D INDIGESTION R STOMACH PAIN IN FIVE MINUTES

Pape's Diapepsin" makes sick, sour, gassy stomachs feel fine.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless.

Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please, for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which doesn't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

LONDON FORMING NATIONAL GUARD

Men of All Walks, Over Forty Years of Age, Wanted.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—3:35 a.m.—In view of the possibilities of an invasion, London is to have a defence corps, under a title hitherto not used in this country, "The National Guard." The morning papers contain the following notice displayed in large type in the advertising columns:

"It is felt by a large section of the community that some steps should be taken in the city of London to meet the possibility of an invasion.

"With this idea in view, a force, under the name of the National Guard is being raised under the presidency of the Lord Mayor. The object is to provide a force of actively engaged professional men, businessmen, artisans and others, of the age of forty and upwards, of the age of 40 and upwards.

No War News For 31 Hours Over Holiday

[Canadian Press.]

LONDON, Dec. 16.—The official press bureau and censor office propose to take a holiday from 2 o'clock on the afternoon of December 24 to 9 o'clock Christmas night, during which period no news will be passed for transmission.

GERMANS SAY BRITISH LOST ONE WARSHIP

And That Fleet Was Damaged in South Atlantic Battle.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Dispatches to the German Embassy today from the German minister at Santiago, Chile, announced that the British fleet, which sank the cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Leipzig off the Falkland Islands, recently was badly damaged, and that one of the British ships apparently was sunk.

A statement issued tonight at the Embassy said:

"According to information received by the German Embassy from Chile, the battle of the Falkland Islands lasted from nine o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock in the evening.

"On the British side, the Invincible, Inflexible, Canopus, Carnarver, Cornwall, Kent, Glasgow and Bristol were engaged; many German officers and men were saved, but lack of boats prevented the number from being larger. The British cruiser Defence did not take part and has been seen aground at Port Stanley.

"Only seven English cruisers left the scene of the battle, so that one must have been sunk. The others were badly damaged."

EMDEN PIRATES RAID WITH COLLIER

Survivors Using Captured Ship to Prey Upon Commerce.

MANILA, P. I. Dec. 16. — Forty men of the crew of the German cruiser Emden, who were left on Cocos Island when the Australian cruiser Sydney discovered the Emden, and chased her and forced her to run ashore, some time ago, have captured a collier, and mounted two guns on her, and are now raiding commerce in the Pacific, according to a report received here.

The report came through officers of the British steamer Malacca, which has arrived at Jolo. The report has not been confirmed officially.

The Malacca reports that she steamed to Jolo without showing lights at night.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 16.—Jack Burns, a member of the city fire department for years, while in a fit of despondency shot himself twice in the head with a revolver and is in a serious condition. He has a wife and family.

RUSSIANS HOLDING BIG GERMAN FORCE

WOULD CUT OFF WARSAW

Strategy Stops the Austrian Advance From Beyond Carpathians.

[Canadian Press.]

WARSAW, Dec. 16.—(Via London)—While the consensus of opinion in Warsaw is that the second German attempt to reach the city has resulted in failure, it is a fact that the Germans have begun a rapid concentration of their forces at the extreme left of their Lowicz-Ilow front, practically on the banks of the Vistula. They are said to have thrown a bridge across the river to the southeast of Plock, and it appears that they are preparing to cross the Vistula in the rear of the Russian line running between Plock and a point south of Mlawa, or move up the left bank between Ilow and the river.

Strive to Cut Railroad.

This new German concentration in such force, it is believed by competent Russian observers here, constitutes an effort to throw a wedge back of Sochaczew, 30 miles west of Warsaw, with the idea of cutting railroad communication between Lodz and Warsaw.

This movement has been met by a strongly reinforced Russian column which, during the past several days, has been slowly forcing the Germans back in the vicinity of Sochaczew. Here the fighting has been severe, each side making repeated attacks and counter-attacks.

Warsaw Not Alarmed.

Little apprehension of the outcome of the fighting in the immediate vicinity is evident in Warsaw, where business houses are open and the streets thronged as usual. The infrequent flights of German aeroplanes on bomb-dropping expeditions continue, but the people of Warsaw apparently are becoming accustomed to such visitations, which, with one or two exceptions, have resulted in little damage or loss of life. A total of 26 bombs have been dropped on the city of Warsaw. The most serious results followed the falling of such a missile in a crowded tenement district, where eight people are reported to have been killed and several wounded.

