WEDDINGS

Blackmore-Parkins.

(Montreal Star, Sept. 29.)

A very pretty wedding took place in Christ Church Cathedral this afternoon, when Miss Gladys Parkins, eldest daughter of Frank Fairleigh Parkins, University street, was married to Charles Blackmore of St. John (N. B.). The church was effectively decorated for the occasion with white and yellow chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. Rev. Dr. Symonds performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Canon Murphy, of Barrie (Ont.). The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely empire gown of white satin with garniture of Carrickmacross lace and chenille trimming. Her tulle veil was arranged over a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She also wore an emerald and diamond ring, the gift of the bridegroom.

The maid of honor, Miss Mildred Parkins, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Adele Lasalle (Farnham), and Miss Evelyn Gilleau, were dressed alike in empire gowns of apricot messaline silk trimmed with white filet net and lace of the same shade. They all wore white tulle presentation veils fastened with silk roses to match their gowns, and carried white chrysanthemums. The little flower girl, Miss Marjorie Baikie, niece of the bridegroom, wore a dainty white frock, with a wreath of blush roses, and carried a basket of the same roses.

Charles Cleghorn was the best man. Edgar Parkins, brother of the bride, Percy Adams, Norman Gait, and Jack Baikie were the ushers.

Mrs. Parkins, mother of the bride, was in black lace over white taffeta, with a black hat trimmed with black and white ostrich plumes. Miss Jessie Parkins, sister of the bride, wore a white point d'esprit gown over white silk, and a large black picture hat.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, 284 University street. Autumn leaves and cut flowers were used in profusion in the decorations throughout the house. Mr. and Mrs. Blackmore will leave this evening for a trip to Toronto, New York, Atlantic City, Washington and other points in the States. The bride will travel in a dark green broadcloth costume trimmed with green velvet and green and gold braid, and a green hat trimmed with wings and ribbon. The bridegroom gave the bride's attendants amethyst and pearl pendants, the flower girl a pearl pendant, and the best man and ushers pearl stick pins.

McNeill-McQuarrie.

St. Stephen's church was prettily decorated Wednesday for the marriage of Miss Margaret May McQuarrie, daughter of the late David McQuarrie, and one of the most active members of the church, to Frank McNeill, of the staff of Oak Hall. The groom is a native of Cavendish, Prince Edward Island. The bride wore a tailor made traveling costume of gray with black and tan hat and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. Charles H. Gibbon, a brother-in-law, gave the bride away. J. Dickinson and Julian Cornell were the ushers. Miss Katherine Wilson was the organist. Mr. and Mrs. McNeill were farewelled at the train by a large gathering of friends prior to their leaving on a bridal tour to the United States. On their return they will reside at Wentworth Hall. The happy couple had evidence of the good wishes of many friends in a handsome collection of wedding gifts. Among these were gifts from St. Stephen's church, the groom's fellow employes in Oak Hall and his fellow boarders at Wentworth Hal.

Harding-Arrowsmith.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. J. E. Arrowsmith, 31 Princess street, this city, when her daughter, Miss Helen, was united in marriage to Albert L. Harding, of the firm of J. A. McMillan. The bride was gowned in a fawn travelling suit with hat to match. She received some very handsome presents from her many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Harding left on a trip to United States street.

Gregory-McKinnon.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized in St. Luke's church Wednesday morning, when Rev. R. P. McKim united in marriage Miss Sadie McKinnon, youngest daughter of the late Captain John A. McKinnon, of P. E. Island, and H. Roy Gregory, both of this city. The bride looked charming in a going-away-dress of navy blue broadcloth, with large picture hat. The large number of wedding gifts, including silver and cut glass, attested to the popularity of the young couple. On their return after a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Gregory will reside in Charlotte street.

Mercer-Holloway.

Wednesday evening at the home of William Holloway, 134 Adelaide street, North End, his daughter, Miss Mabel, became the wife of Napoleon Mercer, formerly of Quebec, but now of this city. Rev. R. P. McKim of St. Luke's church officiated. Miss Maud Holloway, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Murray McAvinn supported the groom. There were about eighty invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mercer will live at 134 Adelaide street. Among the wedding gifts was the carving set from Mr. Mercer's fellow boarders in the Touraine House, and a set of silver from the proprietress, Mrs. J. F. Bowes. The groom's fellow employes in Messrs. Isaac's cigar factory presented a handsome china tea set.

Berrie-Thorne.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of J. L. Thorne, Carmarthen streeet, when his daughter, Miss Catherine Thorne, was united in marriage to J. C. Berrie, a partner in the firm of R. B. Jones & Co., Ltd., Woodstock, N. B., formerly of this city.

The parlor was decorated profusely and artistically with flowers, and under a magnificent floral bell the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. C. Berrie, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Dr. Flanders, pastor of Centenary church.

