THIS [illegible] prepared [illegible] Chamomile [illegible] Tonic properties [illegible] Flowers of Chamomile [illegible] Compound Chamomile Cordial [illegible] the Tonic, the Temperance Advocate, or Intelligent Consumer.

TESTIMONIALS:

Toronto, June 26th, 1852.

Messrs. Rexford & Co.,

Gentlemen—We have tested the Sample Bottle which you favoured us of your Compound Chamomile Cordial, and find it an agreeable fragrant and aromatic to the palate and consider it an excellent Preparation for the use of the valuable Tonic Properties of the Flowers of Chamomile.

We are &c.
GEORGE HERRICK M.D.
JOHN KING M.D.

Gentlemen—I do to-day received and have tried the sample of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," which you sent me.

Aware of the manner in which you prepare it, and of the superior and quality of the ingredients which have been employed in its manufacture, I expect [illegible] opinions of it which I should not hesitate to do under ordinary circumstances.

I consider it a very elegant Pharmaceutical Preparation, inasmuch as it is agreeable to the palate, and as well as the aromatical qualities of the Flowers of Chamomile [illegible] for the use of invalids, and will also prove an excellent medium for the administration of tonics which without such assistance, are often rejected and repudiated by the stomach.

I am Gentlemen
Yours, &c.,
FRANCIS BADGLEY, M.D.

Messrs Rexford & Co.,

Gentlemen—I duly received and have tried the Sample of "Compound Chamomile Cordial" which you sent me. I consider it a very elegant Preparation and one which will prove a valuable Tonic as recommended in cases of Dyspepsia and the weakness of the Stomach, it being very agreeable to taste, can be taken by any one.

I am, &c.,
THOMAS DUGAN,
Surgeon.

Messrs. Rexford & Co.,

Gentlemen,—I have received the Sample Bottle of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial," and consider it a beautiful as well as highly palatable preparation. The aromatic and peculiar bitter flavor, in which lies the essential Medicinal qualities, appear to be largely extracted and well preserved; and as this vegetable Tonic is highly beneficial in those forms of Dyspepsia depending on debility, or want of tone of the nervous system, (the form most frequently met with on this continent) your Cordial will, I doubt not, form an the suitable addition to our Pharmacopœia.

From the knowledge possessed by me of Mr. Rexford, and his very high reputation as a Pharmaceutical Chemist I feel much pleasure in confidently recommending his preparation of this valuable Tonic to the Professional Profession and to the public, as a delightful and invigorating Cordial.

I am, Yours, &c.,
GEORGE HOLMES,
Surgeon

Messrs. Rexford & Co. Toronto.

Gentlemen,—I have no hesitation in expressing to you my professional appreciation of your "Compound Chamomile Cordial." The Tonic properties of the Flowers of Chamomile with which it is finely blended, are so well and acknowledged and the Medicinal qualities of that [illegible] appreciated so highly in cases of Dyspeptic complaints that I consider the idea of administering it at the same time in a Cordial most happy; and [illegible]

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all other articles offered to the public for Preserving and Restoring the hair, it prevents and cures baldness or grey hair, cures dandruff and pimples, and what is of the highest importance, is that it is the most select Toilet preparation, being perfectly harmless and successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautiful soft, smooth and glossy appearance, so that it also differs from other preparations all of which were so far from hair like the hair. The Spanish Ladies so justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original colour to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Diseased hair loosens and falls out or turns grey. The Invigorator removes such disease, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.