In the north of Poland the Germans appears to have directed their aerial efforts to the destruction of railroad terminals, where a number of their bombs have fallen.

RUSSIAN TROOPS SHIFT POSITION.

PETROGRAD, Dec. 16.—The following communication from the general staff of the commander-in-chief of the Russian forces was issued this evening:

"In the direction of Mlawa we have repulsed the enemy toward the frontier

"On the left bank of the Vistula the Germans kept up a stubborn attack throughout the day along the line from Kiernozia to Sochaczew. Owing to the unfavorable condition of the country our troops retreated slightly during the evening of December 15.

"On the other sections of the front our troops made counter-attacks and compelled the enemy to remain on his positions, checking his attempts to advance.

"Our strategy has stopped the Austrian advance from beyond the Carpathians.

"On the other points there is no important change to report."

EARL OF LEVEN HAS ESCAPED TO LONDON

Crosses Belgium Disguised as Refugee, Getting Through Germans.

LONDON, Dec. 16.—10:40 p.m.—The Earl of Leven and Melville has, according to the Central News, arrived in London after having escaped from German territory.

The earl went to the front in the early stages of the war with his regiment, the Royal Scots Greys, in which he is a lieutenant, and being wounded on August 22, was left behind when his regiment retreated. He was taken by Germans to a hospital, suffering from a bullet wound in the thigh.

On Wednesday last, disguised as a Belgian refugee, he travelled across Belgium in a northerly direction, broke through the German lines, and crossed the Dutch frontier without a passport.

The earl is still very lame, but hopes soon to be in the fighting line again.

HYDRO COMMISSION GRANTS REDUCTION

Commission Announces a Reduction Throughout Circle.

LONDON RATE VERY LOW

Floor Space Charge Is Cut Down—Cooking "Juice" Reduced.

[Canadian Press.]

TORONTO, Dec. 16. — Considerable rate reductions were recommended by the provincial hydro-electric commission, and announced by Sir Adam Beck tonight. In the face of decided reductions put into effect a year ago, the municipalities in the hydro circle, with an investment of eleven millions, showed a profit during the past year, after paying all operating, power, maintenance and sinking fund charges, of well over a million dollars.

This surplus, by the policy of the provincial commission, goes back to the consumers in reduced rates.

By the adjustments made today the municipality of Port Arthur receives a reduction of 25 per cent; Georgetown and New Hamburg receive 20 per cent; 59 municipalities receive over 10 per cent and under 20 per cent, and 14 municipalities get a 10 per cent reduction.

London and St. Thomas Low.

The municipalities receiving the lowest rates are Ottawa, London, Port Arthur and St. Thomas. The previous rates to London and St. Thomas are reduced by 10 per cent.

Toronto users of hydro power get nothing.

"We feel that the showing made by the Toronto system warrants a reduction, in addition to the one we recommended a year ago, but the Toronto commission has not obeyed our order to reduce rates for 1914, so that the provincial commission did not consider this year's rates with those of the other municipalities," stated Sir Adam, in explaining the absence of any recommendation with regard to Toronto.

Reduce Floor Space Rate.

The principal reduction has been made in the floor space charge, which has been reduced from 4 cents to 3 cents per 100 square feet, with a minimum of 1,000, and a maximum of 3,000 square feet. A second rate has been added for domestic consumers to permit of the general use of cooking and other electrical appliances for the homes. This rate is 50 per cent of the initial rate.

Another important feature is that the reduction for other than lighting purposes will be 50 per cent in the case of the small house on the current, in excess of 40 kilowatts, and the large house, where the current is in excess of 100 kilowatts.

OSGOODE RECALLS EMPRESS DISASTER

Effort To Settle Estate of One Family Wiped Out—Priority At Issue.

TORONTO, Dec. 16.—Never have more thrilling stories been placed upon the files of Osgoode Hall than the statement by three eye-witnesses of the final scenes in the sinking of the Empress of Ireland in the St. Lawrence last May and the wiping out of the little family circle of Salvationists, A. E. Foord, of Toronto. Foord, his wife and his two-year-old daughter lost their lives together.