The bride was given away by her father, was attired in white lace over white satin creation and her traveling gown was of dark green chiffon broadcloth with champagne trimmings and hat to match.

Mrs. Clarence Nixon, the matron of honor, wore pink chiffon and black picture hat. The bride's mother wore black silk with black net and the groom's mother black satin with black lace.

The bride carried bride's roses and the matron of honor, pink carnations.

Included in the valuable presents to the bride were a cut glass bowl from the Centenary Sunday school, silver salver from the primary class and checks from the groom and his father.

Gilimor—Edwards.

Fredericton, Sept. 30.—The residence of Postmaster and Mrs. John A. Edwards was the scene of a pretty wedding this afternoon when their only daughter, Miss Catherine Clarke Edwards, became the bride of Dawes Gillmor, son of Senator and Mrs. Daniel Gillmor, of Montreal. The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. W. McConnell, pastor of the Methodist church, in the spacious parlors which had been beautifully decorated. The bridal party during the ceremony stood beneath a massive floral bell and while prayers were said knelt on white satin pillows, while palms, ferns and rubber plants formed a solid bank as a background, while sweet peas and wax berries added beauty to the scene. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly gowned in an apricot directoire gown trimmed with filet lace, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. At the conclusion of the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served by a number of the young lady friends of the bride, the dining room also being prettily decorated with a green and white color scheme. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and costly presents. The groom's gift was a gold bracelet watch, while the gift of the bride's parents was a gold brooch set with pearls and diamonds. The groom's parents gave a check, while the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Tweedie also gave a check. A cut glass water pitcher was the gift of the post office staff. This evening Mr. Gillmor and bride will leave for their home in Prince Rupert, B. C., where he holds the position of assistant to the superintendent of the Grand Trunk Pacific terminals. The bride's travelling suit will be a tailor made costume of navy blue with black gage hat. Those attending included Senator and Mrs. Daniel Gillmor, Jr.

Crocket—Merritt.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Merritt, Victoria Mills, this afternoon, their daughter, Miss A. Edna Merritt, was quietly married to J. Alexander Crocket, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Crocket. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming travelling costume of brown broadcloth, with hat to match. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Willard Macdonald in the presence of immediate relatives. The bride was the recipient of many very beautiful and costly gifts. The groom's present to the bride was a gold watch with a long gold chain. This evening the happy couple will leave for St. John en route to Prince Edward Island, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Hastie-Bigelow.

St. Stephen, N.B., Sept. 30.—(Special.)—At Christ's church this morning at 7 o'clock, Miss Esther Martha Black, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Milltown, was united in marriage to George W. Campbell, Weymouth, N.S., by Ven. Archdeacon Newnham. The bride looked very attractive in a white broadcloth costume with white hat with white plumes and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Marion Black, sister of the bride, who looked very pretty in a gown of Alice-blue silk, trimmed with white lace. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Duncan Campbell, of Weymouth. The wedding march was played by Miss Annie Porter. The wedding party returned to the home of the bride's parents, Milltown, when a wedding breakfast was served. The bride changed her bridal robes for a navy blue broadcloth suit with hat to match, and the young couple drove to the W.C.R. station and took train for Boston and other New England cities where they will spend several weeks before going to Weymouth, N.S., where they will reside.

The wedding gifts were handsome and numerous, including several substantial cheques.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and daughters Florence and Kathleen, of Yarmouth, N.S., were among the out of town guests.

Campbell-Black.

Canso, N. S., Sept. 30 (Special).—Canso Baptist church was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning when two of Canso's popular young people, Miss Hazel Bigelow, daughter of A. B. Bigelow, of the Wilmot house, and Christopher Hastie, of the Commercial Cable staff, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Manning, uncle of the bride, in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends. The couple left to spend their honeymoon in New York and other American cities.

Smith-Roach.

Fredericton, Sept. 30.—The George street United Baptist church parsonage was the scene of a pretty wedding this morning at 11 a. m., when Miss Josephine D. Roach, of Scotch Lake, was united in marriage to Wm. H. Smith, of Prince William. Rev. A. A. Rideout tied the nuptial knot. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of their friends. The bride was neatly gowned in white. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their future home at Plaster Rock.

Gibson-Smith.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in St. James' church, Broad street, when Miss Ada E. Smith was united in marriage to Geo. Gibson. Both are of Birmingham (Eng.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Hand, the rector. The bridesmaid was Miss Evelyn Kerr, and the groomsman F. C. Anthony. The bride looked charming in a costume of cream broadcloth with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. The bridesmaid wore pale pink broadcloth with pink hat and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson received many costly and useful presents. They will reside at 252 Union street.

Armstrong-Lockhart.

