MUST DROP THE IRISH

Gladstone's Views Do Not Apply at Present Day.

Rosebery Speaks of His Change in Heart and Head During Past Five Years.

The Irish Question Too Big for One Party—All Patriotic Englishmen Must Co-Operate.

Liverpool, Feb. 15.—Lord Rosebery received a tremendous ovation at the great Liberal demonstration here last evening. His lengthy speech, the principal one of the evening, was attentively received and heartily applauded. He failed to throw the fresh light on the war situation, but strongly emphasized his hostility to the Irish party and his desire to utterly alienate it from the Liberal camp.

GLADSTONE'S BILLS DEAD.

During his remarks Lord Rosebery said that the greatest change in heart and head undergone during his five years' absence from public life was in regard to the Irish problem. Mr. Gladstone's bills were dead and buried, though that statement cast no reflection on the great statesman who originated them. The Irish party had now indignantly repudiated any connection with Liberal party, and he believed they had ACTED WISELY.

It was both to their interests and to those of the Liberal party. The Irish leaders had played their full hand. They had demanded an imperial parliament in Dublin and thereupon he had cried "Halt."

This remark was greeted with applause. Continuing Lord Rosebery said:

"I am not prepared at any time or under any circumstances to grant them an independent parliament. No sane person would ever consent to handing over the destinies of Ireland, situated in the very heart of the empire, to a parliament controlled by those who have expressed the earnest wish that we might be overthrown in battle."

IRISH QUESTION A BIG ONE.

"The Irish question is too large for any one party. It will need the energy and the patriotism of both great parties to deal therewith. These are my personal sentiments, but I wish to make them perfectly clear on returning to public life."

Regarding the war Lord Rosebery said he had been ignorantly ridiculed for the suggestion of "casual peace negotiations in some wayside inn," but that he thought the recent mission of Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, bore a fairly close analogy to such a course. The speaker said he thought the reply of Lord Lansdowne, the under secretary for foreign affairs, to Dr. Kuyper was fitting and dignified, but he thought the government had acted wrongly in declining to reckon with the Boer delegates in Europe, and allow them to send a deputation to South Africa.

GOVERNMENT'S MISTAKE.

"The trouble with the government," said Lord Rosebery, "is that they are always thinking of the present. I try to think of the future when Boer and Briton will have to live together in South Africa."

The speaker appealed for a searching inquiry into the remount scandal and commented generally upon the government's seeming want of a definite policy in Malta and Wei Hai Wei. In conclusion he begged that his hearers would not be too ready to allow their hands to be tied by the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

BID FOR NEW PARTY.

Lord Rosebery's speech at Liverpool yesterday evening, which is likely to excite quite as keen discussion as did his Chesterfield address, is an even stronger bid for the formation of an entirely new party out of the ruins of the old Liberal party, and the widespread public discontent with the many misfortunes and blunders of the present administration. Hence the newspapers of either extreme politics have nothing good to say of the speech.

In a short address delivered later, in which Lord Rosebery said that nobody but himself was responsible for the views he enunciated, the speaker admitted that he had no hope that they would in the near future lead to peace or power.

"But," said he, "I tell you it is better to wait ten or twenty years, or even a generation, to obtain real power unalloyed by sullying compromise than by coalition, compromise or conflicting ideas to obtain power tomorrow."

ARMY AND NAVY ESTIMATES.

The admiralty's naval estimates from 1902-1903 show a total of $156,275,000, as compared with $154,375,000 last year. There will be under construction April 1 of this year 13 new battleships, 22 armored cruisers, 2 second-class cruisers, 2 third-class cruisers, 10 torpedo-boat destroyers, 5 torpedo boats and 8 minor craft.

The army estimates, issued today, show a grand total for the year 1902-1903 of £69,310,000, which is intended to provide for 420,000 men, of which 219,700 men are for the ordinary army service and 200,300 for war service.

The estimates, of which £40,000,000 is required for war, show a decrease under this head of £23,230,000, compared with 1901-1902. In a memorandum, the war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, explains that the estimates are sufficient to maintain a field force in South Africa of the present strength for eight or nine months of the new financial year.

PLOT AGAINST SULTAN.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Echo de Paris says that a plot against the sultan has been discovered and that two of the sultan's aids have been arrested, and it is reported that a number of courtiers are implicated in the plot. The object of the conspiracy was to either kill the sultan or imprison and dethrone him.

A Dainty and Delightful Preparation.

AN AID TO BEAUTY.

There is nothing that so directly appeals to a woman, anxious to preserve youth and beauty, as a pure skin food.

"Hazeline" is a skin food, which, with the aid of massage, tones shrunken nerves, protects delicate tissues, and in innumerable ways acts as a safeguard against the many destroying influences of time.

This exquisite preparation not only fills out and smoothes the skin that is wrinkled and shrunken, but it becomes as well a cooling, healing and soothing agent.

Hazeline keeps the skin like velvet —takes away redness and roughness —tan and sunburn, cures "chapped" hands, lips, etc. 25 cents a bottle.