At Osgoode Hall today the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, administrators of the estates of Mr. and Mrs. Foord, applied to Mr. Justice Riddell, for an order determining the order of priority in which Mr. Foord, his wife and their little girl departed this life. Upon this depended to whom should go the proceeds of a $1,000 policy in the London Life Assurance Company on the life of Mr. Foord, $82 from a policy in the Salvation Army Assurance Company, on the life of Mrs. Foord and $24 from a policy on the life of the child.

Bandsman Kenneth A. McIntyre, in an affidavit tells of tying life belts on Mr. and Mrs. Foord.

Wanted Husband Saved.

"Alice Foord," he said, "seemed very nervous and fearful, continually reiterating 'Save my Ernie,' 'Save my Ernie.' A. E. Foord was cool as an icicle under the circumstances and was doing his best to reassure and comfort his wife. From my own experience in the water I should judge that any woman would have very little chance of withstanding either the shock or the exposure compared with a man."

Frank P. Brooks, who shared Mr. Foord's stateroom on the Empress, saw Mr. Foord a few minutes before the vessel sank with his arm around his wife, holding her apparently to keep her from falling to the deck as she was then absolutely unable to help herself from nervousness or fright and weakness.

Mrs. Foord Lost Control.

Mr. Brooks thought that Mrs. Foord had lost all control of herself and was not capable of putting forth any effort towards saving herself.

Major George E. S. Attwell makes a similar affirmation and tells of Foord's plea to him to save his baby. Mr. Foord took back his child when he secured a life belt.

The relatives of Mr. Foord and those of Mrs. Foord both are claimants for the insurance funds. Mr. Justice Riddell declared he was unable to come to any decision on the affidavits and would direct an issue to be tried.

The parties then reached a settlement whereby the funds would be consolidated and distributed equally among the next of kin on each side.

HAVRE, Dec. 5. — Thousands of British troops are arriving here daily on transports, and are being moved to the north as rapidly as possible. The British are making the port of Havre their main base of supplies. On the average, fifteen British transports arrive here daily from Southampton.

Large camps have been leased on the heights along the Seine for periods varying from two to three years, and barracks are being built. Extensive supply depots have been established here.

HENRI BOURASSA REFUSED HEARING

Would Not Wave Flag Proffered Him By Soldier.

DIN PREVENTED SPEECH

Nationalist Firebrand Slips Away When Riot Threatens—Protests Loyalty.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, Dec. 16.—Henri Bourassa was denied a hearing in Ottawa tonight. The Nationalist leader, whose eloquence helped Sir Robert Borden to power in 1911, was advertised to speak here two weeks ago. Hostile expressions caused the invitation to be withdrawn. A volunteer committee then secured the Russell Theatre and invited Bourassa to speak.

An effort was made to handpick the audience. Admission was by ticket. Forty city policemen were placed on guard, and all went well until an officer slugged a spectator just as a squad of Dragoons in khaki came along. The soldiers then took direction of affairs from the police, who were stood to one side while the crowd broke open the doors, filled the hall, and started to sing.

Blondin Crowded Out.

Hon. Mr. Blondin, minister of inland revenue, and Hon. L. P. Coderre, secretary of state, failed to gain admission.

The noise from the audience was so continuous that Mr. Bourassa was introduced by gestures. He could not obtain a hearing, and started to read his speech to the reporters at one corner of the stage.

A bunch of Dragoons in the front seats invaded the platform with a Union Jack, which they asked Bourassa to wave. He is understood to have replied: "I will wave it in freedom but not under compulsion." At any rate, he backed away from the flag shaking his head. Some one dropped the curtain and prevented a riot. Bourassa faded away, and the audience remained for two hours and spent a very pleasant evening singing "Tipperary" and a new one about the Allies.

"Ottawa Kulture."

On leaving the theatre, Mr. Bourassa said to the press men: "I am a British subject and I will not wave the British flag under compulsion. This is what I might have expected from Prussian Kulture in Ottawa."

M. Bourassa got a hearing later in the evening from a few friends who accompanied him to the Chateau Laurier. Standing in the centre of the rotunda, beneath the statute of Sir Wilfrid, to whom he has not been friendly since the Drummond Athabasco campaign on the Canadian naval policy, Mr. Bourassa said that he stood for free speech and was an admirer of British institutions. He regretted that he had not been given a hearing in the theatre.