James Armstrong, of Barnesville, Kings County, and Miss Essie May Lockhart, daughter of Robert Lockhart, of Avonmore, Kings County, were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride. Rev. Gideon Swim, pastor of Waterloo street Baptist church, officiated.

Corbett-McLeod.

Wednesday afternoon in Germain street Baptist church, Miss Mary McLeod, of this city, became the bride of Edward Lorimer Corbett, C. P. R. auditor. Rev. W. W. McMaster tied the nuptial knot. The bride wore old rose chiffon broadcloth and a black picture hat. She was unattended. The bride was given away by her brother, S. A. McLeod, of Sussex. Mr. Fisher during the ceremony played appropriate organ selections. Many beautiful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett left on a trip to New York and other United States cities. Upon their return they will reside at 130 Duke street.

Lynch-McNanley.

In St. Rose's church Wednesday William Lynch and Miss Margaret McNanley, daughter of the late John McNanley, were married by Rev. Charles Collins. The bride wore white panama cloth and a black hat with ostrich tips. Miss Annie Mallory, who was bridesmaid, wore white crepe de chine and hat to match. John McLaughlin supported the groom. Handsome presents were received.

Riley-Horgan.

In St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls, Wednesday afternoon, Miss Annie Theresa Horgan, daughter of Michael Horgan, of Long's Lake, Loch Lomond road, and George P. Riley, of Marsh road, were married by Rev. A. J. O'Neill. Miss Katherine Horgan, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Edward Riley supported the groom.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride, where supper was served. The esteem in which the young people are held was shown by the receipt of many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Riley will reside at Ashdown Farm, Marsh road.

Perry-McCartney.

In the parsonage of Victoria street Baptist church Wednesday, Rev. B. H. Nobles, the pastor, united in marriage George E. Perry, of Maddison (Me.), and Miss Mary McCartney, of North End. The ceremony was witnessed by a few friends. Mr. Perry is a native of Perryville, Queens County. He and his bride will make their home in Maddison.

Linton-Jones.

Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. Murray in Murray street, Samuel V. Linton, of St. John, and Miss Mabel Jones, of Kars, Kings County, were united in marriage by Rev. Gideon Swim, of Waterloo street Baptist church. A large number of guests witnessed the ceremony. Miss Murray and Miss Linton were pretty flower girls. The groom's gift to his bride was a gold watch. Mr. and Mrs. Linton will reside in St. John after a honeymoon trip to Fredericton.

McKelvie-Farrer.

At Dorchester on Tuesday morning at the Rockland Presbyterian church, the nuptials between Norman McKelvie and Miss Maude L. Farrer were solemnized by Rev. B. O. Hartman, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Mr. Dickie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and by Rev. E. Parker, brother-in-law of the groom. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Farrer. The bridal party left for Boston, New York and other American cities. They will reside at Rockland.

Brownell-Crossman.

The marriage of Miss Eunice Crossman, a well known lady of Fairview, Westmorland, and Jerry Brownell, took place on Tuesday at Clinton (Mass.). Miss Crossman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Crossman, of Fairview.

Nelson-Gilson.

Wednesday morning in the Cathedral Miss Sarah Gilson, daughter of Daniel Gilson 57 Mill street, became the bride of J. B. Nelson, 227 Westmorland road. Rev. A. W. Meahan performed the ceremony. Miss Kenney, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and R. W. Nelson, cousin of the groom, was groomsman. The bride wore cream serge and carried a white prayer book. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Many beautiful gifts were received. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson left for Nova Scotia and on their return they will reside at 227 Westmorland road.

Hawkhurst—Boyd.

Miss Mabel E. Boyd, of Chipman, was married Thursday to Harry H. Hawkhurst, of the same place. The ceremony was performed in the Victoria street Baptist church parsonage, by Rev. B. H. Nobles. A number of friends of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkhurst will leave for their future home in Chipman, Saturday morning.

Creighton—Wetmore.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in All Saints Episcopal church at Clifton Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Ella M. Wetmore, daughter of the late Marshall Wetmore, became the wife of Herbert E. Creighton, of Silver Falls. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. H. Wainwright, was witnessed by a large number of the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a costume of white silk and carried a shower bouquet. She was given away by her brother, F. W. Wetmore, of Providence, R.I.

The church was very prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and greening.

After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their new home in Silver Falls. Many handsome and costly wedding gifts were received, including a dozen sterling silver spoons from the principal and teachers of the Victoria school, where the bride was formerly on the teaching staff.

Among the outside guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wetmore, Mrs. L. C. Wetmore and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carleton, of St. John; F. W. Wetmore, of Providence, R.I., and Miss Hattie Creighton and Clifford Creighton, of Silver Falls.

Swanton—Leary.

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday at the home of the bride's father, 106 Main street, when Miss Mabel Leary was united in marriage to Charles E. Swanton by Rev. Mr. Floyd.

