Fenianism, but at all events, he felt certain that no volunteer would turn tail. (Cheers.)

THE SPIRIT OF HURON.

During the late excitement the spirit exhibited by the settlers of the County of Huron was of the most gratifying nature. The moment danger threatened our shores there was a general uprising of loyal men, determined to fight the enemy with the best means available. Companies were formed in Goderich township, Stanley, Maria, Huron, Wawanosh, Colborne, Ashfield, Goderich, &c., to such an extent that, in some instances, we appear a little army of three or four thousand good men, all armed with fire and many of them with rifles, could have been brought against the foe. It is true this force was not regularly organized or drilled, yet having a noble body of volunteers as a nucleus, it would have done some first-rate bush fighting, for which the nature of the country along the Lake shore is well adapted. Happily their services were not required, but it is pleasing to know that so much could be done in an emergency.

ARRIVAL OF THE RESCUE.

The armed tug boat Rescue, arrived at this port on Saturday afternoon last, at 5.30. As she rounded into the harbor a rousing round of cheers greeted her from a large assemblage of soldiers and citizens on light house point. When she landed, the various companies were drawn up on the dock to welcome the arrival of their brethren of the navy and enthusiastic cheers were given. Getting on board, the boat touched the dock, our reporter found Lieut. Fairlie in command, Sub-Lieut. Comyn and Midshipman Hatton, with 40 British sailors, and 10 marines, from H. M. S. Aurora, now lying at Quebec. The officers are fine, dashing young men and the sailors as fine a set of fellows as the Fenians would find on a met. The boat carries two beautiful Armstrong guns, one 9 and one 12 pounder, with a small supply of ammunition, small arms, &c. In case of a Fenian flotilla venturing within sight, her assistance would be invaluable. She was piloted by Capt. C. McIntosh, Capt. Wyatt being aboard as temporary sailing master.

TREATING THEM.

A number of our citizens with commendable zeal made a raid through the town on Saturday evening, and in a few minutes had provided the wherewithal for supplying the "jolly man" of the Rescue with a keg of tobacco, box of pipes, fresh meat, vegetables, and other little luxuries, for all of which, the recipients wish through our columns to return their heartfelt thanks.

GOOD NEWS!

[By Special Telegraph to the Signal.] TORONTO, June 7—8 p.m. Gen. Sweeney was arrested at St. Albans, and President Roberts at New York, this afternoon by the United States authorities, for breach of the neutrality laws. The Fenians are very much disheartened in consequence. All quiet along the St. Lawrence frontier.

THE BOV ON TUESDAY MORNING

Will not soon be forgotten by the people of this County. We have since learned that the report of the landing of Fenians in force, between Goderich and Bayfield,

Dinner to the Officers of the Regiment

On Saturday evening last, at 9 o'clock the Volunteer Officers invited the officers of the Regiment to join them at Dinner, which invitation was accepted with the utmost cordiality. At the appointed hour the guests, having assembled at the "Huron Hotel," sat down to one of the "Little Corporals" richest repasts. We noticed present, Major Ross. (In the chair) Lieut. Fairlie, Sub-Lieut. Comyn, Capt. Wyatt, Capt. Barker, Capt. Hay, Lieut. Campbell, Capt. Ross, Esq. Sinclair, Esq. Baird, Capt. Sprout, Capt. Coleman, Dr. McDougall, Esq., Seymour, Esq. Bole, Esq., Daniel, Esq. Davidson, Esq. Smith, Lieut. Reddin, Lieut. Thomson, and Mr. W. T. Cox, of the Signal.

While the guests were partaking of the repast, the Glee Club gave some excellent music as indeed, it did, at intervals during the evening, thereby contributing largely to the pleasure of those present. The first toast from the chair was that of the "Queen," which was enthusiastically received.

Then came the "Army and Navy," in proposing which the Major said he believed it would be received as heartily at that moment as ever before. They had proved and would still prove the mainstay of the liberties and interests of Great Britain. (Applause.) Some of the "hearts of oak" who had contributed so largely to the glory of the empire were present and they would no doubt feel flattered to know that many of the fair ones of the town felt under their protection. (Applause.)

The Club—Rule Britannia, Lieut. Fairlie, of the Royal Navy, being called upon, eulogized the volunteers for the noble stand they had taken, and after thanking the company for their reception of the toast of the army and navy, begged to propose, "the Volunteers of Canada." Major Ross, in response said that formerly the volunteers had been looked upon as small account, but in the recent trouble the sentiment had changed, and as for the volunteers themselves they were long to have an opportunity of averting the blood of their comrades of the gallant Queen's Own. The conduct of the force would discuss the Americans of any idea of annexation and war in the estimation of the home Government. He hoped we had now seen about the fact of Fenianism, but at all events, he felt certain that no volunteer would turn tail. (Cheers.)

Capt. Wyatt, also spoke, bearing testimony to the spirit of loyalty and enthusiasm animating the people of the Province wherever he had met them. He wished to propose the health of a gentleman who had proved most serviceable on the voyage. Capt. C. McIntosh, a native of Goderich. Capt. McIntosh responded. He expressed his satisfaction at coming into port for the first time with such a fine lot of fighting boys, who were eager for a little work of that kind. (Applause.)

COUNTIES COUNCIL.

The United Counties Council met at 3 o'clock, p.m., on Monday, 11th inst. Robert Gibson, Esq., Warden, in the chair.

