THE TORONTOS BEAT THE BUFFALOS BY ONE RUN.

A Faultless Fielding Game Played by Our Boys—First Day of the Tennis Tournament—Racing at Monmouth Park, Saratoga and Chicago.

BUFFALO, July 27.—The game to-day between Toronto and Buffalo was very exciting. The visitors, outside the battery, played a faultless fielding game, but the Bisons could scarcely have played worse. Veach was badly punished, but the hits were scattered, while the Torontos were effectively bunched. In the fifth innings the Buffalo infield was completely demoralized:

Hamilton's Streak Continues.

ROCHESTER, July 27.—The Hamiltons were outbatted and outplayed to-day. Rochester found McArthur from the start, while the visitors could do but little with Parsons. The game was marked by several sharp infield plays on both sides, but on the whole the visitors were not strong in fielding, and several errors were very costly.

Rochester Licensed Victs v. Toronto Licensed Victs.

Between four and five hundred people gathered on the Toronto baseball grounds yesterday to see the Rochester and Toronto licensed victuallers play a return match at baseball. From the beginning to the end the interest was intense; the victory of the home men being finally hailed with great enthusiasm. It was a stern chase all through for the visitors, as the Torontos scored 2 in the first innings and succeeded in holding them down, in spite of every exertion, to only 2 runs in the whole nine innings. In the evening the two teams and their friends dined together at the American Hotel and spent a glorious time, President Cox sent his regrets. The Licensed Victs wish to thank Mr. Macpherson and the Civil Service club for the loan of their uniforms. Following is the score;—

Fair Balls.

The Stars are looking for a third baseman, a centre fielder and a catcher.

The Syracuse Stars have released Chas. J. Sweeney, their peach-blow pitcher.

George Washington Bradley will henceforth captain and pitch for the Binghamtons.

The Atlantas, of the Southern League, and the Denver Club, Western League, have disbanded. The latter places Billy Mountjoy at liberty again.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the Torontos begin a series of 10 home games. To-day and to-morrow the leaders of the league, the Uticas, will be their opponents and it is needless to predict some interesting and exciting play. The other International games to-day are Syracuse at Rochester, Oswego at Buffalo and Binghamton at Hamilton.

One of the Stars was so drunk last night that he went to bed with his shoes and clothes on. . . . Manager Campbell thinks that Backer, who pitched for the Stars Saturday, is the coming man. . . . The Stars had better stop throwing poorly to Harbridge on first base. He will be kept there, whether Householder's friends like it or not. They will hurt their own records more than Harbridge's.—Syracuse Courier.

Another Lacrosse Scandal.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 27.—The intermediate championship lacrosse match at Brockville yesterday is almost the sole talk on the streets to-night. Some very ugly developments have been made, and the mystery surrounding the easy defeat of the Capitals is thereby cleared up. Two of the best players on the Capitals' team are openly charged with having sold the game, it is said, for $125 each. A gentleman in Ottawa was informed of this from Montreal a few days ago, but disbelieved it, and did not even give the report circulation. Another man, to whose ears the fact came, went to the match and bet largely on the Brockvilles, and also gave the "tip" to a friend. Though the Brockville public were not aware of the sale, it seems to have been well known to some of the Brockville team. M. McKay and J. Daly, formerly of the Montreal Shamrocks, but who played with the Capitals this summer, and were on the team yesterday, have ceased to be connected with the Capital Club. The Brockvilles play the Ottawa Lacrosse Club a friendly match here on Saturday next.

With Teemer as a partner, Courtney declares, in a fair double-scull race, no two men in the world have any business with them, and he has $1000 that says they can defeat Ross and Lee. Can this be a sawed-boat bluff?

On Saturday afternoon next the Cornwalls play their first lacrosse match in this city against the Torontos. The Cornwalls are a splendid team, as the Ontarios know to their cost, and the match is sure to be an exciting and pretty evenly contested one.
