SUNDAY CARS IN OTHER PLACES

Replies to Inquiries Sent Out by the Local Committee.

The following statement has been handed out by the committee which is promoting the campaign for Sunday cars in London:

The citizens' Sunday car committee has been carrying on a correspondence for some time with the city officials of those towns and cities where Sunday cars are in operation. It was thought advisable to find out what were the results of an actual experience with the Sunday car system.

Many predictions of bad results and moral evils have been made concerning Sunday cars. Have these resulted in other cities? If not, then, are they likely to happen in our own city?

First, all the city clerks were communicated with, asking information about the installation of the cars, and about the history of the details of their operation. Several questions bearing on points of interest, such as church attendance, present opposition, and their various uses, were asked, and answers have been received. This information will be put before the public.

Next, a more extended correspondence was carried on with the mayors, police magistrates, city solicitors, controllers, city treasurers, commissioners, aldermen, editors, postmasters and ministers of Sunday car cities.

It was thought that a list of such persons would fairly represent the feeling about Sunday cars in those cities and towns where they had had a number of years of experience.

The following is the letter of inquiry that was sent to the above persons:

The Inquiry.

Dear Sir,—A citizens' committee has been formed here for the purpose of investigating the Sunday car question, with a view to installing Sunday cars in our city. We would like to hear from those towns and cities which have had some experience, and are writing to you as a representative citizen.

Would you kindly let us know if any abuses have resulted from having Sunday cars in your city? Has church attendance decreased or increased? Is there any opposition at present to their running?

To this information would you kindly add your own opinion concerning the benefit and usefulness of Sunday cars as to your own city?

Your information will be gladly received by our committee.

Respectfully yours,

The Answers.

Over two hundred and fifty answers from the above persons have been received. Of these communications fully 95 per cent are favorable to the Sunday car system, and in the remaining 5 per cent of the letters there are only expressed feelings of doubt and uncertainty, chiefly for religious reasons.

From this correspondence it was found what were some of the uses of Sunday cars:

1. Citizens use them to visit their sick friends in the hospitals.

2. Those living a long distance from church use them.

3. To go to church on cold, stormy or rainy Sundays.

4. The aged, the infirm and the invalid use them to attend church frequently.

5. People go to the outlying parks, such as High Park, Toronto, or Rockliffe Park, Ottawa.

6. Ministers use them to facilitate a frequent exchanging of pulpits, for example, the ministers of Brantford, Paris and Galt, use the Grand Valley electric road on Sunday, when exchanging pulpits.

7. Members of the family use them to visit the homes of their parents in cases where they are residing in other parts of the city.

8. Workingmen use them to take their families at small cost to out-of-town places. The well-to-do and professional classes, including ministers, go out of the city to summer resorts for the entire season, if possible. Sunday cars enable the workingmen to get out of the city for a few times in the hot summer.

9. Doctors use Sunday cars to visit their many patients on Sunday.

10. The citizens who have been in the office or factory all week use them to visit their friends on Sunday, and to get out into the fresh air and to the green fields of the country.

11. They are used by the people to visit the cemeteries where their friends and relatives are laid away.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

Dorchester Presbyterians Have Highly Successful Entertainment.

Dorchester Station, Dec. 10. — Rev. James Barber, M. A., of Embro, conducted anniversary services in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday, and preached to large assemblages. On the Wednesday evening following the yearly tea meeting was held, when a choice supper was served in the spacious basement by a galaxy of fair damsels. The popular Imperial Male Quartette of London, gave one of the most delightful musical entertainments ever enjoyed in this district, assisted by Miss Jean Robb, of London, soloist and elocutionist, and Mr. McAuliffe, station agent of the C. P. R. at Harrietsville. Rev. J. W. Orr presided. Spirited addresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Sutton and Holmes, of this place. The pleasing affair was brought to a close with "God Save the King." The receipts amounted to $150.

Dr. Banghart, medical health officer of North Dorchester Township, when seen by The Advertiser today, stated there were no new cases of smallpox in North Dorchester, and hoped in the course of ten days to be able to lift the last quarantine in the township. The