Miss Sarah Swanton, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and Robert Myles, groomsman.

The bride was attractively attired in white taffeta silk and was given away by her father, Chauncey Leary.

Included in the number of valuable presents, was a gentleman's dressing case, a gift from the Hook and Ladder Company, of which the groom is a member.

The groom's present to the bride was a pearl crescent and to the bridesmaid a gold locket and chain, and the best man a pair of gold cuff links. The happy couple will reside at 200 Waterloo street.

"THE NIGGER IN THE WOOD-PILE"

Thousands of people go through life feeling more or less miserable without ever knowing the reason. They suffer from headaches, indigestion, pains in the back and at the slightest chill get rheumatism or neuralgia.

They try to cure these separate outbreaks, never suspecting that the root of the whole trouble is the failure of the bowels to move regularly, and in many cases the sluggish action of kidneys and skin. The result, of course is that the whole system gets clogged with impurities, which soon turn to poison, and show their presence in various ways.

"Fruit-a-tives"—or fruit juice tablets—promptly stir up the sluggish liver, regulate the bowels, and stimulate the kidneys and skin to do their work properly. Thus they cure all these troubles by removing the cause, and make it possible to really enjoy life. 50c a box—6 boxes for $2.50. Trial size, 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. George A. Stone.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 29.—(Special.)—Mrs. George A. Stone, wife of I.C.R. driver Stone, died at her residence, High street, this morning. She had been ill several months. A husband and four children survive.

Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, it is now announced, has decided to remain as pastor of the Campbellton Baptist church.

Mrs. Samuel Maxwell.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Maxwell occurred this morning at her residence, Lancaster Heights. She had been ill only a few days. Mrs. Maxwell was twenty-three years of age. She was the daughter of Wm. Rogers, of Murray street. She is also survived by her husband, who is an employe of the Street Railway Company, three small children, and one sister. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2.30.

Daniel Robertson.

Norton, Sept. 28.—The death occurred here on Saturday morning last of Daniel Robertson, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the village. He was in his 81st year, having been born in Scotch Settlement in this county in 1828. His parents were Thos. and Isabella Robertson, who came to this country from Perthshire, Scotland. He was a school teacher in his early days, and settled on the farm a mile above here, now owned by Peter Branscombe, about forty-six years ago. He moved to the present home about ten years ago. He was an elder of the Presbyterian church at the time of his death.

He is survived by a widow, who is quite feeble, being nearly 79 years old; a sister, Mrs. Sarah Isabella Morrill, of St. John; three children, Mrs. William Sharp, of Midand, T. Beverley, of Gloucester (Mass.), and J. William, of Norton; and by eight grand-children.

Interment took place this afternoon in the Presbyterian cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. Frank Baird, of Sussex, assisted by Rev. Hugh McLean. His nephews—Whitfield Robertson, of St. John; Jas. Robertson, of Dickie Mountain; and Thos. Huggard, of Springfield—and nieces—Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Merrill, of Belleisle—were present at the funeral, beside those of closer kin.

Miss Anne J. Henderson.

The death occurred at her residence, 200 Duke street, last night, of Miss Anne J. Henderson. She had only been ill since Saturday with pleurisy. Miss Henderson, who was the daughter of the late Henry Henderson, will be much missed by a very large circle of friends. She was a consistent number of St. John's Presbyterian church and was ever active in any good work in connection with the congregation. She is survived by one sister, Miss Emma, and one brother, John, both of this city.

David E. Loomer.

The death of David E. Loomer, formerly of this city, but lately of Tiverton, N. S., occurred at Canning, N. S., on Monday last, and the funeral took place yesterday afternoon at that place. Mr. Loomer was in business here about eight years ago, being a member of the firm of McAfee & Loomer, South Wharf. From here he went to Tiverton, and had been in ill health for the past year. His death, however, came quite unexpectedly. He had gone to Canning for treatment. He is survived, besides his wife, who was Miss Bigelow, of Spicer's Island, by two small daughters. He also leaves, besides his father and mother, two sisters and four brothers. The sisters are Mrs. John Fisher, of Tiverton, and Mrs. Johnston Spicer of Parrsboro; and the brothers, Gay, Pleaman, Frank and Ashley, all of Boston.

Mr. Loomer was a devout member of the United Baptist church, and was esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.

Ansel Robbins.

Yarmouth, N. S., Oct. 1. (Special).—Word was received here at noon that Ansel Robbins of the customs service had died this morning in Boston hospital. He had been ill with internal trouble for some time. An operation was performed which caused his death. He was born in Arcadia this county 74 years ago. For many years he was employed by Wm. Law & Co., and was appointed to the customs house about 20 years ago. He is survived by a widow, four sons and one daughter.