The following gentlemen answered to their names. Messrs. Mafford, Dalton, J. Whitehead, Husey, Horton, Ford, Paton, McDonald, Leckie, R. Brown, Smith, McMichael, Sell, Gibson, Perkins, Evans, Hays, C. Whitehead, A. Brown, Simpson, Woods, Sweet, Parsons, Sprout, DeLo, Messer, Bishop, Creary, Carran, Hoigs, Kribbs, Lumden, McLennan, McKinnon, Fisher, Logie, Melanson, Riter, Gillies, Dublin, Pinkerton, Johnson, Martin, Miller, J. P. McIntyre, Kastall, Purvis, Wallace and Aldrey.

THE WARDEN'S ADDRESS.

The Warden then addressed the Council. He said since the last session the Government had called the Volunteers of the country to various points for purposes of defence. They had responded nobly, but the pittance paid them was so small that it might become necessary for the Council to take into consideration the advisability of supplementing their pay, and paying expenses not necessarily chargeable to the Government. (Applause.) From the news that had reached him that day, he believed he had seen about the fact of Fenianism, and he trusted it would never again prove a source of trouble and expense. (Applause.) If a sum were set apart for the purpose mentioned, it might be found difficult to get on with the $20,000 Gravel Road Scheme, and in his opinion, while the scheme was entered upon, the work of completing the Gravel Road should be made as thorough as possible, so that no further scheme could be got up. The most important business of the session would be the report of the Equalization Committee. He trusted the work of the Committee would be entered into with a desire to act fairly by all parties. The well at Goderich had been put down 1,000 feet, and he was happy to announce that salt had been found in large quantities.—There would be a request for the $1,000 promised by the Council, and he thought the enterprise of the Co. and their contractor certainly entitled them to consideration. The Warden then spoke of the death of John Galt, Esq., late Registrar, and several matters relating to the estate which would require attention. The judgment in the Hodgins suit was expected during the present week.

Town & Counties

Since the suspension of the Malheur Corps Artillery, several parties of supposed Fenian provokers, being anxiously enquired for, have "turned up missing."
We have just learned by telegraph from Ottawa, that J. F. Tom, Esq., has been appointed Deputy Judge for the present court.
When the reported landing of Fenians at our door roused the Volunteers to action on Tuesday morning, 5th inst, it was Capt. Daniel's Co. of red coats that started second—not that of Capt. Barker, as we stated by mistake.
In consequence of some statements said to have been put in circulation, as to the estimate put by us on the poetry of Mr. Wm. Bennamy, in private conversation, we deem it proper to assert that we never saw the poem, and have never written or read nor word derogatory to the literary taste or ability of said gentleman. On the contrary we have always considered him one of the very few real poets of Canada. His contributions are ever welcome, and never move so than at present.

The Fenian Lake Invasion.

Private dispatches from Chicago assure us that no armed bodies of Fenians have yet left Chicago. There are a number of Fenians in St. Ignace, and it is thought they may be fool enough to cross its waters.

Good Conduct.

The troops stationed here have acted throughout in a most harmonious and creditable manner. The best of feeling exists amongst the officers, and these men are fully alive to the responsible duties devolving upon them.

Our Extras.

Since the commencement of the invasion, on Friday last, we have issued eleven extra copies of this paper. It has been confirmed, and we are happy to know that our efforts are appreciated by the public.

REPORT ON TEXT-BOOKS.

At the last regular meeting of the Huron Teachers' Association held in the following report on text-books was presented by the committee to which the matter had been referred, after having been discussed in committee of the whole, and unanimously adopted. The Report is as follows:—

Your Committee on Text Books appointed at the meeting of this Association held at Goderich on the 27th July, for the purpose of reporting on the text-books for use in the Canadian schools published in Canada, and to beg leave to report as follows:—

We are of opinion that Mr. Lovell deserves the thanks and patronage of teachers and friends of education for his series of Canadian school-books. They are simple, practical and well adapted to the wants of our schools. As lovers of British literature we are glad to see the use of English in our school-books, and as we are proud of our country we are glad to see the use of Canadian schools as a subject for the rest of the world. Although we are not prepared to give an unqualified approval to all the books we were consulted, we are, as a whole, much better adapted to our schools than any other set of books which we have seen. We are of opinion that the use of Canadian school-books is a matter of national importance, and we think it would be well to have a national committee to report on the merits of the various books published in Canada, and to recommend the best for use in our schools. We think that the use of Canadian school-books is a matter of national importance, and we think it would be well to have a national committee to report on the merits of the various books published in Canada, and to recommend the best for use in our schools.

REPORT ON TEXT-BOOKS.

At the last regular meeting of the Huron Teachers' Association held in the following report on text-books was presented by the committee to which the matter had been referred, after having been discussed in committee of the whole, and unanimously adopted. The Report is as follows:—

Your Committee on Text Books appointed at the meeting of this Association held at Goderich on the 27th July, for the purpose of reporting on the text-books for use in the Canadian schools published in Canada, and to beg leave to report as follows:—

We are of opinion that Mr. Lovell deserves the thanks and patronage of teachers and friends of education for his series of Canadian school-books. They are simple, practical and well adapted to the wants of our schools. As lovers of British literature we are glad to see the use of English in our school-books, and as we are proud of our country we are glad to see the use of Canadian schools as a subject for the rest of the world. Although we are not prepared to give an unqualified approval to all the books we were consulted, we are, as a whole, much better adapted to our schools than any other set of books which we have seen. We are of opinion that the use of Canadian school-books is a matter of national importance, and we think it would be well to have a national committee to report on the merits of the various books published in Canada, and to recommend the best for use in our schools. We think that the use of Canadian school-books is a matter of national importance, and we think it would be well to have a national committee to report on the merits of the various books published in Canada, and to recommend the best for use in our schools.