ENGLAND EXPECTING MORE GERMAN RAIDS

Whole Object to Relieve the Depression in Germany.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—12:55 a.m.—The Times, discussing what it terms indiscriminate shelling of unfortified towns, refers to the statement of Count Ernst Von Reventlow, the German naval expert, that "we must see clearly that in order to fight with success we must fight ruthlessly and in the proper meaning of the word,' and adds:

"The deeds wrought at Whitby and Scarbrough represent 'the proper meaning,' as interpreted in Germany.

"We shall not discuss the prescriptions of international law, because the Germans jettisoned alike all principles of international law and all dictates of society. The German navy and the German nation will learn the full significance of the Indian saying: 'The patience of the British is as long as the summer day, but their arm is as long as the winter night.'

"The raid had no genuine military or naval significance, and its objects could only be to relieve the prevalent depression in Germany and create panic in these islands. The second object has entirely failed. The raid was received with complete calmness.

"We fully expect the German ships to come again until they come once too often."

The Times adds that the purpose of the Royal Navy is to engage and destroy the enemy's ships, and that this purpose will be inflexibly pursued, despite all subtle temptations to abandon it for other objects.

RECEIVER FOR BIG CORPORATION.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—A receiver for the International Typesetting Machine Company was appointed by the United States district court here today in an equity suit brought by the International Banking Corporation and the Central Trust & Savings Company. The International Typesetting Machine Company manufactures and sells typesetting machines, and it has an authorized capital of $4,000,000.

BRONCHITIS

If Neglected Will Surely Turn Into PNEUMONIA.

Bronchitis comes from a neglected cold. It starts with a short, painful, dry cough, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of oppression or tightness through the chest. At first the expectoration is of a light color, but soon becomes copious and of purulent character.

You have, no doubt, wakened up in the morning and have had to cough half a dozen times before you could raise the phlegm from your bronchial tubes, and when you do succeed in doing so you find that it is of yellowish or greenish color, and you get some relief right away. When this happens to you, you may rest assured that you have a touch of bronchitis, and if not cured immediately it will sooner or later develop into pneumonia or some other more serious trouble.

Cure the cold, and thereby prevent bronchitis and pneumonia taking a hold on your system.

This can be quickly done by the use of

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

Mrs. Rebecca Have, Mahone Bay, N. S., writes: "My little boy, aged [illegible], was always troubled with bronchitis, and when he ha whooping cough he was worse. Doctors advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It gave him instant relief, and positively cured him."

Allies' Airmen Giving Trouble in Enemy's Field

Englishmen Cause Another Panic at Friedrichshafen.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Dec. 16.—(Via Paris)—11 p.m.—French and English aerial excursions are almost of daily occurrence across Alsace into Baden and Wurttemburg, the object of the aviators being chiefly the destruction of the railroad lines and stations, in order to prevent troops from reaching the Alsace-Lorraine frontier.

Yesterday two aviators, reported to be Englishmen, flew over Zersburg, on Lake Constance, and caused a panic at Friedrichshafen, the headquarters of the Zeppelin balloon works. It was more of a reconnaissance than anything else. No bombs were dropped.

A German report says that two French aviators who had thrown bombs on Freiburg for a third time, and also on Neu-Breisach, causing much damage, were brought down near Colmar last Sunday. Both men were killed and their machines smashed. A third aviator escaped.

FEEL RIGHT

When You Feed Right.

You know one always feels "very fit" when the head and nerves swing along peacefully and with that certain sense of power that is unmistakable.

But when overwork or anxiety breaks down the soft gray matter in the brain and nerve cells (anxiety will do it quicker than overwork) faster than the food you have been using replaces it, then to save yourself from that horror of darkness, nervous prostration, you must change food and take on some sure rebuilder.

That's the mission of Grape-Nuts, made of the selected parts of wheat and barley containing the natural Phosphate of Potash which combines with Albumen in the human body and makes the soft gray filling of the brain and nerve centres.

Another thing to be considered is that Grape-Nuts is "processed" in making and the starchy parts converted into a form of sugar, exactly as the process of digestion in the body. So Grape-Nuts has really passed the first act of digestion and therefore the food is quickly assimilated in the most perfect manner by babe or athlete.
